Sean Blackburn's Weekly Blog

January 26, 2016

This past week for the Yellow Jacket basketball team was almost comparative to a parent watching their child grow up a little bit. When you are a parent, or even just a guardian of a child you realize every little thing that starts to happen to them as they get older. This can be anything from how they walk to the way they talk, but you enjoy every moment of it because you can appreciate the growth that is taking place right in front of your eyes. I'm obviously not trying to compare a child growing up to our basketball team, but the growth we witnessed at Central State is comparative to the growth of a child. We played at Central State which is a very tough place to play at, it is a rivalry game, and we faced adversity throughout the whole game. It was fun to watch us play and play to our strengths as a team. There's no way earlier in the year we would have won that game, so that's why this game was so exciting.

We definitely validated our defensive identity in the game, and had some key defensive performances from Robert Okoro and Justice Montgomery (AKA Iceeeee). Robert played great in the post and was a monster on the offensive boards. Justice played great individual defense on Central State's best player, and honestly just put on a clinic on how to play man to man defense. We also played great team defense; everybody was moving as one unit, and we got key stops when we needed them. Our offense wasn't exactly poetry in motion, but when we needed a bucket somebody stepped up. The game came down to the final minute, and two key plays were made by two of our leaders. The game was close and J.C. Faubion (AKA my Wolody AKA Ice man) hit a clutch pull up jumper to put us ahead. After that happened we had to get one final stop, and Easton Bazzoli made one of the biggest defensive plays of the year. He tipped the inbounds pass, and didn't even let Central State run the play they drew up. In other words - as we say he "x'ed" them out, and just locked them up.

We definitely took some big steps forward as a team. Thinking back to the beginning of the year to where we are now it's almost funny how far we have come as a team. As long as we keep improving we will be a scary team to play in February, and when the G-MAC Tournament rolls around. Also, with the way things are setting up we are going to get hot right at conference tournament, and we know if we win conference tournament we are going dancing.

This week is another big week with two home games. We play Thursday against Davis & Elkins (start time 7:45 pm) and we play Alderson Broaddus Saturday (start time 4:15pm). We would greatly appreciate if you could come and support.

Until next week,

SeanB

Last Time Out • 1/21/16

WILBERFORCE, Ohio - Cedarville rallied in the final minutes at Central State to pull out a 68-65 non-conference victory before 1,318 Greene County Appreciation Night fans.

The Yellow Jackets won their third straight game to improve to 8-9. They've also won the last five contests played between the two schools on the Marauders' home court.

CSU led from the opening tip until the waning moments. It was a 59-52 difference with 6:10 remaining when Cedarville made its move.

Patrick Bain's three-pointer at the 4:50 mark created the game's first tie, 59-59. After the Marauders answered with a three-point play, the visitors scored the next seven points to take the lead for good.

With the Jackets leading 67-65, Central State called timeout in the forecourt with five seconds left. Easton Bazzoli stole the inbounds pass, was fouled, and hit one-of-two free throws with three seconds to go. CSU's desperation shot at the buzzer was wide.

Bain and J.C. Faubion scored 17 points apiece. Bazzoli finished with 12 points, Robert Okoro grabbed a career-high 12 rebounds for the second straight game, and Justice Montgomery dished out five assists.

Robert Okoro

Numbers Game:

- Okoro has 35 rebounds in his last three games.
- Faubion scored in double figures for the 9th time in the last 10 contests.
- The Yellow Jackets had the rebounding edge, 40-25, which included 16 offensive boards.
- Cedarville's five-game winning streak at CSU has been by an average winning margin of 5.4 points.
- Central State leads the all-time series, 30-16, which began during the 1960-61 season.

Looking Ahead

The Yellow Jackets close out the month of January with a Great Midwest Athletic Conference home game versus Alderson Broaddus this Saturday, Jan. 30 at 4:15 p.m.

CU heads out on a G-MAC road trip with games on Thursday, Feb. 4 at Kentucky Wesleyan (8:30 p.m.) and at Trevecca on Saturday, Feb. 6 (4 p.m.). The Cedarville-Trevecca game will be broadcast live as part of the American Sports Network NCAA II Game of the Week. See page 14 for more info.

G-MAC Men's Basketball

Player of the Week

(January 18-24, 2016)

Richard Lemon

Alderson Broaddus • Sr • Philadelphia, PA

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Alderson Broaddus senior forward Richard Lemon was named the 10th Great Midwest Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

The Battlers came out of a weather-ravaged week with a record of 2-0 in the conference schedule with wins against Ohio Valley and Salem International.

Lemon averaged a double-double with 16 points and 10.5 rebounds per game. He also shot nearly 53 percent from the field on 17 shot attempts.

Alderson Broaddus defeated Ohio Valley by a 27-point margin last week as Lemon collected 12 rebounds (five offensive) and scored 17 points, resulting in his fifth double-double of the season.

Lemon also made a floating jumper to score the 1,000th point of his career at AB. He was 6-11 from the field and made a three-point basket.

Lemon ranks sixth all-time in G-MAC career scoring with 869 points, just 30 behind current teammate Thylas Perkins (899) to rank in the top five.

Once again, Lemon was a double-double threat for the Battlers vs. Salem International. He was one rebound away from a double-double with 15 points and nine boards against the Tigers.

He went 9-of-12 from the free-throw line and shot 50 percent from the field. He also dished out three assists.

Lemon currently ranks third in the conference in rebounding (133). He is additionally seventh in field-goal percentage (48.4) and is tied for second in assists (4.1). He is averaging 13.1 points per game.

Head Coach Pat Estep

Pat Estep has been the head men's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2008-09 campaign. He has guided his alma mater to an average of 20 victories per season and five national tournament appearances.

The Yellow Jackets' first active season in NCAA Division II resulted in a 22-9 mark in 2012-13. Estep was voted the Great Midwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year as his team claimed the G-MAC regular season title, the G-MAC Tournament trophy, and placed third in the NCCAA Championship.

Cedarville was 23-9 during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. They won the school's first NCCAA Championship banner in convincing fashion after entering the 2012 tournament as the No. 1 seed and winning their three games by an average of 18 points. Estep was tabbed NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished strong again in 2010-11 by winning eight of their last nine regular season games including the last five in a row. The Jackets were ranked as high as 14th in the NAIA Division II poll and finished at 20-13.

Cedarville won 16 of its last 18 games in 2009-10 to finish 26-9 and 14-2 in the American Midwest Conference as the league runner-up. The Yellow Jackets, who were rated as high as 8th in the national poll, later won the AMC Tournament and advanced to the second round of the national tournament.

Estep's inaugural campaign at the helm was full of memorable accomplishments. He guided the Yellow Jackets to a 27-4 overall record and a share of the AMC title with a 12-1 league mark. Cedarville was ranked as high as No. 1 in the country, finished in a tie for the No. 2 spot in the final poll, and advanced to the national tournament.

The Jackets assembled a number of school records which included a 14-game winning streak. They also wiped out all of the previous marks for defense.

Cedarville led the country in field goal percentage defense with opponents shooting just 37.9 percent. They also ranked second nationally by allowing a stingy 60 points per contest which was 10 points per game lower than the old school record.

Estep's leadership did not go unnoticed. He was voted the AMC Coach of the Year as well as the NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year.

Estep took on his current position after serving as an assistant coach for eight years under former head coach Ray Slagle. He played a key role during Slagle's successful tenure with the Yellow Jackets from 2000 to 2008.

Cedarville won 177 games during that time span, averaged 24.1 wins over the last seven seasons, won three American Midwest Conference titles, and two AMC Tournament championships.

The Yellow Jackets made five trips to the NAIA Division II National Tournament where they never lost in the first round. They advanced to the semifinals once, the quarterfinals twice, and to the second round twice.

This is the first head coaching position for Estep. A 1997 graduate of Cedarville College with a degree in physical education, he was a student assistant at the school during his senior year and went on to acquire coaching experience at all levels of basketball.

Estep was the 8th grade coach at Cedarville Junior High School in 1996-97. He spent the next year at Clark County Christian High School in Kentucky where he was the varsity assistant boys basketball coach and the head coach in golf and tennis.

Estep spent the 1998-99 season as the junior varsity coach at Oak Hill (Ohio) High School. He held the same position in 1999-2000 at South Webster (Ohio) High School which is where he graduated from in 1993.

Estep comes from a rich basketball coaching heritage. His father, Dale, spent 27 years in the profession at Fairfield Union and South Webster high schools.

Estep also has a master's degree in education from Cedarville University that he earned in 2008. Pat and his wife, Melanie, reside in Cedarville with their three children: sons Isaiah, 14, and Grant, 11, as well as daughter, Merynn, 5.

CU/TNU to air on ASN

GREENWOOD, Ind. – The Great Midwest Athletic Conference announces that the basketball games between Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, will air on the American Sports Network as part of the NCAA Division II Game of the Week package.

The men's and women's games between the Yellow Jackets and Trojans in Nashville will represent the G-MAC's first American Sports Network broadcast in any sport.

"The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is thankful that two member institutions will be highlighted this season in the American Sports Network's Division II Basketball Showcase," said G-MAC Commissioner Tom Daeger.

"This contest will provide great attention to the talents of our student-athletes and offer exposure for conference rivals Trevecca Nazarene and Cedarville. It will be a great day of basketball in Nashville when these four teams square off on February 6."

The women's game is set for 2:00 p.m. EST and the men's game will start after around 4:15 p.m. EST inside the Trojan Fieldhouse. Nashville is located in the Central Time Zone.

This will be Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene's second meeting of the regular season. Both teams are also scheduled to play each other on Saturday, Jan. 2, in Cedarville.

"First, we are honored to be the first G-MAC institution selected to host a Division II National Showcase broadcast," said Trevecca Nazarene Director of Athletics Mark Elliott. "It is an opportunity to represent our community, Trevecca and Nashville, but we realize along with that comes responsibility.

"Similar to when we made the move to NCAA Division II, we will lean on support from the greater Trevecca and Nashville community," Elliott added. "We'll look to our administration, marketing, faculty, Moore Maniacs, alums along with our great friends who are connected to Trevecca. To make this a great showcase, it will take the full support of the Trevecca and Nashville community. We are looking forward to the challenge."

The Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene women's programs have battled it out and finished first and second in the G-MAC standings, respectively, in each of the past two years.

TNU has assembled back-to-back 14-2 league records in 2013-14 and 2014-15 while the Yellow Jackets marched to the conference's first NCAA Championship Midwest Regional at-large selection in 2014-15 with a 27-4 overall record.

After beating then-No. 19 Alabama-Huntsville, the Trojans' men made a name for themselves on a national level early this year. Cedarville's men have won three straight at the time of release and are quickly developing rising young talent.

Additional information will be made available at a later time about which markets will carry the games. For those outside the regional market, both games will also be streamed live on NCAA.com.

The American Sports Network has reached agreements to distribute its broadcasts to regional cable networks that will make it available in 94 million of the nation's 113 million TV homes.

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
