Chris Fox's Baseball Blog

March 19, 2014

In my experience there are two types of people in this world: those of us who were spanked as a child and those of you who were not. I'm not here to say one way or another whether you should physically discipline your children, but in my experience it generally has the desired affect; the child stops acting like a brat/punk. As a senior, about to start life on my own, I would like to thank my parents for spanking me as a child because it taught me three things: fear, discipline, and respect.

Sometimes it takes a good whipping to get your head on straight and respect your parents, God, baseball, life, etc. In many ways, baseball is just like life. If you don't have your head on straight or respect the game it will beat you like there is no tomorrow. As Rocky says in the newest movie in the Rocky series (Rocky Balboa), "The world ain't all sunshine and rainbows. It's a very mean and nasty place and I don't care how tough you are it will beat you to your knees and keep you there permanently if you let it." Baseball is the exact same way. If you don't come to play, locked in and ready to hit back, the game will completely and utterly embarrass you. You wanna know how I know this? Because we as a team experienced it first-hand last Friday against Ashland University.

Last Friday, at the friendly confines of Prasco's Legacy Field, the Cedarville Yellow Jacket baseball team was completely and utterly spanked / whipped / embarrassed / (insert whatever word you want....y'all get the gist). It was probably the most embarrassing loss of my baseball career not because of the final score, but because we are not the team that you may have seen out on the field that day. We threw the ball around, hit like absolute garbage, didn't make the routine plays we needed to make, and ultimately we gave up. For those of you who remember the old baseball movie Rookie, Coach Morris asks his team what the numbers on the scoreboard tell his team after an embarrassing loss. And after a joking reply that they tell you how to get a hold of Bo's Tire Barn, the head coach explains, "You quit. You quit out there. You quit on me and, worse, you quit on yourselves."

The problem wasn't that we gave up 22 hits, or that we had almost as many errors as hits. The problem was that we didn't fight back like we always did down in Florida. Later in that same talk with his son, Rocky says, "But it ain't about how hard you hit. It's about how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward. How much you can take and keep moving forward. That's how winning is done!" But like every good butt-whipping you have two choices: pout or learn from it.

Thankfully we took Rocky's advice and came out swinging in game two against Ashland, going up early and controlling the tempo of the game throughout. Unfortunately, one inning got away from us bringing back painful memories from Friday night, ultimately ending in an 8-4 loss. Much more respectable, but certainly not acceptable. In game three we came out guns blazing again with a monster three-run bomb by my man Lenny in the first frame. After squandering an otherwise sizeable lead, we were able to load the bases for the one and only Guckle (Drewbeedoo Johnson) with the game knotted at sixes in the bottom of the final inning. On the very first pitch Gucks smashed a laser to right for the walk-off win against #22 ranked Ashland. After the game, their coach made a comment to Coach Manes about how we just don't quit. Amen my brotha! We do not back down here ever!! (name that movie....*hint* it's a basketball movie).

Thanks for listening to my little rant. I hope you enjoyed the little barrage of movie quotes. I would like to apologize real quick on two fronts. First, the debut of Mamu and Sasquatch's "Boats and Throws" music video will be delayed until further notice due to Sasquatch's engineering course load (and no I'm not Sasquatch). Second, I would like to apologize for the lack of Assassin updates this season. Coordinating blow gun fights with 30 dudes is kinda like herding cats. Which basically means, most of the guys lost their guns somewhere in Florida and we will just have to let Assassin 2014 die gracefully as an epic fail.

I hope you all have a blessed week. Make sure to come out and see our conference opener at home this Friday and Saturday against Salem International. And most importantly, don't forget to #swagout.

Chris Fox is a senior catcher from Lancaster, Ohio. He is in his third season with the Yellow Jackets and is a Dean's List student majoring in mechanical engineering.

Last Time Up

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Clutch hitting by freshman Jaden Cleland helped spark Cedarville to a pair of Great Midwest Athletic Conference wins over visiting Salem International. The Yellow Jackets posted victories of 6-5 and 11-10 on Saturday afternoon.

In the nightcap, the Tigers scored five times in the eighth inning to grab a 10-8 advantage. Cedarville rallied for three runs in the bottom half capped off by Cleland's two-out single to score Dan Larkin with the go ahead run. Larkin had earlier provided an RBI single and then came across with the tying run on Drew Johnson's triple.

Johnson finished 3-for-4 with an RBI and two runs scored. Cleland tallied two hits and two runs batted in while Cam McWilliams had two RBI's and two runs.

Sam Summerlin turned in two hits including a double. Larkin and David Lenhardt each scored twice.

Peter Martin, 2-0, pitched the eighth inning and notched the win. Scott Kneeland worked the ninth to get his first save.

The Yellow Jackets got three runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to claim the seven-inning opener. Cleland hammered a pinch hit two-run double to tie the score and then came across with the eventual winning tally on Nathan Bancroft's single.

Lenhardt had two hits including a double and two stolen bases. Righthander Jordan Adams was credited with the win and Connor Hamilton nailed down the save.

Cedarville is 12-8 overall and 3-1 G-MAC. Salem International falls to 5-17 and 1-3.

Head Coach Mike Manes

Mike Manes (pronounced MAN-us) has been the head baseball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He has guided the Yellow Jackets to the six winningest seasons in school history and five trips to the NCCAA National Tournament.

Manes has won more games than any previous baseball coach that CU has ever had. The Jackets, who are coming off of a 29-19 campaign while winning their third straight NCCAA Midwest Region banner, have enjoyed five consecutive winning seasons - the longest streak in the modern era of Cedarville's 100-plus year baseball history.

Cedarville was 33-18-2 in 2011 and had a best-ever five NCCAA All-Americans on the roster. The Jackets copped the NCCAA Midwest Region banner for the second time in three years and returned to the NCCAA National Tournament. Manes was named the Region Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 28-27 record in 2010. The Jackets were also the NCCAA Midwest Region runner-up. Manes was named the 2009 NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year after leading Cedarville to the region title. The Yellow Jackets won over 30 games for the first time in school history with their 32-28 record and split four games at the NCCAA Nationals.

Cedarville was the Midwest Region runner-up in Manes' first season in 2008. The Jackets set a then school record for the most victories in season with 23. They also won eight games in the tough American Midwest Conference which equaled their league win total from the previous three seasons combined.

Manes came to the Yellow Jackets following a four-year stay as head coach at Trinity International University near Chicago. He was able to turn the TIU program around after inheriting a team that won just four games in his first season in 2004 and the school had never qualified for the conference tournament.

Manes then guided the Trojans to 85 victories over the next three seasons by winning 25, 28, and 32 games, respectively, which set school records for the most victories in a season each time. The 2006 squad put together TIU's first-ever winning season and the 2007 team finished 32-22.

In his short tenure, Manes guided the Trojans to their first-ever conference tournament appearance, two NCCAA North Central Region championships, and TIU played in the NCCAA National Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was tabbed the 2005 NCCAA North Central Region Coach of the Year.

The Nebraska native previously founded and coached the Lincoln Crusaders which is an American Legion baseball club. In his 11 years at the helm, the team made nine trips to the state tournament winning one championship and finishing as the runner-up on two other occasions.

Manes is actively involved in baseball administration. He is currently the NCCAA baseball chair as well as the chair of the new Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Manes is a 1989 graduate of Liberty University and he earned a master's degree in 2005 from Alameda University. Mike and his wife, Connie, reside in Springfield and have four married children and seven grandchildren.
