Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 24, 2016

Another busy week is under our belts. It's crazy how far we've come in this seemingly short few months. Since August we have put in so many hours of practice, travel, and play. This season has had highs and lows as does any season. This season has had wins and losses just as any normal season. But this season will always be unique and special unlike any other team's season. Other teams won't have the conversations we have. They won't have the exact fellowship we have. And they won't have the same inside jokes as this team does.

God has hand-picked this team to be right where we are today. Each member of this team is here for a reason and we are so thankful for each other. The Lord has a plan for this team and we are striving every day to see that plan. We took some time this past Saturday to share what God has been teaching us and the power in that is amazing. We also took time to remember what our main goal is. That is to further God's kingdom through volleyball. We all have that thought in the back of our heads but bringing it up again as we think towards the post season tournament made us redirect our focus on an eternal perspective.

Through a great win (Tiffin on 10/18) and tough loss (Indiana Wesleyan 10/21) we are seeking to see God's hand in all. We also look towards an intense week of competition with confidence in Christ because we know that in the end His will, will be done. In the bitter-sweet last home games of the season, we are dwelling in this truth.

Friends, please be praying that we will glorify the Lord and do His will this week in all that we do. That we keep Him the main focus.

Thanks for being a faithful follower of Cedarville Volleyball. God bless!

In Him, for Him.

Taylor Wilkerson is a sophomore at Cedarville University from Brookfield, Wisconsin and is majoring in early childhood education.

Honorary Assistant Coach

Teresa Clark currently serves as an Associate Professor of Kinesiology at Cedarville University! She also serves as Assistant Chair for the Department of Kinesiology and Allied Health, and she serves as the Faculty Athletic Representative for the Athletic Department in addition to her role as Title IX Coordinator for the university! She was the Head Coach of the volleyball program for 10 seasons. She had a record of 322-130 in that time, and helped guide the team to the 2005 NCCAA National Championship.

Today's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Kentucky Wesleyan College Panthers in Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) action today in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, under the direction of ninth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (193-128), has a 17-7 (4-1) overall record before last night's G-MAC match with visiting Trevecca.

Kentucky Wesleyan was 9-12 (3-4 G-MAC) before last evening's league match at Ohio Valley in Vienna, West Virginia.

The Lady Jacket offensive attack is paced Gabby Olson and Abby Shelton. Olson, a 6-4 junior middle hitter leads with 267 kills and 91 blocks.

Shelton is second on the team with 252 kills and second in digs (233) and service aces (29).

Senior libero Angela Becker leads the back row with 381 digs (4.4/set) and is one of just six Lady Jackets to have over 2,000 career digs (2,070).

Senior setter Kristin Cardwell has recorded 844 assists (9.8/set) and was just 18 assists from reaching 3,000 for her career going into last night's match.

Junior outside hitter Krissy Pratt leads CU with 37 service aces while ranking third with 224 digs.

Senior middle hitter has recorded 179 kills and a second-best 81 blocks to go with 16 service aces.

Kentucky Wesleyan is led by Head Coach Eric Hagan who is in her third year at the helm of the program (34-44)*. Hagan previously served for four years as an assistant at KWC.

Audrey Baysinger, a 5-10 junior outside hitter, leads the Panthers with 156 kills while freshman Sierra Morrow leads KWC with 46 blocks and 25 service aces.

Freshman setter Kylie Foster directs the Kentucky Wesleyan offense and has handed out 467 assists with a third-best 124 digs.

Cedarville leads the all-time series with KWC by an 8-2 margin. The Lady Jackets swept the Panthers last fall - 3-0 in Cedarville (Oct. 2) and 3-2 in Owensboro (10/31).
