DR. JOHN W. REED

DEDICATION

Major, Chaplain, Doctor, Professor . . .
A title means so little;
A character and a soul submerged
Mean so much.
While recognizing his outstanding
Degrees of intellectual achievement,
Students respect him more
For his degrees of understanding and concern.
As head of the Speech Department
He communicates very effectively,
But not with words alone,
For his characteristic
Smile, enthusiasm, and warmth
Enable him to express himself
In a way no speech text
Ever comprehended or delineated.
He has been often heard to exclaim,
"It's a great way to live!"
We would affirm.
Having him on our campus,
Having him play
Such a vital part in our lives
Is a great way to live.
Through his energy, help, and interest
He has won the hearts of the student body.
It is with great pride
That we dedicate
The Miracle, 1967-68
To Doctor John W. Reed.

Faculty and Staff

Cultivate the intellect, and you shall have a mind that produces beautiful thoughts, worthy images, helpful ideas; that will serve as a solace in times of stress, and be to you a refuge 'gainst all the storms that blow. The cultured mind, as compared with the uncultured, is the difference between a beautiful garden which produces vegetables, fruits or flowers, and a tract of land that is overgrown with weeds and brambles.

To be a person of culture is to be at home under all conditions. Your mind is stored with mental images, and memory comes to keep you company, and guide you from nostalgia and the sense of separateness to universality or oneness with the Divine. The country will be beautiful to you in any season, and society and solitude each will be welcomed by you in turn. You are to reject nothing, despise nothing, knowing that everything belongs somewhere, and that it is needed to make up the great mosaic of life.

Elbert Hubbard

PRESIDENT JAMES T. JEREMIAH

Fifteen years have passed since we became a part of the Cedarville College family. This time has gone by in an unbelievably swift manner. There have been disappointments, but they have vanished from our memory as we have been surrounded with the abundant blessings of our most-gracious God. What a difference there is now as we consider a number of contrasts.

The faculty has grown from eight to fifty; our campus has increased from nineteen to over one hundred acres. In 1953 there were nine buildings on the campus. Since then most of these buildings have undergone some remodeling. Now there are seven additional buildings available for the use of our college family. Then less than one hundred young people made up our student body. Now it numbers more than eight hundred.

Only an all-wise God Who keeps the record knows what the spiritual results of this educational ministry has been through the years which have passed and will become in the future. As we began this experience with the Lord on Cedarville College campus, it was with the assurance that "God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound unto every good work" (II Cor. 9:8). With this same promise we face the future with the confidence that what God has done in the past we can expect Him to do in the years ahead.

Presidential ten-year service awards.

President's Dinner.

Graduation of Dr. Ager.

Moving into new library.

TRUSTEES

Trustee . . .

The very name implies a trust,
A grave responsibility,
A holy calling.

Confronted with questions of all natures,
Technical, ethical, and moral,
And with problems of policy and polity
In school administration,
The trustees must be a sharp unit,
Sharp of intellect

And sharp of spiritual stature.

Their direction in the past

Has helped Cedarville emerge and grow.

With the best interests of the institution

At heart,

They govern with discretion and wisdom

And greatly facilitate

The smooth operation

Of Cedarville College.

Dr. George S. Milner, Chairman

James T. Jeremiah, President

Mr. J. Dale Murphy, Chairman

Rev. W. Thomas Younger, Vice-Chairman

Mr. George Boyd, Treasurer

Mr. George Engelmann, Secretary

Rev. William Brock, Rev. Glenn Davis, Mr. John Draxler, Mr. James Richardson, Rev. Wilbur C. Rooke, Rev. Robert Sumner, Rev. Earl Umbaugh, Mr. Rudy Bedford, Dr. Jack Cline, Mr. George O'Bryon, Dr. Paul Tassell, Mr. William Patterson, Mr. Arthur W. Dyke, Rev. Donald Sewell, Rev. Earl Willetts, Mr. Charles Barth, Mr. Vincent Gregg, Mr. Roy Guenin, Rev. Irwin Olson, Rev. Gerald V. Smelser, Rev. Donald Tyler.

MR. KENNETH H. ST. CLAIR

BUSINESS MANAGER

Providing for the future

And the past financially,

The Business Manager

Must utilize discretion and precision

In the performance of his task.

Preparation of the school budget,

Administration of student loan funds,

And supervision of business and maintenance activities

Fall into his capable hands.

While collecting and paying the bills

This essential administrator

Provides for solidarity and efficiency

In the college system.

INSTRUCTION

DR. CLIFFORD JOHNSON
Academic Dean

In the role of trouble-shooter
And prophet,
The Academic Dean
Carefully plans the future steps
Of a college,
Its faculty and its student body.
In directing academic programs,
He strives to improve the curriculum
By recruiting new faculty members,
Developing up-dated and progressive policies,
And guiding toward accreditation.
Much of the college's well-being
Relies upon
The optimism, perseverance, and toil
Of this important administrative position.

MRS. ALBERTA CHAFFE
Librarian

MR. C.B. HURST
Registrar and Director of Admissions

PUBLIC RELATIONS

With an eye to the future
And a desire for improvement,
The Director of Development
Designs the long-range master plan
That will fulfill the needs
Of a growing academic institution.
Achievement of these goals
Will be realized
Through public relations programs
With churches, alumni,
Foundations, businesses,
And friends of Cedarville College.
Extensive travel,
Persevering determination,
And undaunted enthusiasm
Envelop this post.

MR. LEE TURNER
Director of Development

MR. RALPH YARNELL
Alumni Relations

MR. HENRY PHILLIPS
Development Officer

DEANS

The Dean of Students
The Dean of Men
And the Dean of Women
Carry out responsibilities
Characteristic
Of counselor, clergyman,
Mediator, and parent.
Their variegated tasks
Call for faith and stamina
As they supervise student affairs
By working closely with dorm counselors
And residence hall supervisors,
Proffering academic and vocational guidance,
And helping students with personal problems.
Room assignments,
Close ties with Student Council,
And references for seniors
Are additional duties
Performed by the deans
In this valuable and indispensable
Position.

MR. MCINTOSH, Dean of Students

MISS MACKAY, Dean of Women

MR. LOPER, Dean of Men

BIBLICAL EDUCATION

How do you measure
The value of a life?
A man stands with empty hands,
Searching for the frame of reference.
Words are useless without
The meaning man gives them.
The important words to live by
Are interpreted for us by men
Of God.
Students learn to relate God
To their everyday lives
Through the Bible Education
Department.
The value of a life is seen
Through the wisdom of professors
Who experience God everyday.

MR. MEAD ARMSTRONG
Well, we have to be moving along.

DR. ROBERT GROMACKI
Let's go on over to chapter 8.

DR. JACK RIGGS
These chapters are important—16, 18, 25, 27, 32, 35, 47, 49, 50 . . .

MISS JOY MACKAY
Truth learned must be truth practised.

DR. GEORGE LAWLER
Remember your endings, class, remember your endings!

MISS JEAN FISHER
Teach the total man.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The Business Administration Department at Cedarville College
Offers the student majoring in this field
More than the essentials:
The rudiments of marketing,
The complexities of accounting,
Or the many facets of business administration;
But incorporates these business fundamentals
With a total college experience.
Under the instruction of competent professors,
Unique in its Christian emphasis,
And unsurpassed among the GARB schools,
The business department is ever striving
To equip its students with the necessary skills
To meet the challenge of our modern business world.

MR. DONALD WILCOXIN

Yes, I think that would be right, in view of the circumstances.

MRS. ARDETH WEBBER
Now, let's take this letter at 140 words per min.

MR. WILLIAM RITER
Looks like you guys have been working overtime again.

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

Learning how society functions,
Imparting insight into behavior,
To understand,
To be understood,
These are goals in Education and Psychology.
Education initiates knowledge
And the starting of ideas.
Psychology enables one to get along with others,
To improve himself.
The interaction between teacher and student,
The challenge of learning,
The fundamentals of knowledge,
Are the beginning of all education.

MR. THOMAS LOPER
I want to be an individual

DR. MERLIN AGER
In other words, you're saying that . . .

MR. BRAD MOORE

Just for fun, let's do something different today.

MISS MARTHA DUNN

This is just a small assignment. I'm sure you'll enjoy doing it.

MR. ROLAND FLECK

Well, this test isn't that hard.

FINE ARTS

The refinements of art and music
Are diligently surveyed in the Fine Arts Department;
And, the artistic gifts of each student
Are cultivated.
Creativity—the outward expression of ourselves,
Excellence—the refinement of that creation
Are accentuated.
These may take the form of
A multicolored canvas, a resounding sheet of music,
An aesthetically fashioned piece of sculpture
Or an inspiring trio selection.
Yet, whether a spring concert or oil painting,
Each melodious measure and skillful brushstroke
Evinces endless hours of toil.
The consummation of the Fine Arts Department
Is the generation of true artists.

DR. WARREN WEBBER
The question is, where do we go from here?

MR. J. EMERSON RUSSELL
A beehive of activity.

MR. DAVID MATSON
Need I say more?

MR. PAUL VANDERKOY
Don't lock your knees or you'll faint.

MR. WILLIAM THORNTON
We're going to have a tea party tomorrow—on chapters 1-6.

MISS SHIRLEY BYRD

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Disciplining of the body
As well as the mind
Is a part of a liberal arts education.
Flying high on the tramp,
Learning childrens' games
And coaching skills,
The functions of camp life,
Health instruction,
These are part of a total picture
Making up the total man
For a life more abundant.

MR. DONALD CALLAN
We're going to have to play "catch-up" now.

MR. DONALD DUNSTAN
At least I can do a kip-up.

MR. DENNIS OLSON
Are you kidding me?!

MISS JUNE KEARNEY
Just ten more laps, girls.

MISS ANN DAMON
We're going to practice our serves today.

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Language—
So essential
To a successful career,
Enriching relationships,
And an effective testimony,
Is given close,
Scholarly scrutiny
In German, French, and Spanish courses
As well as
Broad instruction
In English grammar,
Rhetoric, drama, and debate.
Believing that
Aesthetic understanding and literary appreciation
Are necessary ingredients
Of the educated, sophisticated man,
The Language and Literature Department
Essays toward that polished goal
With obtruse studies
In British and American literature.

MR. EDWARD SPENCER
Oh, my heart!

DR. JOHN REED
It's been real.

MR. HARMON BERGEN
Isn't it about time to go to chapel?

MR. HELMUTH POGGEMILLER
Would you believe it?

MR. EDWARD GREENWOOD
This is getting off the subject but . . .

MRS. MIRIAM MADDOX
Are there any comments on that speech?

MRS. FAYE RUECK
Vamos a hablar en español hoy.

MISS CARLA PACKARD
Bonjour, classe.

MR. PAUL GATHANY
The time is now 72 degrees and it's 4 o'clock outside our studio.

SCIENCE & MATHEMATICS

DR. DONALD BAUMANN
I guess so.

There is a vast world around us,
Challenging our every endeavor
To penetrate its boundless storehouse of knowledge.
The Science Department seeks to satisfy
The Cedarville student's quest for knowledge in this realm.
Whether by gazing at the heavens through a telescope,
Dissecting a felis domestica in the lab,
Or calculating the number of amperes in an electric current;
The quest is made with the instruction of educators.
Trigonometry, digits, logarithms, and the slide rule
Belong to the world of the mathematician.
With these tools, he can do a myriad of things
Beyond our wildest imagination.
The Mathematics Department of Cedarville
Grounds its students in these basic tools.
These two essential areas of study are
Continually striving for excellence.

MR. AUSTIN ELMORE
Now that you have completely digested this material ...

MR. DANIEL WETZEL
This could get a little messy.

DR. LARRY HELMICK
And it turns out.

MR. MALCOLM WOODARD
This is simply ...

MR. BERT FRYE
Put your test papers on the desk as you pass out.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

"It's a man's world"
So they say,
And Viet Nam, the Kremlin, the U.S.A.
Reveal a world
Dependent upon man,
A specimen of man
Whose stature is God-molded
Whose intellect is Spirit-directed
Whose soul is Christ-conscious.
The Social Science Department
Presses toward that mark.
The preparation of responsible citizens
And the investment of patriotism
Are aims which
Color and shape
The curriculum of this field.
Each course is designed
To produce enlightened citizens,
Denizens who can take their place
In this land
While awaiting entrance
Into a more glorious Land.

DR. CLEVELAND MCDONALD
I have a clipping here from 1953.

MR. RALPH GALE
Well, it's a little early but it's Friday, so I'll let you go.

MR. MURRAY MURDOCH
The epitome

MR. ALLEN MONROE
I contend that ...

RADIO STAFF

The "sound of the world's beautiful music"
 Transmitted near and far
 Via the radio waves of WCDR—
 Cedarville College's own station
 Operated by student workmanship
 In connection with its trained station manager,
 WCDR offers excellent training,
 Invaluable experience for the students involved.
 Combining its easy listening theme with
 The Gospel message
 WCDR is a channel of witnessing for the college.
 Into its operation go many man hours of
 Diligence, patience
 Craftsmanship
 Providing the college and community with

Friends are like the sturdy oaks that rustle in the breeze when the summer suns are gone ... Like the boughs of spicy evergreens pressed against our lives to shelter from the wintry blast ... Friends are like low blooming flowers that break at spring to light our path ... Like the perfumed roses dropping petals of happiness around our door ... Friends are like green mosses clinging close to running brooks ... Like the flowing streams spreading their moisture along the fields and asking no reward or pay ... Friends are like the shady nooks giving sweet release at evening's hush ... Like the broad expanse of softest green and copper bronze to delight the eye ... Friends are like the gentle whisperings of a love divine ... Forgiving and forgetting without a tinge of blame.

THE PAST . . .

January 26, 1887
Cedarville College born,
A dream realized;
Chartered by leaders
Of the Reformed Presbyterian Church,
The school has enjoyed
A rich heritage.
The early emphasis
Of a Christ-centered curriculum
Has been perpetuated.
Having been transferred
To Baptist hands
In 1953,
The student enrollment
Has more than tripled
Since 1959.

REV. DAVID MCKINNEY, D.D., LL.D., PRESIDENT

The Faculty and Students of Cedarville College. Cedarville, Ohio. Sept. 17th 1923.

OBSERVING THE

Rural outskirts
Liberal Arts outreach
Heavenly outlook
Set the stage
For Cedarville's present program.
Currently offering degrees in over a dozen majors,
The College
With its newly-instituted quarter system
Provides a sound academic foundation
With a pervading emphasis
On spiritual growth and Christian maturity
Through numberless avenues of Christian service.
New and emendatory academic buildings
Housing edifices and cafeteria
Coupled with a qualified and competent
Faculty
Prompt the nurture of the mind
While an ambitious athletic program
Of intercollegiate and intramural competition
Provide for the body.

PRESENT . . .

80th
ANNIVERSARY

ANTICIPATING

Cedarville is responding
To the challenge of the future
With a zealous
Development plan
That awaits anxiously the funds
Which will remove it
From the architect's desk
And project it into fulfillment.
A new dorm, chapel, and science building
Are proposed
And will increase
Cedarville's capacity in the future
For mature instruction,
While contending
For the Word of God
And the testimony of Jesus Christ.

THE FUTURE . . .

Groups and Organizations

As you think, you travel; and as you love you attract. You are today where your thoughts have brought you; you will be tomorrow where your thoughts take you. You cannot escape the results of your thoughts, but you can endure and learn, can accept and be glad. You will realize the vision (not the idle wish) of your heart, be it base or beautiful, or a mixture of both, for you will always gravitate toward that which you, secretly, most love. Into your hand will be placed the exact result of your thoughts; you will receive that which you earn ... no more, no less. Whatever your present environment may be, you will fall, remain, or rise with your thoughts, your vision, your ideal. You will then become as small as your controlling desire or as great as your dominant aspiration.

James Allen

STUDENT COUNCIL

A responsible student government
 Employing the democratic processes
 Of representation and voiced opinion
 Provide an open forum
 For free debate and discussion
 And encourages
 The exchange of ideas and suggestions
 For the improvement and advancement
 Of Cedarville College.
 The Student Council
 Officiates as an operative liaison
 Between Administration and Student Body.
 From the activities of new student week
 Early in the fall
 To Homecoming
 To recommendations for
 Student Handbook revisions
 To the formation of a Student Court
 The Student Council
 Promotes and offers
 Service to the school.

“WHO’S WHO”

DORM COUNSELORS

In personal and spiritual problems,
To lead in devotions
And dorm prayer meetings,
The willingness to be a friend,
To set an example
To understand—
This requires a dorm counselor.

“Quiet!”
“Where’s your date permit?”
“Did you take an L.P.?”
Any good policeman
Can maintain discipline.
But the desire to help

MIRACLE

"School days, school days
 Good ole Golden Rule days,"
 Their memories and events
 Are Captured
 Forever
 In a yearbook.
 Amusing candid, poignant copy
 Pen a diary
 That records for posterity
 Reminiscences
 Of a school year that is somehow always
 Bigger and better than last year.
 Dedication, imagination, and pride went into
 The Miracle's memorabilia.
 It beautifully reflects
 The accomplishments and the personalities
 Of Cedarville College, 1967-68.

WHISPERING CEDARS

A free press,
 So essential to a democracy,
 Finds its counterpart
 In the campus newspaper.
 Whispering Cedars
 Operates as an agent
 Of student opinion,
 A medium of praise and dissent.
 Its journalism
 Is the mouthpiece of news and views.
 Integrity, veracity
 Are its desired characteristics.
 With a disdain for sensationalism
 A love for truth
 And a thirst for facts,
 The paper
 Serves the college family
 As the manifestation
 Of campus spirit and feeling.

CONSERVATIVE CLUB

Liberty requires vigilance
 And vigilance demands
 The sacrifices of time
 Inherent in being
 Informed, concerned, involved.
 The Conservative Club promotes
 Enlightened and responsible citizenship
 And patriotism,
 The old-fashioned, flag-waving kind
 That results from
 Concern and involvement,
 The kind that was responsible
 For America's birth;
 The kind that will be needed
 For her maintenance and security.

FWM

Striving to make Missions
 A reality to all Christians,
 Fellowship for World Missions
 Meets every weekday morning
 And Tuesday and Thursday evenings
 For prayer and fellowship.
 With an emphasis on intercession,
 This organization
 Offers involvement to its members
 By praying for
 And writing to missionaries.
 FWM's Homecoming display
 In October
 Won first prize;
 The Missionary Conference
 In April
 Won rich spiritual rewards
 And many dedications
 For the Mission field.

Activities and Special Events

Look upward to the beginning of the day. This simple act will elevate your mind and impel you to go forth with new confidence and power. A day is well-lived in which you have put a fine resolution into practice, achieved a definite purpose, done some worthy act of kindness or rendered a noble service to others. True service is not limited to time or place. Today is the day to do something fine and noble.

This day brings to you its share of duties, opportunities and responsibilities. The spirit in which you approach the work and activities of this day will vitally affect the results. Go forward with large confidence and high expectation. Be alert to the fresh opportunities of this day and do everything possible to advance your highest and best interests.

HOMECOMING

As I reflect on my years at Cedarville, I see years full of every emotion, every experience. There have been times of laughter and times of tears; times of honor, and times of shame. But each experience—academic, religious, social—has forced me to look at myself—many times hating what I saw—and work at making those all-important changes that must be made in order to mature. It is here at Cedarville that I have learned the importance of having a thirst for self-improvement. As I look around the campus, I see memory after memory returning, reminding me that in the future, I will spend many a wistful evening reflecting on the learning experiences I was involved in here at Cedarville. It is here that I came to place a premium on my faith. It was living with students who had what I was looking for that made me see the importance of a constant communion with God. I shall always thank the students and faculty at Cedarville for forcing me to find myself, and then to try to improve all those imperfections which seem never to diminish. Truly the Lord was thinking of me when he had Paul write the words, "Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect, but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which I am already apprehended of Christ Jesus." I am so thankful that God doesn't give up on us, but rather keeps prodding us along to newer fields.

In Memoriam

Martie Brown, 1946-1967

Death is strange at times. Martie and I were both acquainted with its results. Often were the times we talked about what heaven was like. Although we were very close on earth it is an added joy to know we will meet again in Heaven. I may sorrow here because we are separated, but really we still share many things. She knows my joys; I just miss telling her. She knows my sorrows; I miss her sympathy. People thought Martie quiet. She was in her own way, but not really. In the quietness of her death, she has spoken to many hearts. A wedding dress, satin shoes, a promise and a secret remain to remind us that the door of Heaven may soon open to us.

Robert McInnes

Across the hills from yesterday
And just beyond today,
Tomorrow waits so patiently
To greet you on your way;
Elusive though it seems to be
Beyond the setting sun,
Although today is in the past
Tomorrow cannot come.

A treasured thought is in our minds
Of yesterdays gone by,
And sweet remembrance fills our hearts
To light a weary eye;
Today, a treasure to behold,
A shining glowing dream,
Tomorrow, ever waiting there,
Beyond our reach would seem.

Tomorrow, what a precious word!
A promise rich and real,
A chance to realize a hope,
A glowing dream ideal;
Another dawn that's yet to be
A day that's ever fair,
Beyond the realm of yesterday ...
A new tomorrow there.

REFLECTIONS OF THE EDITOR

Although this has been the busiest year of my life, it has been the happiest. I have enjoyed working on the yearbook very much and the things I have learned through this experience have been invaluable. Most of all I have learned to trust Christ more completely. Knowing that He would help me through this responsibility, I found strength at the right times instead of panic. I will always remember this year as the year in which I had the opportunity to serve the school by attempting to preserve the events, thoughts, people and the school as it was in 1967-68.

I would like to thank my staff for the fine work they have done this year and for being patient as I learned. I would also like to express my appreciation to Mr. Turner and Mr. Yarnell for helping me locate pictures, to Dale Braun and Art Shuter for taking many of the pictures we needed, to my parents for their encouragement and help and to those who took time out to help in the last minute rush.
