Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 3, 2016

This week was another jam-packed week for the Lady Jacket volleyball team (when don't I say that?!). Three matches a week (2-1), really takes it out of you, if you can imagine. We also ended the week with a 33-hour trip to Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca Nazarene, in which we spent about 10½ of that driving! Phew! Needless to say we are thankful for the wonderful new Cedarville buses, 2 Wi-Fi box connectors so all of us could get homework done, and special treats to keep our stomachs happy courtesy of the Cardwell's (Kristin Cardwell's parents).

It was a full weekend for sure, but we didn't come out with the two wins that we were hoping for. We were able to come out with a win against KWC in three sets which gave us some confidence back after a tough loss to Northern Michigan the week before. The KWC match was positive for us. We were able to serve aggressively and move the ball a lot around the front row because our serve receive was doing their job well! It was a really fun match in front of a great KWC crowd. Even better, every single person on our roster made an appearance in the match! That doesn't happen very often, so the team felt happy and relieved we could all contribute to our first G-MAC win of the year. After the game, we quickly packed up and went to get some food at Penn Station before we drove another hour to Bowling Green, Kentucky for the night.

Sadly, we had a pretty terrible experience getting our food! We waited about an hour for our subs we ordered. I was proud of the team for staying patient even though it's tough to wait for food, especially with this team! We love to eat! Anyway, we finally got our food and headed to the hotel where we crashed to get some rest for our second G-MAC contest of the year against Trevecca.

We all were well rested Saturday morning. We also had our weekly team devotions and team scouting session at the hotel before we left for another hour drive to our match (I'm telling you the driving is endless!) Team devotions is one of my favorite times of the week. Even though we basically live life together, sometimes it's hard to find time to sit and listen to each other in our struggles and in what the Lord is teaching us. I was very full of joy and contentment just listening to my team share, learn, and pray together.

Soon we arrived at Trevecca Nazarene in beautiful Nashville, Tennessee. As a team, we were pretty pumped and focused to play this team which knocked us out of a trip to the NCAA tournament last year. As the match got underway we really struggled in many areas. We still were not going to give up even when we were down 2 sets to 0. That's one thing this team has that other teams I've been on didn't have. Fight and endurance. Even though it looked dim, we pushed the improved Trevecca team to their limits in the third set to end up losing the set and the match 28-26 and 3-0. Not really the way we imagined this game going. Unfortunately, you can't change the score after it's over and now it's time to go back to work this week and wipe away all of our frustrations with that game.

With another three-game week ahead (all G-MAC contests), we must come together even stronger and better. After the Trevecca match we prayed together for this purpose and to make sure that we as a team keep the main thing, that is Christ, the main thing. That's what we are all about. This week we remember our team verse.

I Corinthians 9:24-25

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

Have a blessed fall week!

"We Back the Jackets!"

Today's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Malone University Pioneers in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) match today in the Callan Athletic Center. It is also the Lady Jacket Make-A-Wish Fundraiser!

Cedarville, under the direction of ninth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (188-125), entered last night's action with a 12-4 (2-1 G-MAC) record. The squad posted a 3-0 win over visiting G-MAC opponent Ohio Valley on Tuesday night.

Malone entered Friday's action 3-16 overall with an 0-3 G-MAC record. The Pioneers played at league foe Ohio Valley last night.

Continuing to lead the 2016 Lady Jacket offensive attack is Gabby Olson. The 6-4 junior middle hitter and transfer from Clarion paces the squad with 176 kills and a second-best 54 blocks.

Outside hitter Abby Shelton, the 2015 G-MAC Co-Player of the Year, is second on the team with 151 kills and third in digs with 146.

Senior middle hitter Rachel Kriste tops CU with 56 blocks including a career-high eight vs Ohio Valley on Tuesday.

Senior libero Angela Becker leads the back row with 270 digs (4.8/set) and is sixth all-time at CU with 1,959 digs.

Junior setter Kristin Cardwell has recorded 553 assists (9.9/set) and is tied with a third-best 14 service aces.

Malone is led by Head Coach Tonya Hockman who is in her 18th year at the helm of the program (417-270)* as of 10/6/16.

Gabby Olson

Mallory Adams, a 6-0 sophomore middle/outside hitter, entered last night's match at OVU with a team-high 195 kills and a third-best 52 blocks.

Senior middle hitter Haley Kool has 125 kills and a team-high 61 blocks.

Sophomore setter Cathryn Miller has registered 518 assists, 101 digs, 16 aces and 32 blocks.

CU leads the all-time series with Malone by a 30-20 advantage. The Pioneers dealt Cedarville a 3-1 setback last September 15 in Canton.
