BRIM

draw deep
          buckets from the lonely wells.
here, dried tears calcify
          coiling
blank-bark wisterias,
          twist to chants of,
“c'est triste, et triste.”

it cheats
along the peripheries;
          leaves one hungry.
(it's thicker than acrylic paint)
          &shy, shyer,
I moult beneath the whispered bludgeonry of
your arresting faraway.
