115th Annual
COMMENCEMENT
of
Cedarville University

CLASS of 2011

SATURDAY, THE SEVENTH DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND ELEVEN
AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

"Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful."

Hebrews 10:23, ESV

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2011

Today is the celebration of the 115th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, five godly men were led to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education to equip graduates to serve God. Today their purpose lives on at Cedarville University.

Our theme for this academic year, "Real-World Impact: Unafraid and Unashamed," has given us a glimpse of how God wants to use us. Hidden behind the theme is the truth that the "real world" is not the one where things rot, rust, decay, and die. This may be the world we live in now, but the real world is yet to come. It is the world we were made for.

Lynne and I, along with our University family, congratulate the Class of 2011. You stand tall on the shoulders of those who have gone before you. The University family has been honored to walk these years of your journey with you. Our desire is that you always will be aware of God's guidance and provision as you walk into the future He has prepared.

To all of the family and friends who are here to celebrate the commencement of the Class of 2011, we welcome you to our ceremony. I trust that this will not only be a time of celebration and joy for you but also a time of reflection about your own relationship with God and His love for you. The Scriptures say, "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). The beautiful reality of God's love for us and His desire for us to be His children is clearly communicated in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for our sins. We hope this is a reality in your life.

While today marks an end, it is also a beginning. We are blessed to have you here today and trust you will leave changed.

THE 115TH COMMENCEMENT FEATURED SPEAKER BARRY C. BLACK CHAPLAIN, U.S. SENATE

After serving in the U.S. Navy for more than 27 years and ending his distinguished naval career as chief of Navy chaplains, the retired Rear Adm. Barry C. Black was elected the 62nd chaplain of the U.S. Senate in 2003.

In addition to opening the Senate each day in prayer, Chaplain Black provides counseling and spiritual care for senators, their families, and staff. He also meets with senators about spiritual and moral issues, assists with research on theological and biblical questions, and facilitates discussion and reflection in small groups among senators and staff. He also conducts marriage enrichment counseling and officiates at weddings, funerals, and memorial services. In addition, Black initiates and participates in special and seasonal observances, leads interdenominational prayer gatherings, and cultivates relationships with local clergy and leaders of humanitarian agencies.

Commissioned as a Navy chaplain in 1976, Black's first duty station was the Fleet Religious Support Activity in Norfolk, Virginia. He served in many subsequent assignments, including the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland; the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing in Okinawa, Japan; the Naval Training Center in San Diego, California; chief of naval education and training in Pensacola, Florida; fleet chaplain in the U.S. Atlantic Fleet in Norfolk, Virginia; and several other posts.

As rear admiral, his personal decorations included the Navy Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal (two awards), Meritorious Service Medal (two awards), Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (two awards), and numerous unit awards, campaign awards, and service medals.

Black is a native of Baltimore, Maryland and an alumnus of Oakwood College, Andrews University, North Carolina Central University, Eastern Baptist Seminary, Salve Regina University, and United States International University. In addition to earning Master of Arts degrees in divinity, counseling, and management, he has received Doctor of Ministry and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in psychology.

Black has been selected for many outstanding achievements. Of particular note, he was chosen from 127 nominees for the 1995 NAACP Renowned Service Award for his contribution to equal opportunity and civil rights. He received the 2002 Benjamin Elijah Mays Distinguished Leadership Award from The Morehouse School of Religion. In 2004, the Old Dominion University chapter of the NAACP conferred on him the Image Award, "Reaffirming the Dream — Realizing the Vision" for military excellence. He is also the author of his autobiography titled From the Hood to the Hill. Black and his wife, Brenda, have three sons, Barry II, Brendan, and Bradford.

CLASS SONG

Beautiful

I see Your face in ev'ry sunrise
The colors of the morning are inside Your eyes

The world awakens in the light of the day

I look up to the sky and say
You're beautiful

I see Your power in the moonlit night

Where planets are in motion and galaxies are bright

We are amazed in the light of the stars

It's all proclaiming who
You are

You're beautiful

You're beautiful

I see You there hanging on a tree

You bled and then You died

And then You rose again
for me

Now You are sitting on Your heavenly throne

Soon we will be coming home

You're beautiful

You're beautiful

Let's sing it out

When we arrive at eternity's shore

Where death is just a memory and tears are no more

We'll enter in as the wedding bells ring

Your bride will come together and we'll sing

You're beautiful

Oh You're beautiful

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the first European universities in the Middle Ages. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. The mortarboard is the standard cap. The tassel color, as established by an intercollegiate commission, indicates the subject field.

arts, history, letters, languages	white
business, commerce	drab
communication	silver gray
criminal justice	navy blue
education	light blue
engineering	orange
fine arts	dark brown
journalism	maroon
music	pink
nursing	apricot
pharmacy	olive
philosophy	royal blue
physical education, allied health	sage green
religion	scarlet
science, mathematics, psychology	golden yellow
social work, political science, public administration	citron
doctor of arts	gold
doctor of education	gold
doctor of philosophy	gold
doctor of theology	gold

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue indicates a doctoral degree. Dark brown indicates a master of arts degree. White indicates a bachelor of arts or a master of arts degree. Scarlet indicates a bachelor of divinity degree or a master of divinity degree. Yellow indicates a bachelor of science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features. It is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color that symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some regalia represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open, and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 or better is graduated "with honor"; one who earns a grade point average of 3.75 or better is graduated "with high honor"; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated "with highest honor." A student must be in residence at least two full years (60 semester hours) in order to qualify for honors.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first board of trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal are the words "PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI," translated "For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ," as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to emphasize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the college, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville's founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, "For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ," to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.
