Christina Kirkpatrick's Softball Blog

March 17, 2014

"What is defeat? Nothing but education; nothing but the first steps to something better." – Wendell Phillips

These insightful words resound loudly with the Lady Jacket softball team this week. To say that this week was comparable to a hectic up-and-down ride on a roller coaster would be an understatement. We experienced some of the highest successes our team has ever seen, and then promptly experienced major setbacks days later. However, I speak confidently for the entire team when I say that the success and adversity we experienced over the past few days will only serve to grow us stronger as a team.

At the beginning of this past week, we found out that because of our notable success during our Florida trip we were ranked 24th in the nation for NCAA D II teams. Obviously, our team was (and still is) ecstatic to hear this exciting news. Not only was this the first time our softball squad has ever been ranked nationally, but this was the first time any women's team at Cedarville has received this honor in NCAA Division II. Of course, with such attention comes high expectations - and we definitely felt the weight of this new attention on Saturday.

On Saturday, we were pleasantly surprised to see our bleachers packed and fans lined up and down the field to watch our first home games. Unfortunately, the ranking may have served as a burden to us this past weekend and we played some of the worst softball we have all year. All aspects of our game suffered, and we frankly didn't play like the Lady Jacket softball team our fans in Florida came to know and expect. We lost both games in our doubleheader to Ashland (a quality program, no doubt) and were tempted to leave the field feeling discouraged and disheartened.

However, all it took was a glance at my wrist to remember who I and the rest of the team are playing for. I, along with many others, wrote our team's motto ("AO1") on my wrist to remind myself throughout the game and afterwards that I'm playing for an "Audience of One". We don't play ball to garner national attention, to gain a higher ranking, to please our coaches, or to improve our statistics; rather, we play to glorify our Creator first and foremost. God has gifted so many young ladies on our team with so many diverse talents that can be seen both on and off the field - and we should never let two minor losses diminish that. Every time we step in between the white foul lines is an opportunity for communicating God's glory with our opponents, fans, and umpires - which is a much more important purpose than gaining a couple wins. I'm confident these two losses will serve to humble our team but also to uplift us by reminding us the true purpose we lace up our cleats.

"Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything." (James 1:1-3)

Today's Games

The Cedarville University softball team hosts the Urbana University Blue Knights in a non-conference doubleheader today at Lady Jacket Field.

Cedarville, with a record of 12-5, is ranked #24 in the latest NFCA NCAA II National Poll. The Lady Jackets suffered two losses to visiting Ashland University on Saturday, March 15 by scores of 7-3 and 9-2.

Urbana, an NCAA II former member of the G-MAC, is now playing in the Mountain East Conference (MEC). UU is 7-3 on the season having just returned from their spring break trip to Clermont, Florida. The Blue Knights have won four straight including victories over Mercy (6-0) and Alderson Broaddus (7-3) this past Saturday.

Cedarville's Nikki Eigsti, a freshman first baseman, leads the team in hitting with a .395 mark (15-for-38).

Junior Nicole Davis has produced a second-best .367 batting effort and leads Cedarville in hits (22), runs (15) and triples (2). She is second with 30 total bases.

Rookie Christina Kirkpatrick is CU's third-leading hitter with a .360 average and a second-best four stolen bases.

Kelsey Chapman, a senior catcher/pitcher, leads Cedarville in doubles (6), homeruns (2), RBI's (19), total bases (32) and slugging percentage (.582). Chapman, batting .327 at the plate, is also 3-0 in the circle and has not allowed an earned run in 27 innings of work.

Last Time Up

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - It wasn't an enjoyable home opener for NFCA #24 Cedarville. Ashland came into town and promptly swept a non-conference doubleheader from the Lady Jackets on Saturday, March 15.

The Eagles cruised to a 7-3 win in the first game and then used a seven-run inning to claim the nightcap, 9-2.

In the opener, both teams combined to leave 23 runners on base, but Ashland made the most of nine hits and nine walks. The Eagles led 4-0 before CU got on the board with two runs in the fourth on Kelsey Chapman's 14th career home run.

The visitors added three more runs in the sixth to get some breathing room. Jessica Palm was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh. However, the Jackets left the bags full when the contest ended.

Cedarville took a 2-0 lead in the second inning of the second game. Breanna Hughes singled in a run and Carol Anne Rice scored on a passed ball.

The advantage didn't last long. Ashland sent 12 batters to the plate in the third and plated seven runs to take command. The Lady Jacket offense consisted of singles from seven different players.

Cedarville drops to 12-5 while Ashland upped its record to 10-5.
