LADY JACKET SOCCER BLOG

Sept. 15, 2015

Hello everyone! In case you haven't heard, your Lady Jacket soccer team has been traveling this past week. We were on the road from Thursday to Saturday, and these were road trips to remember.

Trip 1 - Ohio Valley: We left for West Virginia on Thursday morning at 7 a.m. We loaded into three separate vehicles and pulled out with a special guest in tow. Dr. Geist, our Cedarville University Athletic Director, was along for the trip. This is a unique circumstance because not many athletic directors take the time to travel with each team during their season. Dr. Geist takes a road trip with each team to spend time getting to know his athletes and their coaches. The last time he traveled with us, we won in the last seconds of double overtime against Findlay. However, we were hopeful for a better win this time. Luckily for him, Dr. Geist took his seat in the party van, in which 10 of our players sang and danced for the entire trip. A party van member told me that it all started with the ceiling being high...there was plenty of room to throw your arms around and dance wildly. We stopped off for our pre-game breakfast at Bob Evan's where Coach Mac ("I don't need powdered sugar on my pancakes, I'm sweet enough already." wink) led the charge and scarfed down three of the biggest pancakes I've ever seen. Our delicious breakfast powered us through our game against Ohio Valley and we came out on top 8-1. Shout out to Steph's parents for being our one and only fans at the game! We love the dedication! After the game Dr. Geist generously took our team to Logan's Roadhouse for what was potentially the best post-game meal in CUWS history. As we got off the bus, everyone was required (by me) to strut down the sidewalk to earn their steak. It looked like an episode of America's Next Top Model, sweat pants edition. Struts were so good we not only earned steak but unlimited rolls, baby back ribs, and any cut of meat desired. We replaced all of the calories we burned (plus about 500 extra) and rode with happy bellies all the way home. On behalf of CUWS, I would like to thank Dr. Geist for supporting us on our road trip, taking the time to get to know us as a team, and lavishly blessing us with a fantastic dinner. For this road trip, you're the real MVP.

Trip 2 - Roberts Wesleyan: After a quick practice and dinner on Friday, we departed for Erie, Pennsylvania around 6:30 p.m. We had a four hour ride ahead of us, and we had plenty of activities to choose from. For the vocally inclined, there was a T Swift sing along/ dance party in the back. For those poor unfortunate souls that had to do homework, there was Wi-Fi to tap into. For the hyper competitive type, there was a euchre tournament. Our trip literally started off with a bang as one disgruntled teammate tried to bludgeon me in the head with my own cell phone after losing a game of euchre (video evidence upon request). Thankfully, I was able to fend off the attack, and Bri and I continued on to win the tournament. Our activities carried us all the way to our destination, and the rain lashed at the windows as we pulled into our lovely hotel and disembarked from the bus. Once inside, we got our room assignments and tucked ourselves in to sleep for the night. On Saturday morning we reloaded onto the bus and left at 7:15 a.m. for the second half of our trip. Once again, we breakfasted at Bob Evans and enjoyed a delectable meal. We arrived at Roberts Wesleyan and stepped out onto the field for what turned out to be my favorite game thus far in my college career. At this point in time, I am speaking to the parents. So far, this season could be likened to a young girl

(maybe your daughter) growing up. I can personally attest to the fact that when a young lady grows, body control can go out the window. What is left is an awkward girl-woman whose athletic ability has yet to grow into its adult stages. Athletically, it's a disaster, and can be hard to watch. Some moments are fantastic, and sometimes she trips herself running down the field. Then, one day, everything clicks. This gangly girl that would trip over the ball now looks like a gazelle out on the field. She is an athlete, and she is fast and strong. In this season so far, we have had our moments of beautiful soccer coupled with moments of...not so beautiful soccer. Then, on Saturday, everything clicked. We possessed the ball, we finished shots, we defended collectively, and we won as a team. It was an incredible game to be a part of, and we came out on top 4-1 against a fantastic opponent. Looking back after the game, it is so easy to see how God's hand orchestrated the whole thing. After about 24 solid hours of rain, we had warm up and the entire game rain free which allowed two of our defenders to be able to play. Praise Jesus! The field condition was also fantastic for having been rained on for so long, and it didn't hinder our ability to play. Praise Jesus! We truly celebrated with each other when we succeeded and attitudes were joyful. Praise Jesus! Our excitement and energy levels were through the roof, which isn't easy after a long bus trip. Praise Jesus! We were able to play a non-conference team and share our faith. Praise Jesus! These are just a few examples of how much God worked through this weekend trip on our team, and we are excited to give all the glory to Him. He provided and He deserves all of the praise!

Now people, I realize that I devote about 79% of each blog to writing about the food we consume. You may now have the idea that we don't even play soccer, but we are actually a traveling group of competitive eaters. Freshmen parents might even be scheduling appointments with dietitians for their daughters over Christmas break. Rest assured, we do play soccer, and we do run enough to burn off those delicious calories. Please bear with me as I attempt to convey our after-game smorgasbord. After a smashing victory, it seems that it can't really get any better. Let me tell you folks, it can. It started with the announcement that we were no longer going to Subway for post-game meal...we were now going to Panera. It continued as we showered and boarded the bus to find the mother lode of sweets. I am not exaggerating when I say that we probably consumed around 400 calories each before we even entered the Panera parking lot. We had so much food we didn't even have room to sit! There was concern for the entirety of our team developing diabetes on the eight-hour ride home. It is a miracle that our pancreases didn't shut down and fall out after the copious amounts of insulin secreted. Your daughter may even have false teeth the next time you see her due to the 32 cavities that dissolved her teeth down to the roots. Red velvet whoopee pies, chocolate chip cookie dough brownies, s'more bites, apple cider donuts, cheesecake filled cupcakes, apples (from the big apple), Hershey's candy bars, Oreos, Nutter Butters, Take 5's, Scooby Snacks, granola bars, I COULD GO ON. As if the snacks weren't enough, we spent the bus ride watching the Princess Diaries 1 and 2, and wrapped the trip up with Ever After. We arrived back at Cedarville, praised God for his abundant provision, and departed for bed. It was truly a road trip for the CUWS history books.

We continue our season this week at home with G-MAC action against Alderson Broaddus and Davis & Elkins on Thursday and Saturday respectively. We greatly appreciate all of the support, snacks, and love you have shown us this past week, and we hope to see you all at our games! If you can't make it, check out the live feed and live stats provided by our SID department.

Until next time.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Alderson Broaddus University Battlers in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference encounter tonight at Yellow Jacket Field. Cedarville was picked to finish third and AB was the fifth-place choice in the G-MAC Coaches Preseason Poll.

The Lady Jackets are 3-1 (1-0 G-MAC) on the year after a 4-1 non-league win last Saturday at Roberts Wesleyan in Rochester, New York.

The Battlers enter tonight's contest with a 1-3 mark including a 1-1 record in the G-MAC. AB dropped a 3-2 league decision to visiting Kentucky Wesleyan last Saturday.

LAST TIME ON THE PITCH - 9/12/15

ROCHESTER, N.Y. - Kaitlyn Stiles scored three goals as Cedarville pulled away to surprise previously unbeaten Roberts Wesleyan, 4-1, in a non-conference contest.

The Lady Jackets wasted little time getting on the board. In the 4th minute, Stiles gathered in a long pass from Kaleigh Rowlands at the six-yard box and tapped it by the keeper for her second goal of the season.

Olivia Moore headed home a corner kick by Grace Miorelli in the 18th minute and it stayed 2-0 by halftime.

After the Raiders netted their tally in the 48th, Stiles iced the result with two quick strikes late in the contest.

The senior one-timed a restart from Miorelli in the 83rd minute. Just 82 seconds later, she looped a long left-footed strike just outside the box to complete the scoring.

Hanna Harris was credited with four saves in goal

Numbers Game:

- Cedarville holds a 5-3-1 lead in the season series that dates back to 2000.
- RWC outshot the visitors 13-9 overall, but both sides placed five shots on goal.
- Stiles has 12 goals for her career. She is the 14th player in school history to score at least three goals in a game.
- Miorelli moved into a tie for fourth place all-time in assists at CU (19).

HEAD COACH JOHN MCGILLIVRAY

John McGillivray is one of the most well-respected soccer coaches in the state of Ohio and has been coaching soccer at Cedarville University since 1974.

McGillivray has been the head coach of the Lady Jackets since 1998. He served as the Cedarville men's head coach from 1974 through 1997.

Coupled with the 147 wins with the women, McGillivray has 362 total soccer victories at CU. His 300th overall win came in a 5-0 decision over Grace on Aug. 28, 2008. He picked up his 100th victory with the Lady Jackets in a 2-1 result at Point Park on Oct. 17, 2009.

McGillivray has enjoyed eight winning seasons with the Lady Jackets including a best-ever 15-7 mark in 2013. CU led the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with a 9-1 regular season mark and McGillivray was voted G-MAC Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished 13-8-2 in 2004, won NCCAA Midwest Region championship, and secured an automatic berth in the NCCAA National Tournament. The 2000 club had a 12-7-2 record and made the school's first-ever NCCAA championship appearance in women's soccer.

McGillivray and his teams have long been recognized for their sportsmanlike behavior. His Lady Jackets twice received the Fair Play Team Award from the American Midwest Conference for their exemplary conduct on the field.

He was presented the first-ever Distinguished Merit Award in 1990 by the Ohio Collegiate Soccer Officials Association. The National Intercollegiate Soccer Officials Association honored him in 1992 with their National Merit Award.

The Springfield, Ohio native led his men's teams to eight Mid-Ohio Conference titles, five NCCAA District III banners, three NAIA District 22 championships, and one NAIA Area IV crown which carried with it a trip to the NAIA Nationals in 1974. He guided his squad to five NCCAA National Tournament appearances, a pair of NCCAA National Runner-Up finishes and he was chosen NCCAA National Coach of the Year in 1981.

McGillivray served at all levels of NAIA soccer including president of the NAIA Soccer Coaches Association from 1983 through 1985. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991 and the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1993.

McGillivray, who is an associate professor in the Department of Kinesiology and Allied Health, is a 1970 graduate of Cedarville College, and he earned his master's degree in 1976 from the University of Dayton. John and his wife, Bonnie, reside in Cedarville and have five children and 16 grandchildren.

Women's Soccer Athlete of the Week

(Sept. 6-12, 2015)

Katrina Giantsopoulos • Davis & Elkins Freshman • Markham, Ontario

Davis & Elkins freshman forward Katrina Giantsopoulos was named the second Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the fall on Monday.

Giantsopoulos keyed back-to-back conference wins for Davis & Elkins, which is currently tied with reigning G-MAC champion Ursuline at the top of the league standings at 2-0-0.

The Senators outscored Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca Nazarene by a combined 8-2 score on the pitch as the Canadian rookie blasted three total goals.

Giantsopoulos broke open a scoreless contest against KWC in the 19th minute. Although it would turn out to be the only goal in the opening period, the D&E offense erupted for four scores in the second half.

Her second goal of the game came in the 68th minute to give the Senators a 4-0 cushion at the time.

The native from Markham, Ontario, put Davis & Elkins ahead of Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday with her fourth goal of the year in the 39th minute. It turned out to be the game winner as TNU's attempted rally included a goal in the second half.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Recently, Malone University has announced it will be joining the G-MAC in 2016-17 as a full member, and then the University of Findlay, Hillsdale College, Lake Erie College, Ohio Dominican University, and Walsh University will join in 2017-18.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 18 championships in 2015-16 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
