YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

October 14, 2014

The Blog, "A Tradition unlike any other"

Greetings folks, I guess I will just get right into it this time around. So this will be a bit shorter than usual.

This past week we had a tough combination of games. We had Davis & Elkins, a team which we have never beat, in the past three years, and Slippery Rock our foes from Western PA.

The first team we played was D&E. We knew this was not going to be an easy task, and we prepared rigorously in practice leading us to that game. And it paid off, we won 2-0. Both goals were scored in the first half, and both goals were two of the best goals that were scored all season. The first goal was scored by none other than Chris (hotel motel) Anderson who ripped a ball into the back of the net over the keeper from about 25 yards out. The second score came from Connor (team Jacoby) Gilmour who scored in a similar fashion as he crushed a ball from about 20 yards out with a left footed shot that curved into the far post side netting. These goals concluded the first half and we entered halftime with a bit of excitement. The second half was another 45 minutes of battling, but we grinded it out as Coach Faro loves to say and we came away with a 2-0 victory against our conference rivals.

Next up was Slippery Rock. There is no easy way of saying this besides saying the facts, which is that we lost 5-2. Needless to say this was a heartbreak for us, we entered that game believing whole heartedly that we were going to win and we absolutely could have and have the potential to. I digress, we went up early in the first half when Connor (I'm running out of nicknames for you) Gilmour put a ball into the back of the net from a restart taken by Jerret (D'Amico flow) Kersten. But Slippery Rock answered back and scored three goals in the span of 14 minutes and we ended the half down 3-1. In the second half Slippery Rock scored two more goals and we scored one, once again by Connor (the long haired wonder) Gilmour thus the game ended 5-2.

However there are still plenty of positives and good things in store for us the rest of this season which is far from over. Now we are hard at work practicing for a big conference game at Alderson Broaddus on Wednesday, and a big non-conference game Saturday at Charleston who is currently ranked #2 in the country.

Christakis Agisilaou has been named the G-MAC Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week after helping the Panthers secure a 1-0-1 record this week in conference action. After posting a 0-0 double overtime tie against Salem International, Agisilaou carried his team to a win over Ohio Valley with a hat trick.

After Agisilaou was held scoreless in a 0-0 double overtime tie against Salem, he rebounded to score three goals against Ohio Valley in a team's 6-2 win. The Panthers led 2-1 in the first half, and Agisilaou scored three-straight goals to balloon their lead to 5-1, essentially putting the game away. His goals came in the 21st minute, 47th minute, and 68th minute.

On the season, Agisilaou now has a team-leading eight goals and he currently ranks second in the conference in both points (17) and goals scored.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE – MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
