Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 17, 2016

Hello Everyone!

What a fantastic weekend of volleyball, family, fellowship! We had the awesome opportunity to travel to Illinois this past weekend to play in the Midwest Region Crossover tournament (just outside of Chicago.) We left campus on Thursday (10/13) and arrived at our hotel before we headed to the facility to practice for an hour. Our practice was great and well-needed after a long day on the bus! After practice, we loaded back on to the bus for a quick hour trip to the Pratt residence for a wonderful evening of food, some games, and a movie!

The trip to the Pratt's house last year was one our favorite team memories, and I'm certain this year's trip will make that list yet again. We indulged ourselves in so much yummy home cooking that we rarely get during the volleyball season, and were even blessed by Mrs. Pratt with ice cream and homemade apple crisp! After dinner, we played our favorite game of "get into a group of four people and pick a sound to call the other team members so that you can pick out the most candy that was hidden around the house" ... (yes that's the name of the game because there is no name!!) Anyway...would like to say the sophomores and Lauren (our student trainer) took home the win with that one!

The second game was blind drawing. We each got paper and were told to draw certain things such as trains, planes, and yes...Coach Walter's himself! We even gifted him with all 15 of our very awful drawings. If he doesn't display them in his office I will be quite offended...All in all, the family and fellowship was much needed! Shout out to the Pratt's for hosting and feeding all of us! Once our tummys were full, we headed back to the hotel to get some sleep for our first Midwest Crossover match against Michigan Tech on Friday (10/14).

I think the food and the rest did us well because we left the gym with a great win! The final scores were 19-25, 25-21, 25-17, 25-20. Abby Shelton recorded a season high of 19 kills in the match and Gabby Olson with the next highest at 11. We were very pleased with the win and were happy that our offensive and defensive aggression that we have been working on helped lead us to our first crossover victory.

Day 2 of the crossover brought even tougher opponents who we were eager to compete against. Our first match of the day was Saginaw Valley. Physically we were prepared, but mentally we may have not taken this game as serious as we should have. Saginaw was on top of their game and we were not. We had many sparks of greatness throughout the whole match but were never able to overcome Saginaw's scrappy defense. The final scores were 14-25, 15-25, 23-25. Even more unfortunate than the loss, was Abby Woodard's slight knee injury the last point of the game. We are not completely sure of what injury she may have but we know that we will support her in hopefully the quick road to recovery! Please be praying for her!

Finally, we needed to face our toughest opponent of the tournament. Number 1-seeded Wayne State. Going into this match we knew we had nothing to lose, and that's how we played. Even with the loss and the final score being 23-25, 21-25, 25-21, 22-25, we pushed the top team in the region to a limit that we think maybe we should always be playing at. We hope to use this close loss to learn for the next top team we play. Going 1-2 at this tournament was not our goal, but I think we proved that Cedarville Volleyball won't be going away any time soon.

Our next match is Tuesday (10/18) in the Callan Athletic Center against Tiffin University (2-1 at the Midwest Crossover tournament), another Midwest Region team. We are hungry to play more volleyball, which is a good sign as the season is coming to a close sooner than we think. We are thankful for the opportunities the Lord gives us, and are thankful for the ones we know He will give us in the future.

Until next week,

1 Thessalonians 5:18 "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

"We Back the Jackets!"

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Indiana Wesleyan University Wildcats in non-conference action tonight in the Callan Athletic Center. The "Faculty-Staff Appreciation" contest is the second of a five-match homestand.

Cedarville, under the direction of ninth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (192-127), brings a 16-6 overall record into the match. The squad posted a 3-1 verdict over visiting Tiffin University on Tuesday night. The Lady Jackets are ranked #2 in this week's National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Top 10.

Indiana Wesleyan, NAIA members of the Crossroads League, is 26-2 on the year. The Wildcats, ranked #1 in the latest NCCAA National Top 10 Rankings, defeated Grace College in league action on Wednesday.

Continuing to lead the 2016 Lady Jacket offensive attack is Gabby Olson. The 6-4 junior middle hitter and transfer from Clarion paces the squad with 238 kills and 83 blocks.

Outside hitter Abby Shelton is second on the team with 215 kills and second in digs with 209.

Senior libero Angela Becker leads the back row with 341 digs (4.4/set) and last Saturday became the sixth Lady Jacket to reach 2,000 career digs.

Junior setter Kristin Cardwell has recorded 749 assists (9.7/set) while junior Krissy Pratt tops the team with 35 service aces.

Indiana Wesleyan is led by Head Coach Candace Moats who is in her 15th year at the helm of the program (462-169).

Angela Becker

Remy Bucknor, a 5-11 senior middle hitter, is a force on the front row with 214 kills while leading the way in attack pct. (.357) and blocks (109).

Senior outside hitter Bianca Cifaldi paces the Wildcats with 255 kills. Senior Lindsay Rogan and junior Katie Elson direct the IWU 6-2 offense.

CU leads the all-time series with Indiana Wesleyan by a narrow 19-18 advantage. The teams last met on Nov. 20, 2010 at the NCCAA Midwest Regional hosted by Cedarville - a 3-0 win for the Wildcats.
