Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

September 12, 2011

Hi everyone! Thanks again for following us through this exciting time for the Cedarville Volleyball program! This past week we played five matches and each one had ups and downs despite the final score.

Our first match was against Shawnee State University. Cedarville and Shawnee State have developed a friendly rivalry over the past few years, which makes for a fun environment to play in. We played well in the beginning and won a close first set. The next two sets were not very pretty. We were not communicating and not playing with energy, which led to us losing the second and third sets pretty badly. However, after a little pep talk from teammates and a little yelling from the coaches we pulled our act together and won the fourth set. We were determined going into the fifth set that we would have the victory and thanks to some wicked serves from freshman Maddie Anderson, we gained a 9-1 lead and ended up winning the set. We learned through this match that confidence and energy are key for our team.

After this, we had a good practice on Wednesday and Thursday morning we were back on the bus heading to Huntsville, Alabama - Heather's hometown! That night we were able to have a light practice in Heather's high school gym. It was good to be able to get a little practice in after sitting on the bus for eight hours. The next morning we played our first match against Henderson State University. Unfortunately, we lost in five sets due to our lack of inconsistent play. This was disappointing because we knew that we should have won that match. Our second match on Friday was against Arkansas Tech, a team that was ranked among the top 50 Division II teams last season. We won the first set 25-19 which boosted our confidence but it was not enough to carry us through as we lost the next three sets 25-15, 28-26 and 25-23. We walked away disappointed with Friday's losses but still understanding that we played very good Division II teams and not only were we able to play with them, we should have beat them!

Friday night was a very fun time for the team as we were able to leave the hotel and spend the evening at Heather's house! We enjoyed a yummy home cooked meal and the beautiful Alabama weather. It was a great night of fellowship and laughter...especially after seeing pictures of a few teammates and coach made with "fatbooth"!

After a good night's rest, we woke up very early to head to the gym for our last two matches of the weekend. We started by playing Harding University. We lost that match in three sets despite our excellent play. We played very well together, but came out on the losing side - Harding is one of the top 50 teams in the nation.

In between our last two matches of the weekend, the fire alarm in the building went off. We at first thought that someone had just pulled the fire alarm, but thanks to some burnt popcorn, we got to spend some time in the sun while waiting for the fire department to come check things out. After returning inside and finishing our warm-up, we played our last match against the University of West Georgia. They beat us in four sets. We were down two sets to none, and came back from a ten-point deficit to win the third set. Set four was also very close game, but the set and the match went to West Georgia.

Although the record of the weekend does not look promising, we played well and learned a lot. We also were able to spread the Gospel through this sport. One of the opposing coaches told us that we had class and great integrity, she appreciated the notes we wrote for her girls. One of the girls Kara wrote a note to had just received Christ as her Savior last week so we were able to encourage her! Our ultimate goal of glorifying God and sharing His love was far exceeded this weekend! We look forward to applying the lessons we learned to the rest of our season!

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Central State University Marauders in the Callan Athletic Center tonight in the home opener of the 2011 campaign.

The Lady Jackets are 3-6 on the season including four straight setbacks at the University of Alabama-Huntsville Invitational this past weekend.

Central State, an NCAA II independent, is 0-2 in the early going with losses to Ursuline and Urbana.

The CU attack is paced by freshman Hannah Wagner. The 6-2 outside hitter from Claremont, CA is putting down 2.85 kills per set and leads the squad with a .292 attack percentage.

Hannah Wagner

Sophomore middle hitter Stephanie Rogers, the 2010 AMC Freshman of the Year, is second on the team in kills per set at 2.54 while pacing the front line with 14 solo blocks and 33 block assists.

Fourth-year coach Doug Walters is using a 6-2 offensive system enabling junior Erica Bartholomew and rookie Maddie Anderson to direct the offensive attack. Anderson, a 5-9 setter, leads the squad with 217 assists and 25 service aces. Bartholomew, ranked fifth all-time at CU with 2,391 assists, has dished out 143 (3.67/set) assists in the first nine matches of 2011.

Maddie Anderson

The Lady Jacket defense has three players averaging over two digs per set - juniors Heather Kirkpatrick (2.64) and Kara Yutzky (2.55) with sophomore Lauren Williams adding 2.18 digs per set along with 51 kills on the front line.

Head Coach Trona Logan continues to build the CSU volleyball program with a 2011 roster that includes four rookies and three sophomores. Senior setter and co-captain Riana Curry returns in 2011 to direct the Marauder offense. Classmate and co-captain Tierra Lee, a 5-5 outside hitter, is a threat at the net.

Cedarville holds a 60-11 lead in the all-time series against their Greene Country rival Marauders.
