Chris Fox's Baseball Blog

March 19, 2014

In my experience there are two types of people in this world: those of us who were spanked as a child and those of you who were not. I'm not here to say one way or another whether you should physically discipline your children, but in my experience it generally has the desired affect; the child stops acting like a brat/punk. As a senior, about to start life on my own, I would like to thank my parents for spanking me as a child because it taught me three things: fear, discipline, and respect.

Sometimes it takes a good whipping to get your head on straight and respect your parents, God, baseball, life, etc. In many ways, baseball is just like life. If you don't have your head on straight or respect the game it will beat you like there is no tomorrow. As Rocky says in the newest movie in the Rocky series (Rocky Balboa), "The world ain't all sunshine and rainbows. It's a very mean and nasty place and I don't care how tough you are it will beat you to your knees and keep you there permanently if you let it." Baseball is the exact same way. If you don't come to play, locked in and ready to hit back, the game will completely and utterly embarrass you. You wanna know how I know this? Because we as a team experienced it firsthand last Friday against Ashland University.

Last Friday, at the friendly confines of Prasco's Legacy Field, the Cedarville Yellow Jacket baseball team was completely and utterly spanked / whipped / embarrassed / (insert whatever word you want...y'all get the gist). It was probably the most embarrassing loss of my baseball career not because of the final score, but because we are not the team that you may have seen out on the field that day. We threw the ball around, hit like absolute garbage, didn't make the routine plays we needed to make, and ultimately we gave up. For those of you who remember the old baseball movie Rookie, Coach Morris asks his team what the numbers on the scoreboard tell his team after an embarrassing loss. And after a joking reply that they tell you how to get a hold of Bo's Tire Barn, the head coach explains, "You quit. You quit out there. You quit on me and, worse, you quit on yourselves."

The problem wasn't that we gave up 22 hits, or that we had almost as many errors as hits. The problem was that we didn't fight back like we always did down in Florida. Later in that same talk with his son, Rocky says, "But it ain't about how hard you hit. It's about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward. How much you can take and keep moving forward. That's how winning is done!" But like every good butt-whipping you have two choices: pout or learn from it.

Thankfully we took Rocky's advice and came out swinging in game two against Ashland, going up early and controlling the tempo of the game throughout. Unfortunately, one inning got away from us bringing back painful memories from Friday night, ultimately ending in an 8-4 loss. Much more respectable, but certainly not acceptable. In game three we came out guns blazing again with a monster three-run bomb by my man Lenny in the first frame. After squandering an otherwise sizeable lead, we were able to load the bases for the one and only Guckle (Drewbeedoo Johnson) with the game knotted at sixes in the bottom of the final inning. On the very first pitch Gucks smashed a laser to right for the walk-off win against #22 ranked Ashland. After the game, their coach made a comment to Coach Manes about how we just don't quit. Amen my brotha! We do not back down here ever!! (name that movie....hint it's a basketball movie).

Thanks for listening to my little rant. I hope you enjoyed the little barrage of movie quotes. I would like to apologize real quick on two fronts. First, the debut of Mamu and Sasquatch's "Boats and Throws" music video will be delayed until further notice due to Sasquatch's engineering course load (and no I'm not Sasquatch). Second, I would like to apologize for the lack of Assassin updates this season. Coordinating blow gun fights with 30 dudes is kinda like herding cats. Which basically means, most of the guys lost their guns somewhere in Florida and we will just have to let Assassin 2014 die gracefully as an epic fail.

I hope you all have a blessed week. Make sure to come out and see our conference opener at home this Friday and Saturday against Salem International. And most importantly, don't forget to #swagout.

Chris Fox is a senior catcher from Lancaster, Ohio. He is in his third season with the Yellow Jackets and is a Dean's List student majoring in mechanical engineering.

Series Preview

The Cedarville University baseball team hosts the Salem International University Tigers in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference four-game series this weekend at Yellow Jacket Field. The series is the first home games for the 2014 Yellow Jackets.

Cedarville is 9-7 (0-0 G-MAC) on the year including winning one of three contests at Prasco Park last weekend vs NCAA II #22 Ashland in Mason, Ohio.

Salem International brings a 4-14 (0-0 G-MAC) record into the weekend series. The Tigers dropped two contests vs Malone University on Monday in games played in Mount Vernon, Ohio.

Cedarville's David Lenhardt, a sophomore catcher/outfielder, leads the team in hitting with a .429 mark (21-for-49). Lenhardt has produced team-best numbers in doubles (5), homeruns (3), RBI's (17), total bases (37), slugging percentage (.755) and walks (17).

Junior shortstop Sam Summerlin is the second-leading hitter for CU with a .393 mark. His 24 base hits are a team-high.

Dan Larkin, a junior outfielder, is CU's fourth-best hitter with a .302 average. Larkin is third on the squad in hits (19) and runs (13).

Rookie third sacker Drew Johnson has been solid at the plate with a .276 batting average and a second-best 29 total bases including three doubles, two triples and a pair of homeruns.

Sophomore lefty David Bancroft has posted a 2-0 mark on the mound with a 3.12 earned run average. He has 11 strikeouts in 17 1/3 innings of work.

Salem International features a roster with three players hitting over .300. Peyton Newsom, a rookie outfielder, leads the way with a .396 effort with a team-best 19 hits, nine runs and four doubles.

Trent Dalton, a freshman infielder, is hitting .313. Sophomore Dayan Lopez comes in with a third-best .305 batting average and a team-high nine runs batted in.

Charles Atherton is 2-1 on the year with a 2.75 ERA. He has pitched 19 2/3 innings with eight strikeouts and two complete games.

The Yellow Jackets swept all five games played against Salem International during the 2013 campaign.

Last Time Up

MASON, Ohio - Drew Johnson ripped an RBI single with the bases loaded in the bottom of the seventh inning to give Cedarville a 7-6 win over Ashland and a split of their non-conference doubleheader at Prasco Park's Legacy Field last Saturday, March 15.

The Eagles rallied to win the opener, 8-4.

In the second game, David Lenhardt drew a one-out walk in the seventh inning and moved up on a wild pitch. Dan Larkin was intentionally walked and Harrison Martin was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Johnson stung the first pitch he saw into right field to score Lenhardt with the winner.

The Yellow Jackets, 9-7 overall, let a 6-0 lead evaporate before Johnson's heroics. Lenhardt hammered a three-run homer over the centerfield fence and Chris Fox added an RBI single for a 4-0 lead in the first inning.

CU made it 6-0 in the second. Cam McWilliams doubled and scored on Marshall Johnson's triple, who then came home on a sacrifice fly by Sam Summerlin.

The Eagles, 10-5, scored four times in the third and single runs in the fifth and sixth innings to finally get the contest tied, 6-6.

McWilliams finished with two hits. Garrett Baker tossed the final 1 2/3 innings to get the victory.

Cedarville bolted to a 3-0 lead in the first inning of game one and still held a 4-3 edge through four innings. Ashland exploded for five runs in the sixth to take over.

Martin had two hits including a double and two RBI's while Summerlin contributed two hits.

Head Coach Mike Manes

Mike Manes (pronounced MAN-us) has been the head baseball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He has guided the Yellow Jackets to the six winningest seasons in school history and five trips to the NCCAA National Tournament.

Manes has won more games than any previous baseball coach that CU has ever had. The Jackets, who are coming off of a 29-19 campaign while winning their third straight NCCAA Midwest Region banner, have enjoyed five consecutive winning seasons - the longest streak in the modern era of Cedarville's 100-plus year baseball history.

CU set the school record for the most victories in a season in 2012 with a 38-13 record. The Yellow Jackets won their third NCCAA Midwest Region banner in the past four years and advanced to the national tournament as the No. 1 seed.

Cedarville was 33-18-2 in 2011 and had a best-ever five NCCAA All-Americans on the roster. The Jackets copped the NCCAA Midwest Region banner for the second time in three years and returned to the NCCAA National Tournament. Manes was named the Region Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 28-27 record in 2010. The Jackets were also the NCCAA Midwest Region runner-up.

Manes was named the 2009 NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year after leading Cedarville to the region title. The Yellow Jackets won over 30 games for the first time in school history with their 32-28 record and split four games at the NCCAA Nationals.

Cedarville was the Midwest Region runner-up in Manes' first season in 2008. The Jackets set a then school record for the most victories in season with 23. They also won eight games in the tough American Midwest Conference which equaled their league win total from the previous three seasons combined.

Manes came to the Yellow Jackets following a four-year stay as head coach at Trinity International University near Chicago. He was able to turn the TIU program around after inheriting a team that won just four games in his first season in 2004 and the school had never qualified for the conference tournament.

Manes then guided the Trojans to 85 victories over the next three seasons by winning 25, 28, and 32 games, respectively, which set school records for the most victories in a season each time. The 2006 squad put together TIU's first-ever winning season and the 2007 team finished 32-22.

In his short tenure, Manes guided the Trojans to their first-ever conference tournament appearance, two NCCAA North Central Region championships, and TIU played in the NCCAA National Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was tabbed the 2005 NCCAA North Central Region Coach of the Year.

The Nebraska native previously founded and coached the Lincoln Crusaders which is an American Legion baseball club. In his 11 years at the helm, the team made nine trips to the state tournament winning one championship and finishing as the runner-up on two other occasions.

Manes is actively involved in baseball administration. He is currently the NCCAA baseball chair as well as the chair of the new Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Manes is a 1989 graduate of Liberty University and he earned a master's degree in 2005 from Alameda University. Mike and his wife, Connie, reside in Springfield and have four married children and seven grandchildren.

Are you prepared for the harvest?

The harvest is abundant,
but the workers are few.

If God has called you to work in the harvest,
He has called you to prepare. There's no better place to prepare than The Southern Baptist
