Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

January 19, 2016

Hey Everyone!

It's been kind of a long week here as we started classes up again after a long winter break! Our syllabus shock is wearing off a little bit and we're starting to get back into our roles as student-athletes. Sometimes after winter break it's hard to remember that we're not solely here to play basketball, but to get degrees as well! From what I've been hearing, there are a lot of girls with very difficult and packed schedules, so you can be praying for perseverance and motivation throughout this semester.

After a week of kind of ugly basketball, we had a choice to make about the team that we wanted to be. Our week in practice was spent focusing on getting back to playing like us and doing the little things right. Thursday we took on Wilberforce for the second time this season, and although it wasn't a beautiful game, we did come out with a pretty solid win. Then Friday's practice was all about Ursuline - one of the most important games we would play so far this season. For those of you who don't know, Ursuline was 13-2 coming into the game Saturday and had been getting quite a bit of attention. They are an offensively gifted team, but thankfully, we're a defensively gifted team. We took the floor Saturday focused and excited to be able to play such an important game. I have to brag a bit about my teammates, because they played so hard, and in the words of Coach Martin, "pulled themselves up by the bootstraps and got it done." Saturday was a huuuuuge win for us!

Although the win was awesome, I think the best part of Saturday for the team was the fact that HALEY TYLER CAME BACK TO SURPRISE US! She walked in the gym while we were pre-game shooting, but we all dropped what we were doing and swarmed her. It felt like our team was finally complete again! If you want to see the video of the surprise, check out the Cedarville Women's Basketball Twitter page!

We have one game this week Thursday at 5:30 p.m. at home. We play Bluefield State and hope to see you all there!

In the words of Kid President,
"A poem: two roads diverged in the woods, and I took the road less traveled...And it hurt man! Really bad! Rocks! Thorns! And glass! NOT COOL ROBERT FROST! But what if there really were two paths? I want the one that leads to awesome."

Last Time Out • 1/16/16

PEPPER PIKE, Ohio - Kaysie Brittenham led four players in double figures with 19 points to spark the Lady Jackets to an impressive 82-74 G-MAC victory at Ursuline.

Cedarville extended its winning streak to six in a row while improving to 13-5 overall and 5-0 G-MAC.

The defending champion Lady Jackets had to do some fancy footwork after blowing a 15-point halftime lead. The visitors had used a 23-11 second quarter for a 48-33 advantage.

The Arrows roared back with a vengeance. They began the third quarter with a 24-8 explosion to grab a 57-56 lead.

However, Brittenham flipped in one of her three-pointers and Kaitlyn Holm dropped in three straight free throws to restore order. CU never trailed again.

Abby Wolford pumped in 17 points and Holm came off the bench with 13. Kayla Linkous added 12 points and a team-high eight rebounds.

Kaysie Brittenham

Numbers Game:

- Brittenham's 19 points and five assists matched her season-highs.
- Wolford is averaging 19.2 points and 4.2 assists in five G-MAC games.
- Holm's previous career-high was eight points which occurred three times this season (Tiffin, Urbana, Wilberforce).
- CU's bench outscored the Arrows' by a 32-9 difference.
- In five conference games, the Yellow Jackets are outrebounding the opposition by 16 per game.
- Cedarville has won all 18 games ever played vs. Ursuline.

Looking Ahead

The Lady Jackets close out the month of January with Great Midwest Athletic Conference home games versus Davis & Elkins on Thursday, Jan. 28 at 5:30 p.m. and Alderson Broaddus on Saturday, Jan. 30 at 2:00 p.m.

CU heads out on an important G-MAC road trip with games on Thursday, Feb. 4 at Kentucky Wesleyan (6:30 p.m.) and at Trevecca on Saturday, Feb. 6 (2 p.m.). The Cedarville-Trevecca game will be broadcast live as part of the American Sports Network NCAA II Game of the Week. See page 14 for more info.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(January 11-17, 2016)

Kaysie Brittenham
Cedarville • Senior • Millbury, OH

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Cedarville senior guard Kaysie Brittenham was named the ninth Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

This is Brittenham's second career G-MAC Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week honor after receiving the same recognition last year in November.

With first-place implications in the conference on the line Saturday at Ursuline, the Yellow Jackets rose to the occasion and took control of the driver's seat with a crucial road win in Pepper Pike.

Cedarville additionally beat Wilberforce in an early-week non-conference tilt while improving to 13-5 overall and maintaining a clean 5-0 record in the G-MAC.

The Yellow Jackets are currently on a six-game winning streak as they prepare for a three-game homestand.

With the decisive outcome well in hand, Brittenham scored 10 points in 23 minutes against Wilberforce. The Yellow Jackets held a 17-point advantage at the end of the first quarter and led by as many as 44 down the stretch.

On a bigger stage, Brittenham stepped up with a team-high 19 points against Ursuline. She was 7-of-14 from the field and hit four of her team's 10 three-pointers.

Brittenham also pulled in five rebounds and dished out five assists. She added a block and two steals.

The Yellow Jackets and Arrows entered Saturday's long-anticipated showdown as the two top teams in the conference standings, respectively.

In 18 games, Brittenham is averaging 10.7 points per game. She ranks eighth in the league in assists per game (2.7) and is tied for second in total steals with 41.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Columbus, Ohio.

CU/TNU to air on ASN

GREENWOOD, Ind. – The Great Midwest Athletic Conference announces that the basketball games between Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, will air on the American Sports Network as part of the NCAA Division II Game of the Week package.

The men's and women's games between the Yellow Jackets and Trojans in Nashville will represent the G-MAC's first American Sports Network broadcast in any sport.

"The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is thankful that two member institutions will be highlighted this season in the American Sports Network's Division II Basketball Showcase," said G-MAC Commissioner Tom Daeger.

"This contest will provide great attention to the talents of our student-athletes and offer exposure for conference rivals Trevecca Nazarene and Cedarville. It will be a great day of basketball in Nashville when these four teams square off on February 6."

The women's game is set for 2:00 p.m. EST and the men's game will start after around 4:15 p.m. EST inside the Trojan Fieldhouse. Nashville is located in the Central Time Zone.

This will be Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene's second meeting of the regular season. Both teams are also scheduled to play each other on Saturday, Jan. 2, in Cedarville.

"First, we are honored to be the first G-MAC institution selected to host a Division II National Showcase broadcast," said Trevecca Nazarene Director of Athletics Mark Elliott. "It is an opportunity to represent our community, Trevecca and Nashville, but we realize along with that comes responsibility.

"Similar to when we made the move to NCAA Division II, we will lean on support from the greater Trevecca and Nashville community," Elliott added. "We'll look to our administration, marketing, faculty, Moore Maniacs, alums along with our great friends who are connected to Trevecca. To make this a great showcase, it will take the full support of the Trevecca and Nashville community. We are looking forward to the challenge."

The Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene women's programs have battled it out and finished first and second in the G-MAC standings, respectively, in each of the past two years.

TNU has assembled back-to-back 14-2 league records in 2013-14 and 2014-15 while the Yellow Jackets marched to the conference's first NCAA Championship Midwest Regional at-large selection in 2014-15 with a 27-4 overall record.

After beating then-No. 19 Alabama-Huntsville, the Trojans' men made a name for themselves on a national level early this year. Cedarville's men have won three straight at the time of release and are quickly developing rising young talent.

Additional information will be made available at a later time about which markets will carry the games. For those outside the regional market, both games will also be streamed live on NCAA.com.

The American Sports Network has reached agreements to distribute its broadcasts to regional cable networks that will make it available in 94 million of the nation's 113 million TV homes.

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
