The 117th Annual COMMENCEMENT
of
Cedarville University
CLASS of 2013

SATURDAY, THE FOURTH DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND THIRTEEN AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

"Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,"

Philippians 2:14-15

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2013

Today is the celebration of the 117th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, five godly men were led to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education to equip graduates to serve God. Their purpose lives on at Cedarville University 126 years later.

Our theme for this academic year is “Living the Christ-Centered Life.” Our focus has been on the practical ways we live out our Lord’s command to follow Him. From the example of Jesus and the teachings of the New Testament, the Christ-centered life is marked by sacrificial service to others, integrity and virtue in character, and bold proclamation of the Gospel. It can be summed up in Cedarville’s four core values: Love for God, Love for Others, Integrity in Conduct, and Excellence in Effort.

Lynne and I, along with our University family, congratulate the class of 2013. You stand tall on the shoulders of those who have gone before you. The University family has been honored to walk these years of your journey with you. Our desire is that you always will be aware of God’s guidance and provision as you walk into the future He has prepared.

To all of the family and friends who are here to celebrate the commencement of the class of 2013, we welcome you to our ceremony. I trust that this will not only be a time of celebration and joy for you, but also a time of reflection about your own relationship with God and His love for you. The Scriptures say: “But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Rom. 5:8). The beautiful reality of God’s love for us and His desire for us to be His children is clearly communicated in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for our sins. We hope this is a reality in your life.

While today marks an end, it is also a beginning. We are blessed to have you here today and trust you will leave changed.

William E. Brown, Ph.D.
President, Cedarville University

WILLIAM E. BROWN BIOGRAPHY

Dr. William E. Brown has served as Cedarville University's President since 2003. He is a graduate of the University of South Florida, and he holds a Master of Theology and Ph.D. from Dallas Theological Seminary.

As a nationally recognized expert in worldview, Brown has authored three books and more than one hundred articles. Fifty-three excerpts from his book Where Have All the Dreamers Gone? appear in the Impact Student Leadership Bible, a project that incorporates hundreds of articles, notes, and study aids designed to help young people develop a balanced Christian worldview. He is also the executive producer of re:View, a film series that helps students discern culture (re-films.com).

Under Brown's tenure as President, financial aid was strategically restructured and student enrollment increased. With the addition of master's degrees, online programs, and the doctoral degree in pharmacy, Cedarville's overall enrollment reached 3,386 this year.

Since 2003, Cedarville has added pharmacy, industrial and innovative design, forensic science, and journalism programs that meet the needs of students and employers. The University has also increased international recruitment efforts, including an office in China.

But enrollment and academic programs are only a part of Brown's impact at Cedarville. He developed Vision 2020, a strategic plan to strengthen Cedarville and broaden its influence through the next decade. More than $60 million was raised for scholarships, academic and ministry programs, new buildings and renovations, and daily operations for the University. But perhaps his greatest strength is the relationships he's fostered with students.

In 10 years, he has kept more than 600 lunch and coffee appointments with students, and he and his wife, Lynne, have hosted nearly 200 student groups at their home. He has been a regular "Getting Started" volunteer — it's a special memory for a freshman who can say her President moved her into her residence hall. Brown is a favorite Monday morning chapel speaker, and students always look forward to the stories he reads at Campus Christmas. His care for students is authentic, and they love him for that.

In July, Brown will transition into the role of Chancellor where he will continue representing Cedarville to alumni, donors, and constituent groups across the country and internationally.

Brown and his wife have two grown children, April and Alex; a son-in-law, Jared; and two grandchildren, Jack and Liam.

CLASS SONG

Be Thou My Vision

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me, save that Thou art.
Thou my best Thought, by day
or by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word;
I ever with Thee and Thou
with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, I Thy
true son;
Thou in me dwelling, and I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
Thou mine Inheritance, now
and always:
Thou and Thou only, put first
in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my Treasure Thou art.

Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied
Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied

My Jesus, you satisfy
My Jesus, you satisfy

High King of Heaven, my
victory won,
May I reach Heaven's joys,
bright Heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart,
whatever befall,
Still be my Vision, O Ruler
of all.

Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the first European universities in the Middle Ages. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. The mortarboard is the standard cap. The tassel color, as established by an intercollegiate commission, indicates the subject field.

arts, history, letters, languages	white
business, commerce	drab
communication	silver gray
criminal justice	navy blue
education	light blue
engineering	orange
fine arts	dark brown
journalism	maroon
music	pink
nursing	apricot
pharmacy	olive
philosophy	royal blue
physical education, allied health	sage green
religion	scarlet
science, mathematics, psychology	golden yellow
social work, political science, public administration	citron
doctor of arts	gold
doctor of education	gold
doctor of philosophy	gold
doctor of theology	gold

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue indicates a doctoral degree. Dark brown indicates a Master of Arts degree. White indicates a Bachelor of Arts or a Master of Arts degree. Scarlet indicates a Bachelor of Divinity degree or a Master of Divinity degree. Yellow indicates a Bachelor of Science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features. It is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color that symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some regalia represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open, and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 or better is graduated “with honor”; one who earns a grade point average of 3.75 or better is graduated “with high honor”; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated “with highest honor.” A student must be in residence at least two full years (60 semester hours) in order to qualify for honors.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first Board of Trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal are the words “PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI,” translated “For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ,” as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to emphasize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the college, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville’s founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, “For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ,” to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.
