BULLETIN of

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

CEDARVILLE, OHIO

A BAPTIST COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

"For the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ."

Volume 40

FEBRUARY, 1958

Number 5

In the activities of Cedarville College, as well as in the classrooms, Christ is presented as the Lord of our lives. Since we enter the Christian life by accepting Christ as Lord (Acts 16:30-31) and should live the Christian life by a constant recognition of His Lordship (Col. 2:6), we believe that our college should emphasize this great truth.

In an attempt to bring constantly before our students the authority and prerogatives of Christ, a daily worship service is held in Milner Chapel (9:50-10:20 a.m.) at which time we all take part in singing, prayer, and worship. Faculty members, local pastors, and a number of visiting speakers come to our chapel in the course of the school year. A few of our guest speakers during this school year have been: Rev. Donald Moffat, Shelton College; Rev. R. I.

"HE IS THY
LORD-- WORSHIP HIM"

(Psalm 45:11)

Humbred, Bible conference speaker; Mr. Howard Burt, school principal at Ortonville, Michigan; Pastor Tom Younger of Fort Wayne, Ind; Dr. Carl M. Sweazy of Los Angeles Baptist Seminary; Rev. Harold Amstutz, Association of Baptists for World Evangelism; Rev. Alfred Colwell, eastern representative of the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches; Pastor William Ashbrook of Columbus, Ohio; and Pastor Gordon Cook of the Winona Lake Baptist Church of Winona Lake, Indiana.

Milner Chapel will be used twice daily for special Bible lectures February 17-21. Rev. Kenneth W. Masteller, pastor of the Haddon Heights Baptist Church, Haddon Heights, New Jersey, will be the special teacher. During the morning hours, Pastor Masteller will bring a series of messages from the Book of Acts, under the general heading, "The Continuing Ministry of Christ." In the evening services his Bible studies will be taken from the Old Testament: Monday, "Moses, the Man of the Hungry Heart"; Tuesday, "Elisha, the Man of Hidden Resources"; Wednesday, "Habakkuk, the Man in the Watch Tower"; Thursday, "Daniel, the Undefeatable Man"; Friday, "Zerubbabel, the Spirit-aroused Man."

FIFTH ANNUAL CEDARVILLE COLLEGE CHURCH BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

On March 14 and 15, 1958, the Cedarville College campus and student body will again act as host to that usual, determined amalgamation of teams that come from our central and eastern states.

For the past four years this event has assumed an outstanding position of high-lighted importance with the most enjoyed moments of the school year for the faculty as well as the student body of the college.

At this prominent time of the year routine activities of the college assume second-rate importance as attention is focused on the mounting spirit of competitiveness.

This tournament was begun in the spring of 1954, at which time the East Side Baptist Church of Lorain, Ohio, and the Brown Street Baptist Church of Akron, Ohio, took first and second titles respectively. In March of 1955 the Riverside Baptist Church of Decatur, Illinois, received first place; and Temple Baptist of Portsmouth, Ohio, (producing the most valuable player, Sweringen) took second place. In 1956 Calvary Baptist of Olean, New York, and First Baptist of Blanchester, Ohio, carried away first and second positions. Robert Humphreys of Toledo, Ohio, received the M.V.P. award. The First Baptist of Blanchester, Ohio, and the First Baptist of Rochelle, Illinois, took the first and second positions in the tournament of 1957. Joe Wilkinson of Rochelle was presented the M.V.P. trophy.

Much work and planning are involved in the success of this tournament, but the results have always greatly exceeded the initial labor. At this time entries are being sent back from the churches which have been contacted by mail.

The former Director of Athletics of Cedarville College, Mr. Robert Underwood, is quoted as making these statements: "Our inter-collegiate program is designed to develop a co-operative as well as a competitive spirit among our young men and a testimony for our Lord in the sphere of competitive athletics. The athletic program at Cedarville College will certainly cease to exist when these things are not present in our athletic program."

We are positive that the college athletic committee and administration would desire the same qualifications for this coming 1958 Church Basketball Tournament of Cedarville College.

Anyone is invited to come and enjoy the games that will be played throughout the days of March 14 and 15 in the Alford Memorial Gymnasium on the college campus and the Ross gymnasium at Greenview. Plan now to attend the final games which will be played in the college gymnasium.
