YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 15, 2015

The Blog, "A tradition unlike any other."

Where to Begin.

We started this week off at Malone (most of us missing the second day of Tuesday/Thursday classes in a row). We came off to another less-than-perfect start in this game, but dominated the game with the clear majority of scoring chances and possession. Chance after chance either missed the frame or was saved by Malone's keeper, who turned aside quite a few very good chances including one from Paul "Marshmallow" Messerly from the top of the six-yard box. Granted, Paul's shot had all the venom and power of a shot coming from the foot of one of the 3-5 year old "little dribblers" that we coach, but from that proximity any save is a good one. We played the first 90 minutes out to a 0-0 score so it went to Golden Goal overtime. We ended up scoring in a spectacular fashion as Connor "Did You Lock My Fridge?" Gilmour nodded home yet another goal with less than five seconds remaining on the clock. It was a frustrating game to be sure, but we got our result and improved our record to 2-1.

The following day we spent recuperating from our efforts at Malone and preparing to head to Vienna, West Virginia to play Ohio Valley (where we missed our third consecutive day of Tuesday/Thursday classes). The Ohio Valley game was an eventful one, to say the least. Their program has been entirely overhauled since last year so we weren't sure what to expect. I think the best word to describe their team is "scrappy." They put up a stiff fight, but with a disciplined defensive effort and goals from Zachary "I Do Homework" Harris and Connor "I Don't Trust You" Gilmour, we were able to pull out a W as the Fighting Scots added quite a few yellow cards to their already impressive tally of warnings on the season.

After Ohio Valley we had one day back in the 'Ville to rest and get ready for our third game of the week against Salem International and our second trip to West Virginia in three days. What a day this was. I could write a book about this trip alone, but I'll try to do it justice in these short lines.

It was a day to remember before we even kicked a ball as Paulo "I Love Bourne and Beaches" Pinto experienced the cinematic beauty of the Bourne Identity for the first time and loved every minute of it. Next, and still before we had even arrived at our locker room, we were greeted by a photo from our game against Ohio Valley in 2013 that featured none other than the late, great, legendary Spencer "The General" Petersheim. Then, in an effort to preserve the rather muddy surface of the game field for the game itself, we warmed up behind one of the goals in an area that could be charitably called "rough terrain." Somehow our ankles made it out of there safely though and we came off to a strong start, putting away two unanswered goals before Salem, thanks to a tremendous individual effort, snatched one before halftime. We went into half up 2-1, but there was still a lot of room for improvement so we came out after halftime guns blazing. We ended up coming away with a dominant 5-1 victory and reasonably few bumps and bruises. We learned from this game that, as conference championship favorites, we will get every team's best effort...

But wait. There's more.

One of our five goals was scored by Joe "Drop the Gloves" Davison, who netted his first goal for the Jackets by the very tip of his flaming red locks off a beautiful service from Jon Schwien. This was a big deal folks. The last notable moment of the game came, of course, from the one and only Derek

"Wrong Book" Braak. From the vantage point of the sideline, it seemed that while he was dribbling the ball, he suddenly forgot how to run so he chased after it on hands and knees for a good five yards only to be beaten to it by a Salem player that still knew how to use his legs. He claims that there was a shove and a pothole involved in the incident, which, given the nature of the venue and the opponent would make a certain degree of sense, but we all know the truth.

And that was all just the start of the day for us. On the way home we ended up getting our charter bus into a corner of a town that wasn't made for charter buses so our poor bus driver tried to find somewhere to turn around. An innocent enough beginning, I grant you. However, our attempt to find a spot to turn around somehow took us down a road that was just barely as wide as the bus itself (we still don't know why he thought this was our best option). So naturally, rather than putting the bus in reverse, we proceeded about three miles down this road in hopes of finding a place that suited our needs. We didn't find one. We got stuck. For a while. Our bus driver, while valiantly, if misguidedly, attempting to take a pretty tight turn in our charter bus was forced to cut over the edge of a local's rather hilly lawn and the undercarriage of the bus ended up resting on the ground as our back wheels spun themselves about 1/3 of their own height into the mud. As if it weren't enough that we were stuck in the mud in West Virginia at 8:30 p.m. on a Saturday, the front of the bus was about 20 yards away from a sign that read "Private property. Dead End."

Like any group of young men would, we tried pushing it out, but we all knew we never really stood a chance. So we called a tow truck service. The first one basically said "There's just no way. Good luck." Totally understandable, in my opinion. The next guys we called were a little more helpful. When we called them at some time around 9 p.m., they said they could be there in an hour with something that had enough horse power to move our grounded vessel. As it turned out, an hour was an optimistic estimate of the time it would take them to arrive so we spent the next 90 minutes or more shaking our heads in disbelief at our own predicament, laughing with a combination of apathy, amusement, and helplessness, and doing our very best to explain to the locals how we got there without sounding too ignorant. When the truck arrived, they got us out of there in a relatively short amount of time and we were back on the road at some time around midnight with a four-hour drive ahead of us. It has to be said that our lovely bus driver, Lori, was so gracious as to stop at the first convenience store to be found and foot the bill for our entire team, which is no small thing.

In the end, we made it back in one piece and with the entire original Bourne Trilogy under our belts, but none of us were particularly sad to kiss West Virginia goodbye for the time being.

"We Back the Jackets!"

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Tiffin University Dragons in the 2015 season opener tonight.

The Jackets are currently 4-1 overall (2-0 G-MAC) and are picked to three-peat as champions of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

The Dragons, NCAA II members of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC), are 3-0-1 in the early going having allowed just one goal in the four contests.

The Yellow Jackets, under the direction of third-year Head Coach Brett Faro, return a solid nucleus from last year's G-MAC championship squad. Three of the team's top four scorers return led by G-MAC Offensive Player of the Year Connor Gilmour who finished with 14 goals and 4 assists for 32 points.

Connor Gilmour

Also back are Christian Alexander (10-6-26) and Joel Twinem (5-2-12). Paulo Pinto returns between the pipes where he set a school record last fall with a 0.51 goals against average.

Gilmour, the current G-MAC Player of the Week (Sept. 6-12), has totaled six goals and an assist for 13 points to lead the offense in 2015. Others to find the net are Zachary Harris, Michael Auld, Paul Messerly, Aaron Plummer and Joe Davison. John Schwien and Jon Brown have been credited with two assists each to pace the squad.

Tiffin is led by Head Coach Rudy Brownell who is in his 9th year with the Dragons men's program (90-44-15). He has led Tiffin to two consecutive NCAA regional appearances.

Junior midfielder Andre Carvalho-Landell has a pair of goals and an assist to top the Dragon scoring list after four games. He was the 2014 GLIAC Offensive Player of the Year, an All-GLIAC First Teamer and an NSCAA All-America Third Team honoree.

Andre Carvalho-Landell

Kyle Karagitz, a junior keeper, has three shutouts in the first four games of 2015.

Tiffin leads the all-time series with the Yellow Jackets by a 19-9-1 margin including 80-39 in goals scored. The teams last met on October 12, 2012 - a 1-0 Cedarville victory at Yellow Jacket Field as Daniel Rigby scored the game-winner in the 65th minute.

HEAD COACH BRETT FARO

Brett Faro has been the head men's soccer coach at Cedarville University since the 2013 season after serving as the program's top assistant for two years. He's guided the Yellow Jackets to back-to-back Great Midwest Athletic Conference championships.

CU finished 14-4-2 overall and 7-0-1 during the 2014 campaign. The Jackets hosted the G-MAC Tournament and defeated Davis & Elkins, 1-0, in the title match.

Faro was named the program's interim head coach in July, 2013 and later had the interim tag removed in November just before the G-MAC Tournament. Cedarville played host and #1 seed D&E to a 0-0 draw in the final and then claimed the trophy on penalty kicks. The Jackets ended up 13-3-4 overall and 6-1-1 G-MAC.

CU has gone 58-17-10 since Faro's arrival including a school-record 17 victories in 2012. The Jackets won the 2011 NCCAA Midwest Region banner and placed third at the national tournament.

Faro came to Cedarville after serving as an assistant coach at the United States Naval Academy during the 2010 campaign. He helped guide the Midshipmen to a 7-5-4 record.

Faro has been involved in multiple levels of soccer in coaching and administration. He coached the U17 Maryland Nike Rush '93 in 2010-11 and helped lead the NCSL Division I squad to three tournament championships.

Faro was team manager of Sky Blue FC of Women's Professional Soccer in 2010. He also coached and trained players in the Hershey Youth Soccer Club in 2007 and 2008.

Faro was a four-year standout during his playing career at perennial NCAA Division III powerhouse Messiah College from 2005-09. He was a member of four national championship teams, was a two-time team captain, and tied the school record for the most games played in a career with 99.

Faro is a 2009 graduate of Messiah with a degree in sports management. He was a Dean's List student at the school and was recognized as an NSCAA Academic All-Region Scholar-Athlete.

Faro earned a master's degree in coaching and athletic administration from Concordia University Irvine (Calif.) in 2014. He also possesses an NSCAA national diploma.

Brett and his wife, Shelley, were married on May 31, 2014. They reside in Xenia.

Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week

(Sept. 6-12, 2015)

Connor Gilmour • Cedarville
Senior • Warren, OH

Cedarville senior forward Connor Gilmour was named the second Great Midwest Athletic Conference Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the fall on Monday.

Gilmour is off to the races while leading the G-MAC in a handful of offensive categories this fall, including goals (6), points (13) and game-winning goals (2). He was the 2014 G-MAC Offensive Player of the Year.

The Yellow Jackets enjoyed an unblemished week by reeling off three consecutive road wins, including one against future 2016 G-MAC member Malone in Canton.

Cedarville (4-1-0, 2-0-0 G-MAC) also bested a previously unbeaten Ohio Valley squad and a then-2-1 Salem International program away from home to begin the conference schedule.

Gilmour provided a dramatic finish with the game's only goal against Malone deep into the first overtime session. He broke open a scoreless contest against the Pioneers in the 99th minute and change.

Gilmour factored into both Cedarville scores against Ohio Valley, assisting the game-opening tally by Zachary Harris before booting home his fourth goal of the year early in the second half.

His scoring barrage continued against Salem International on Saturday with a pair of goals on an early header and a scoring boot midway through the second half.

The Warren, Ohio, native is currently averaging 2.60 points per game. He has scored at least one point in four of Cedarville's five games.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Recently, Malone University has announced it will be joining the G-MAC in 2016-17 as a full member, and then the University of Findlay, Hillsdale College, Lake Erie College, Ohio Dominican University, and Walsh University will join in 2017-18.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 18 championships in 2015-16 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
