Women's Basketball Weekly Blog

January 16, 2017

Why hello there, welcome to the women's basketball blog! This past week was a little crazy but nothing we couldn't handle.

Monday was our last day of freedom so we spent it how any normal college students would...we cried about having to go to classes on Tuesday. A lot of us have early morning lectures and our excitement department was out of stock. Thankfully, everyone survived the syllabus shock and made it safely to practice.

Wednesday was the second round of classes and a whole lot of tears. Again, we survived but it was a close call. Once our school day ended we headed to the locker room for clips followed by practice in the gym. Unlike Tuesday, instead of scurrying off to the dorm to prepare for classes, we loaded up the bus and headed to West Virginia.

It was a long and rocky trip but we managed to arrive in one piece thanks to great music, nourishing food and Finn Hoffman's favorite movie (the 1965 version of Cinderella). The trip took a little longer than expected due to traffic. We were informed that there had been a terrible car crash. If you could pray for all who were involved and the boy who is in critical condition that would be greatly appreciated. I know this isn't basketball related but there is power in prayer and this family is in grave need.

Once at the hotel we got our room assignments and headed to bed (exciting, right?) The next day we woke up with big smiles on our faces and a joy that could not be contained. Why were we so happy? I'll give you a hint...it was game day! We walked through our scouting report, jetted off to Panera for our pre-game meal and strolled into Alderson Broaddus to pick up another conference win. It wasn't our prettiest game but a win is a win and we rolled with it.

After watching the men's game we drove to another hotel, this one being in Elkins, West Virginia. Friday was a very relaxed day. We had an early practice but nothing scheduled for the rest of the morning/afternoon. We used our free time to catch up on missed assignments, keep up with daily devotions and take naps of course. Around 4:30 p.m. we had Bible study with our fantastic student assistant, Katie. She is leading us through the book "Seated with Christ" and she is doing a bang up job!

That evening we took to the town and ate out with the men's team. We went to a lovely restaurant with some great Italian food... or so we thought. Gabe, who is a full blown Italian from the men's team, informed us that they were making their food all wrong and it was not up to Italian standards. I thought it was just dandy and thoroughly enjoyed every bite of my tortellini. After dinner everyone piled in the hotel lobby to play various card games and share lots of laughs. It's always enjoyable spending quality time with great people.

Saturday was not as great as Friday. We made our way to Davis &

Elkins to play our second game of the week. We knew they were going to be a tough match up but no one thought we were going to lay an egg... but that's exactly what we did. We did not play as well as we could have and it cost us the game. We were constantly reminded of the phrase, "You can't get a game back." The harsh reality had hit us. We could never play D&E on January 14th, 2017 ever again. We couldn't go back and fix our mistakes. These wretched thoughts have fueled our fire to get better. So be prepared for some some rocking basketball in the near future!

This week we are preparing to take on Malone (Thursday) and Ursuline (Saturday) in the Callan Athletic Center.

I also want to leave you with this, if you can't find time in your day to spend with the Lord, you aren't trying hard enough. We make time for things that are important to us and I feel that quality time with God is pretty high up on the importance scale.

Have a great week y'all!
