YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

October 7, 2014

The Blog, "A Tradition unlike any other"

Greetings Folks, we are now past the halfway point of our season and we are striving toward continually getting better every day to give each team our best with the expectation of post season play.

With that to be said it has been a roller coaster of a week for our team. This past Thursday we played Ohio Valley and won 9-0. Goals were scored by Connor (Jacoby is bae) Gilmour who scored a hat trick. Mike (bae is gone) Auld who scored his first career goal for the Jackets. Kyle (the Frenchman) Nikerle who also scored his first career goal for the Jackets as did Jon (well I'll be John Brown) Brown.

The other three remaining goals were scored by Christian (Sara is bae) Alexander who netted two goals and Zach (backbone of the middle) Harris. And if you are reading this blog right now I would ask that you pray for Zaz (Zach Harris) as he suffered a serious injury to his leg in the first half as he scored his goal. He has been a huge encouragement to the team while he has been out and I know he will continue to do so. He is a great teammate, leader, friend, and brother in Christ. As far as the rest of that game goes there is not a whole lot to say about a game that you win 9-0 besides that the team was very bad and we played about average.

Our next game was Saturday and it was also our Homecoming game. Despite the cold weather and the rain, we still had a decent crowd come out to the game many of which were former Cedarville soccer players. We were very excited for that game with so many alumni in attendance, but to pump us up even more we got a great pre-game speech from former Cedarville captain Matt Niemiec. After that we headed out to the field for warm-up. When the game started we battled for the first 45 minutes of the game with no goals scored but produced some quality opportunities.

That changed in the second half, as we started to connect the final piece and put on a great second half for the fans. We scored four goals in the second half, the first goal came from Connor (dragon slayer) Gilmour who chipped the keeper after he received a through ball from Jared (Lauren is bae... so we think) Newman. The second goal was scored by Joel (gym is bae) Twinem who scored a goal that came in from Justin (Sarah is bae) Santoro. The next goal was scored by Daniel (Big Rig) Rigby as he beat two defenders and slid the ball into the corner of the net. Goal #4 was scored by Chris (the bulldozer) Anderson after he smashed the ball and the keeper into the back of the net. And so we ended the game with a 4-0 win with a solid performance and shutout from the whole backline and keepers.

Next up is conference rivals Davis & Elkins in West Virginia on Wednesday the 8th, and Slippery Rock at home on Saturday the 11th.

- Protect the baby!

Justin Santoro is a senior midfielder from Cranberry Twp., PA majoring in marketing.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts The Rock of Slippery Rock University in non-conference action tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

Cedarville enters tonight's match with a 7-2-2 record including an important Great Midwest Athletic Conference 2-0 win at Davis & Elkins on Wednesday.

The Rock, NCAA II members and defending champions of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, are 6-4 on the season after dropping a 1-0 league contest at Seton Hill on Wednesday.

The Yellow Jackets, led by second-year Head Coach Brett Faro (20-5-6), are paced in scoring by junior forward Connor Gilmour. The 2013 All-G-MAC First Team selection leads the team with seven goals and two assists for 16 points. Classmate Christian Alexander has added four goals and three assists for 11 points.

Connor Gilmour

Senior forward Connor Scott is the squad's third-leading scorer with two goals and a team-high four assists for eight points.

Junior Zachary Harris and sophomores Chris Anderson and James Twinem each have three goals and an assist for seven points.

Senior defender Ethan Shula and sophomore midfielder Aaron Plummer also have three assists for the Yellow Jackets.

Sophomore Paulo Pinto and junior Ethan Dewhurst are both seeing action in the nets in 2014. The pair have combined for seven shutouts while allowing six goals in 11 contests. The school record of 12 shutouts in a season was set by last year's squad.

Slippery Rock is led by first-year Head Coach Andy Hoggarth who served last year as an assistant women's coach at the University of Akron.

Senior forward Stephen Donnelly leads The Rock with four goals and a team-best six assists for 14 points. Mike Ilodigwe, a rookie forward, is the second-leading scorer with four goals and an assist for nine points.

Stephen Donnelly

Steven Rerick, a senior keeper, is seeing most of the action in goal for The Rock.

Slippery Rock won the only other previous meeting with the Yellow Jackets - a 3-1 decision last September 25 in Pennsylvania.

Brett Faro is in his second season as the head men's soccer coach at Cedarville University. He guided the Yellow Jackets to the Great Midwest Athletic Conference championship and a 13-3-4 record in his first campaign.

Faro was named the program's interim head coach in July, 2013 and later had the interim tag removed in November just before the G-MAC Tournament. He spent the previous two seasons as CU's top assistant coach.

CU has gone 44-13-8 since Faro's arrival including a school-record 17 victories in 2012. The Jackets won the 2011 NCCAA Midwest Region banner and placed third at the national tournament.

Faro came to Cedarville after serving as an assistant coach at the United States Naval Academy during the 2010 campaign. He helped guide the Midshipmen to a 7-5-4 record.

Faro has been involved in multiple levels of soccer in coaching and administration. He coached the U17 Maryland Nike Rush '93 in 2010-11 and helped lead the NCSL Division I squad to three tournament championships.

Faro was team manager of Sky Blue FC of Women's Professional Soccer in 2010. He also coached and trained players in the Hershey Youth Soccer Club in 2007 and 2008.

Faro was a four-year standout during his playing career at perennial NCAA Division III powerhouse Messiah College from 2005-09. He was a member of four national championship teams, was a two-time team captain, and tied the school record for the most games played in a career with 99.

Faro is a 2009 graduate of Messiah with a degree in sports management. He was a Dean's List student at the school and was recognized as an NSCAA Academic All-Region Scholar-Athlete.

Brett and his wife, Shelley, were married on May 31, 2014. They reside in Xenia.

Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week

(Sept. 28-Oct. 4, 2014)

Daniel Nock • Davis & Elkins
Junior • Furth, Germany

Daniel Nock has been named the G-MAC Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week after helping the Senators post two more conference wins on the road. In the teams trip to Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca, D&E came away with a pair of one-goal wins, including an overtime win over TNU to improve to 4-1 in the G-MAC.

Nock, who has allowed one goal in winning the last three games all on the road, becomes the first goalkeeper to earn Athlete of the Week honors on the season in the conference. Against Kentucky Wesleyan, Nock went the 90 minutes without allowing a goal, making four saves on nine shots. The Senators scored early in the second half and held on for the 1-0 lead.

D&E then traveled to Nashville and captured a 2-1 overtime win over the Trojans. Nock allowed a goal in the 25th minute of the game, but then shut down the attack making five saves on 10 shots, giving his team the chance to tie the game, which they did in the 87th minute, and won the game in the first overtime in the 97th minute.

Nock lowered his goals against average to 1.54 per game, ranking him fourth in the conference overall. He is third in the conference with 5.0 saves per game and second with two shutouts in just six games played. However, in conference only action he ranks first in goals against average (0.33) and save percentage (.941).

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE – MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
