GAME DAY

Cedarville University vs. Kentucky Wesleyan College
Saturday, September 20, 2014 • 4:30 PM

Sept. 15, 2014

"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit." When I first heard this oft-quoted line, my dad was casting pearls before nine-year-olds and trying to use Aristotle to make me keep my room clean. That's just one of many examples of my dad's instruction ever-so-slightly overshooting my level of understanding. (I spent the majority of the early 90's trying to figure out what "deliberate disobedience" and "absolutely unacceptable behavior" meant besides "....so....this is a bad thing...?"). Anyway, my father's premature application of this Aristotelian wisdom does not make it any less true. Unfortunately, my teammates and I had to learn this the hard way.

Despite the disappointment of the previous weekend (See Blog 2), we entered this last week optimistically. Regardless of the stats (or lack thereof), we left WV Wesleyan knowing that we were going to handedly beat a very good team. So, as you can imagine, the team that attended Monday and Tuesday's practice slightly resembled middle school girls who think they look way to cool in their Ugg-boots. Don't misunderstand me. We still practiced well and understood that our first home match against ODU would be formidable. But, we weren't exactly in danger of being too intense. Unfortunately, we soon saw the error of our ways.

Wednesday, the day of our home-opener, dawned bright and clear. Everyone across campus could feel the electricity of the impending events. Annd, by everyone I may or may not mean the 20+ girls wearing matching shirts and greeting each other with "Game Day" in I'm-a-white-girl-trying-to-sound-like-an-intimidating-black-man voices. (Yes, it is completely necessary; and yes, I include myself in that description). Nothing could bring us down, not even the fact that someone made the font on our shirts too small and "Cedarville Women's Soccer" was about as legible as a too-long hashtag. We carried that optimism right into our warm-up and important pre-game assessments of ourselves ("Should we walk out to T-swift or something more...rapp..y?"), our opponents ("Alright, #14 and #21 totally have the best hair on their team and her bone structure is off the chain"), and other important technical aspects of the game ("Sarah, it's not Optimistic Olivia it's clearly Optimistic Opal!") Basically, we were ready to win.

Long story short, we didn't. Long story long, they trounced us; it was the ODU Soccer Clinic and CUWS had front-row seats; we came, we saw, we died. If this was an inspirational sports movie we were the bad team BEFORE the moving montage where pushups, generally intense facial expressions, and 80's soft-rock make us champions in 24 hours. Welcome to Loserville University, we hope you enjoyed your stay.

Alright, clearly they don't call me Chloe, the Dramatic for nothing; it wasn't really that bad. Like coach said, we did have some moments of brilliance and great plays. But, our overall performance and intensity level were sub-par. Thus, we lost our first home game, 3-0. Afterward, basically the only bright spots in our bleak black cloud of an existence were the hallowed cupcakes that the Mahek family brought. Thanks, Maheks! You (and your cupcakes), are the real MVP's.

Predictably, Thursday's practice began with a talk from our coaches. Through a rousing two-part speech featuring Bri's excellent knowledge of classic sport metaphors and Coach Mac's knowledge of every single player, game, and season that has ever been distantly involved with Cedarville, we received the reality check we needed. We had begun to see winning as a right rather than a privilege. As a result, we'd spent the past few weeks practicing with an air of apathy and under performance and assumed we could just turn on the intensity when necessary. Unfortunately, our performance against ODU proved that "Practice makes permanent" is a lot more accurate than "Practice makes perfect." With their typical grace and patience, our coaches encouraged more than critiqued and simply asked that we put in the time, effort, and attitude winning requires.

Thankfully, we did. If our Monday practice was not intense enough, then our Thursday and Friday practices were slightly more intense than Nike commercials. We practiced hard, fast, and well. No one went easy (My crippled ankle thanks you, Carly) and everyone focused their energy into some of the best practices we've put together this season. This time, for our second home game, a Saturday match against Tiffin, we really were ready to win.

Long story short, we did. Not only did we win, but we dominated. Kristie Wolff repeated a record-tying performance. Everyone played quickly and accurately. Elise Hurley scored her first goal of her last season and Jacoby added two to her own tally. Most excitingly, we beat Tiffin University for the FIRST TIME in Lady Yellow Jackets history. It was official: We were definitely the team AFTER the I-know-this-is-completely-unrealistic-but-I'm-definitely-still-crying-because-it's-so-ridiculously-inspirational sports movie montage.

There are many speculations on why that game went so well. Scholars have submitted that it was the beautiful fall weather. Others think it may have been the excellent fan base (shout out to whoever made a massive sign entirely out of Melissa's face). Personally, I'll always slightly believe the theory that we owe it to receiving our long-sleeve uniforms AND our beautiful, oh-so-voluptuous puffy coats before the game. However, we all know the truth. Aristotle got it right. We played well that day, because we practiced well the day before, and the day before that. We put in the intensity behind the scenes, and our performance reflected that. We beat Tiffin because we worked towards a legacy instead of letting our legacy work for us.

Ideally, we wouldn't have had to experience the heartbreaker with ODU to learn the lessons of this week. But, at least we did learn them...and...it did fit perfectly into the inspirational sports movie metaphor in this blog. So, I think we can live with it....kind of.

Until next time!

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Kentucky Wesleyan College Panthers in Great Midwest Athletic Conference action tonight at Yellow Jacket Field. The contest is the fifth of a five-game homestand for the Lady Jackets.

The Jackets, 3-2 (0-1), dropped a 2-0 league decision to visiting Trevecca University on Thursday night.

The Panthers are also 3-2 (0-1) with their most recent action a 2-0 setback at G-MAC foe Ursuline on Thursday afternoon.

The Lady Jackets are led by Jacoby Ziegler, a junior forward, who repeated as the G-MAC Offensive Player of the Year. She tops the 2014 squad in the early going with four goals and eight points. Ziegler, who ranked third last season in Division II nationally in scoring with 20 goals and 10 assists for 50 points, was injured during Thursday's game and is doubtful for action versus KWC.

Jacoby Ziegler

Senior forward Kristie Wolff is CU's second-leading scorer with six assists. Wolff has tied the Cedarville school record on two occasions with three assists in a single game.

Carly Gregory, a junior, was the G-MAC Defensive Player of the Year. She and Ziegler were joined on the all-conference first team by sophomore midfielder Grace Miorelli and junior defender Kaleigh Rowlands.

Sophomore keeper Hanna Harris has allowed seven goals while making 25 saves en route to a 1.40 goals against average.

Kentucky Wesleyan is under the leadership of fourth-year Head Coach Jamie Duvall who is the fourth-leading scorer in KWC men's soccer history.

Panther senior midfielder Annie Elder has three goals and an assist to lead the offense after five games. She was an All-G-MAC Second Team selection last season.

Annie Elder

Lauren Norton, a junior midfielder, has tallied three goals for six points. Paige Kramer, a senior forward, has a team-best three assists.

Juniors Kathryn Dishion and Courtney Barter have shared time in the nets for KWC in 2014.

Cedarville has posted wins in the two previous meetings with Kentucky Wesleyan - a 3-2 victory last Sept. 21 in Owensboro, KY and a 1-0 verdict on Oct. 26 in Cedarville.

HEAD COACH JOHN MCGILLIVRAY

John McGillivray is one of the most well-respected soccer coaches in the state of Ohio and has been coaching soccer at Cedarville University since 1974.

McGillivray has been the head coach of the Lady Jackets since 1998. He served as the Cedarville men's head coach from 1974 through 1997.

Coupled with the 137 wins with the women, McGillivray has 352 total soccer victories at CU. His 300th overall win came in a 5-0 decision over Grace on Aug. 28, 2008. He picked up his 100th victory with the Lady Jackets in a 2-1 result at Point Park on Oct. 17, 2009.

McGillivray has enjoyed seven winning seasons with the Lady Jackets including a best-ever 15-7 mark in 2013. CU led the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with a 9-1 regular season mark and McGillivray was voted G-MAC Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished 13-8-2 in 2004, won NCCAA Midwest Region championship, and secured an automatic berth in the NCCAA National Tournament. The 2000 club had a 12-7-2 record and made the school's first-ever NCCAA championship appearance in women's soccer.

McGillivray and his teams have long been recognized for their sportsmanlike behavior. His Lady Jackets twice received the Fair Play Team Award from the American Midwest Conference for their exemplary conduct on the field. He was presented the first-ever Distinguished Merit Award in 1990 by the Ohio Collegiate Soccer Officials Association. The National Intercollegiate Soccer Officials Association honored him in 1992 with their National Merit Award.

The Springfield, Ohio native led his men's teams to eight Mid-Ohio Conference titles, five NCCAA District III banners, three NAIA District 22 championships, and one NAIA Area IV crown which carried with it a trip to the NAIA Nationals in 1974. He guided his squad to five NCCAA National Tournament appearances, a pair of NCCAA National Runner-Up finishes and he was chosen NCCAA National Coach of the Year in 1981.

McGillivray served at all levels of NAIA soccer including president of the NAIA Soccer Coaches Association from 1983 through 1985. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1991 and the NAIA Hall of Fame in 1993.

McGillivray, who is an associate professor in the Department of Kinesiology and Allied Health, is a 1970 graduate of Cedarville College, and he earned his master's degree in 1976 from the University of Dayton. John and his wife, Bonnie, reside in Cedarville and have five children and 15 grandchildren.

Paige Rowan • Ursuline
Senior • Concord Twp., OH

Paige Rowan has been named the conference Women's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the first time this season. This is fourth time in her career she has earned the weekly award. The Arrows secured a pair of wins behind the efforts of Rowan, improving to 3-1 on the season with wins over West Liberty (Mountain East) and Walsh (GLIAC).

In a pair of mid-week games, Rowan scored an unassisted goal in a 3-0 win over West Liberty, and then scored both goals against Walsh in a tight 2-1 victory at home. Her first score came on a header off a pass from Vanessa Consiglio. After Walsh tied the game, it took just three minutes and one second for Rowan to score the game winner.

Walsh had defeated Ursuline in each of the first eight meetings in the series, but over the past three seasons, UC is now 2-0-1 against Walsh – the alma mater of Arrows head coach Jason Kubbins. Rowan has now scored a goal in each of the teams four games this season, leading the conference with five goals and ten points.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
