Loud warm-up music. Coach dancing to that music. Five more matches. Dairy Queen. Bus rides. Hot gym. West Virginia. UNDEFEATED. That's right - nine matches into the season, five of them this past week, and the Lady Jackets are still contenders with the CU mens' soccer team to see who can remain undefeated the longest.

We started off this week with our home opener against Malone University on Tuesday! It is always a good day when we beat Malone - especially on our home court. Last year we beat them at their place, and then they came to ours and beat us. We were not going to let that happen again. We started the first set against them very strong and led 75% of the time, but just couldn't quite finish it. In the second set we flipped the switch and beat them handily. We lost set three, won set four, and were ready to once again play a fifth set. One of our team goals this season is to win every fifth set, and we have definitely been putting that one to the test. We proved ourselves to be the better team and came out with the victory.

Wednesday's practice was rough. We weren't 100% all there as sickness, school, and life seemed to be on most everyone's minds. Not satisfied with that practice we brought our 'A' game on Thursday in preparation for our matches over the weekend. We left on the green dragon monster bus Friday morning for the University of Charleston in West Virginia, where a gym as hot as the Lake of Fire awaited us. There was no need for warm ups - I'm pretty sure it was at least 95 degrees in there.

We played Mars Hill first in what was just a weird set...we came out slow, out of sync, and not in control. We lost that set, then came back to win the next three in what was finally a fourth (not a fifth!) set win. We also beat Chowan later in the day and celebrated with a trip to Applebee's! We ate until our hearts were content, which basically means we ate dinner and followed it up with dessert. Back at the hotel later that night we all hit the books and did homework.

The next day we started by playing Virginia Union. This was a fairly easy game for us, so we just wanted to focus on playing volleyball at a high level. Unfortunately, their setter sprained her ankle on one of the very first plays and was out the rest of the day. We prayed for her both on the sidelines and after the game.

Our second match was going to be the toughest of the weekend and we were all looking forward to it. We played the host, Charleston, and won the first set by playing some very solid volleyball. Unfortunately, we fell apart very early in the second set. Coach called a timeout and gave us a little talking to and we bounced back after that! Even though we ended up narrowly losing that set we had the momentum going into the next one. We ended up winning in four and finished with another very successful weekend. We handed out multiple copies of the New Testament and handwritten notes, and Maddie even got to pray with an opposing player.

As we were leaving for home we passed a Dairy Queen sign and in that moment we all knew what we wanted. We explained to coach in a very civilized manner why we deserved ice cream (more like 13 girls yelling at once ICE CREAM!!!!) and he had the bus pull over and stop. It was the perfect ending to such a great weekend!

We are really looking forward to Tuesday's match at the University of Southern Indiana: it's going to be a tough one and we will really need to play CU volleyball the way we know how.

Thanks again to the fans who sat in the heat this weekend and cheered us on and fed us!

Hope to see you all at our home games this Saturday!!!!

Hannah Wagner is a sophomore undeclared major from Claremont, Calif. She is in her second season with the Lady Jackets as an outside hitter.

Today's Matches

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Kentucky State University Thorobrettes and the West Liberty University Hilltoppers in a tri-match today in the Callan Athletic Center.

The Lady Jackets, under the leadership of fifth-year Head Coach Doug Walters, enter today's action with a 9-1 record and a #1 ranking in this week's National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Division I Poll.

CU had their season-opening nine-match winning streak snapped by the University of Southern Indiana on Tuesday night in Evansville, Indiana by scores of 25-20, 25-10, 22-25, 30-28.

Sophomore outside hitter Hannah Wagner, the reigning G-MAC Player of the Week, leads the offensive attack for Cedarville with 2.83 kills per set.

Junior middle hitter Stephanie Rogers, 2011 NCCAA All-American, is second with 2.47 kills per set while pacing the squad with a .268 attack percentage.

Setters senior Erica Bartholomew and sophomore Maddie Anderson direct CU's offense. Anderson leads the team with 237 assists Bartholomew has handed out 172 assists and ranks fourth all-time at CU with 3,630.

Senior Heather Kirkpatrick tops the defensive stats with 212 digs (5.17/set).

Stephanie Rogers

The Thorobrettes of Kentucky State enter today's tri-match with a 4-6 record in 2012. KSU is an NCAA II member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) and is located in Frankfort, Kentucky. This will be the first-ever meeting on the volleyball court between Cedarville and Kentucky State.

The Hilltoppers of West Liberty University are 4-5 in the early going of the 2012 campaign. West Liberty is an NCAA II member of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) and is located in West Liberty, West Virginia. Cedarville has won both previous volleyball meetings with the Hilltoppers.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 82 victories during Walters' four-year tenure. CU finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA Division II provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Cedarville was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. CU was 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is the Elevation Volleyball Club 17's National Team Coach based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Hamersville, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 10.

The Walters File:

- 2008 NCCAA National Champions
- 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year
- 1 NAIA National Player of the Week

Great Midwest Athletic Conference - Volleyball

www.G-MACsports.com

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), which was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference effective September 1, 2012, will be working through an educational assessment program with the goal of beginning competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference by 2013-14.

The G-MAC features active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC include Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, Urbana University and Ursuline College. The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson-Broadus College, Davis & Elkins College, and Ohio Valley University as active DII members in 2012.

The University of Virginia's College at Wise was approved as a Full Member, while Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012 as well.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 12 championships in 2012-13 as a NCAA Division II member conference.

Volleyball Player of the Week (Sept. 2-8)

Hannah Wagner
Cedarville • Sophomore • Claremont, CA

The Lady Jackets improved to a perfect 9-0 on the season, with five victories this past week. The week began with a five set win over Malone and concluded with four wins at the Charleston Invitational (two wins in four games and two wins in three games).

Hannah Wagner recorded a match-high 18 kills against Malone, 18 kills against Mars Hill, and nine against Virginia Union. In the match against host Charleston, Wagner was second on the team with 13 kills. In the sweep over Chowan, Wagner was part of a balanced attack with six kills.

For the week, Wagner tallied 64 kills to go with 11 total blocks. The 6-2 sophomore posted a .338 attack percentage in the five matches played (64-19-133).7

Yellow Jackets serve to "celebrate" NCAA move

"Celebration through Service!" That's the theme this academic year as the Yellow Jackets recognize perhaps the biggest transition in the history of Cedarville University athletics - the move to NCAA Division II.

The NCAA approved the University for full membership in July and it all became official in September. What a better way to celebrate than through service?

The act of ministering to others is nothing new at Cedarville including athletics. After all, "servant-leadership" remains as one of the six core values of the department's mission.

Athletic Director Dr. Alan Geist emphasized the point while reviewing Faculty/Staff Appreciation Night which included a barbecue prior to the men's home soccer match vs. Indianapolis on Sept. 1.

"There were so many people on campus that played key roles in helping us to accomplish the move to the NCAA. We wanted to say 'thanks' in a tangible way to the faculty and staff during the first weekend that we hosted an athletic event as an official Division II institution.

"It was an opportunity to demonstrate that our mission as a department has not changed with our transition to the NCAA. The feedback we received was that the evening was successful and appreciated."

Yellow Jacket teams are involved in all types of service. Some are public while others are behind the scenes.

The Lady Jacket Soccer Team served water to those who attended the 2012 Cedarville University Involvement Fair.

The Lady Jacket soccer team handed out free bottles of water to those who visited the Involvement Fair on campus on Aug. 24. The event is for students to discover how to connect with the CU campus experience and serve as volunteers in the local community by meeting with representatives from local churches and community service organizations, student organizations, student government, and various campus departments.

The annual popular Fair was again held in the Dixon Ministry Center parking lot. Despite the hot and humid conditions, the members of the women's soccer team were there to assist.

"We have felt such support from Cedarville and so we wanted to show our gratitude, even in a small way such as participating in the Org Fair," stated junior Emily Niedermayer. "About ten girls from the soccer team were able to help out at the fair, and we are thankful for the opportunity to give back to our Cedarville family. The students were excited to see the team involved in other areas of campus life, rather than just on the field."

The men's basketball team will be involved at Perrin Woods Elementary School in Springfield again. They were introduced to the students at a recent kick-off event.

"We've been there a few times before and we plan to be more involved this year," said Head Coach Pat Estep. "Dr. (Scott) Dixon, our team chaplain, is the connection to the school staff. It gives us contact with the kids during their physical education classes and we want the players simply to be a positive influence and example. They also see us in action by coming to see us play."

"Celebration through Service!" For the Yellow Jackets, it's not just fulfilling a point in a list of values, but putting the gospel of Jesus Christ into action.
