Chronicles from the Cage: "Success"

A blink of an eye, and just like that we are halfway done with our season. The main lesson I have been learning throughout this entire year, not just in softball, is that outcomes do not define success. Success when defined by the outcomes is like the green blinking light across the water that is forever eluded at the end of The Great Gatsby. This concept is true in the faith as well. If our faith were defined by our success and how many times we conquered sin or resisted temptation, then our focus would be on our abilities instead of on grace and on what Christ has done for us.

As time continues to fly by, it is important to realize what defines a successful season. In the end, it is not the wins (and I'm not just saying that because of our record). People will not remember our record five years from now. They won't even know who was on the team. People will remember the impact you had on them and what kind of person you were. They will remember your character above all.

Even though we went 1-3 against Kentucky Wesleyan this past weekend and were momentarily stranded when our bus broke down, this weekend was a successful weekend. We celebrated Good Friday with KWC in a special service with their team and shared a meal together. We had the opportunity to talk to and fellowship with their team, of whom not all are Christians. This is just one of the many ways our team has been successful.

This week I would like to ask a favor of you all! Keep Logan in your prayers as she recovers from her surgery on her finger. Also, keep us in your prayers as we go straight into a marathon of 10 games this week. Thank you for all of your support and love through this season!

Until Next Time,

STING IT!
