YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 29, 2014

The Blog, "A Tradition unlike any other"

Greetings Folks,

Another week has come to pass and two more games are under our belts.

This past week started off with a bit of a surprise to us. After a battle against Kentucky Wesleyan last Saturday night, the coaches decided to give us a day without practice to recover our tired legs. So we utilized our day with recovery jogs, vice baths, and some stretching sessions. After our much needed day of recovery we were prepared to get back on the practice field to get better for our next game against Gannon.

With two days of practice and improving our play we were ready for Tuesday night to beat Gannon and get the "flywheel" moving. For those of you who don't know what a flywheel is, "A flywheel is a rotating mechanical device that is used to store rotational energy. Flywheels have a significant moment of inertia and thus resist changes in rotational speed. The amount of energy stored in a flywheel is proportional to the square of its rotational speed." (Wiki)

Any way you slice it we wanted to start moving that massive wheel and the way to do that was send Gannon home with an L on their record books. And that is what we did. We battled the Golden Knights for 90 minutes and beat them 2-0. Both of our goals came in the second half. The first goal was scored by Christian (hipster not prep) Alexander as he beat the keeper with a ball shot low and hard to the back post. Goal number two came from Connor (if Ali was a soccer player) Scott who headed the ball in after two rebounds came back off the crossbar. We finished the game 2-0 and were happy to return the favor to the Golden Knights who got the best of us last year.

Next on our schedule was the #13 team in the country Mercyhurst. Our adventure to Mercyhurst started Friday night, as we boarded the S.S. Buckeye once again and started our journey to Erie, PA. We traveled half way and spent the night in Medina, OH. The next morning to help us wake up we had a team session of grey skulls (a team juggling game) to help us wake up and get our legs moving. We then got packed up and headed to Mercyhurst. Upon arriving at Mercyhurst, we changed into our gear and were focusing on nothing but the game. We headed out of our quiet but focused locker room ready to take the field. However, this game did not go as we intended it to. Within the first five minutes, Mercyhurst scored on us off of a counter attack which was the only score of the first half.

As the second half began, Mercyhurst got another leg up on us as they scored their second goal within the first six minutes of the half which came from a questionable "no call" as Jerret got pulled to the ground from behind. It was a battle for 90 minutes and we created some chances to score but could not get the ball in the net against a very good opponent (credit where credit is due). I digress. There are more games to play and we are now looking forward to getting better this week for our games against Ohio Valley and Shawnee State.

Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week

(Sept. 21-27, 2014)

Jeremiah Wright • Trevecca

Jeremiah Wright has been named the G-MAC Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the first time this season, and his second time in his career at TNU. In the team's only conference action of the week, Wright played a major role in posting the win for the Trojans.

Trevecca opened the week with a difficult shutout loss to Carson Newman, but bounced back to claim its first win in conference play and improve to 1-0-1 in the G-MAC with a dramatic 4-3 double overtime win over Kentucky Wesleyan.

TNU fell behind 2-0 early, but pulled even in the first half on Wright's unassisted goal in the 38th minute. The Trojans would hold a 3-2 lead, but allowed the game tying goal to force overtime. The game seemed to be headed for a draw when Wright made a solo-unassisted run around and past three defenders and a charging goalkeeper to score the game-winner with just 14.1 seconds left in the second overtime.

Wright leads the team with three goals and seven points on 12 shots. He is tied for fourth in the conference in goals and tied for fifth in points.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE – MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
