YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 22, 2014

The Blog, "A Tradition unlike any other"

Greetings folks,

Another day another dollar, another game another tie.

It has been yet another exciting week for the Yellow Jackets. The week has been filled with games, practices, and coaching our final matches for the Little Dribblers.

As we started the week we were ready to get back at it and ready to get better. This week of practice was filled with many drills to help us improve on putting the ball into the back of the net, which was much needed. After 110 minutes of scoreless soccer against Lock Haven we wanted to make sure that would not happen again. So we shot and shot and practiced many combinations that helped us break the line of defense and put the ball into the back of the net.

As the week went on we put our practices into motion as we took the field against Trevecca University. We knew this was not going to be an easy game because TU was gunning for us as we have beaten them the last five times we have played each other. It was a battle just as we expected and the first half remained scoreless. As the second half progressed we were spending most of our time with the ball trying to get behind the defense which we were able to do as Daniel (toilet paper bandit) Rigby chipped the keeper with a cheeky little stutter step. But Trevecca was quick to counter as Bruno the Brazilian scored an impressive set piece from 25 yards out. We were more than furious and our furry amplified when Trevecca scored again off of a corner. But this anger and aggression only fueled the senior forward, Ethan (the machine) Lee. To quote a famous man:

"You got anger that's good you're gonna need it, you got aggression that's even better you're gonna need that too. But any two-year old child can throw a fit! Football is about controlling that anger, harnessing that aggression into a team effort to achieve perfection!" - Coach Herman Boone

And that is exactly what Ethan (wonder ball) Lee did. When all hope seemed to be lost Ethan (pump up the jam) Lee scored one of the best goals in the history of Cedarville to tie the game in the last minute to send us into yet another overtime. We spent 20 minutes peppering the goalie from Trevecca but we just couldn't seem to connect the final piece and we ended with a 2-2 tie.

With a nice recovery practice on Friday we were mentally and physically ready for our game on Saturday against Kentucky Wesleyan College. But before our game we had our very last Dribblers game for the season. It was exciting and nostalgic as I realized that this would be the last Dribblers game I would ever coach.

Now we were focused on our game, and after tying on Thursday against Trevecca we were ready to get another victory under our belts. It was not going to be an easy game as KWC has also never beaten us. And a dog fight it was, we battled back and forth with KWC until finally Christian (tats magee) Alexander shot a ball perfectly placed into the far post and we ended the game with a 1-0 victory. Now we are preparing for our game against Gannon University on Tuesday night.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Gannon University Golden Knights in non-conference action tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

Cedarville enters tonight's match with a 3-1-2 record after posting a 1-0 shutout on Saturday over visiting Kentucky Wesleyan in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference battle.

The Golden Knights, NCAA II members of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC), are 2-4 with their most recent action a 1-0 league setback to visiting West Chester on Saturday.

The Yellow Jackets, under the direction of second-year Head Coach Brett Faro (16-4-6), lost eight graduating seniors from last year's team, but CU still returns a solid nucleus including the top four scorers. Four All-G-MAC First Team selections are back including goalkeeper Ethan Dewhurst, defender Jarrett Kersten, midfielder Zachary Harris, and forward Connor Gilmour.

Sophomores Connor Gilmour and Joel Twinem, junior Zachary Harris and senior Connor Scott top the Yellow Jacket scoring charts with five points each. Gilmour, Harris and Twinem have two goals and an assist while Scott is tied with Ethan Shula for the team lead with three assists to go with one goal.

Joel Twinem

Junior Christian Alexander has a goal and an assist for three points while Chris Anderson, Ethan Lee and Daniel Rigby have each scored one goal.

Sophomore Paulo Pinto and junior Ethan Dewhurst are both seeing action in the nets in 2014.

Gannon is led by Head Coach Robbie van Rheenen who is in his 18th year (172-131-14) at the helm of the Golden Knights. He is Gannon's all-time winningest soccer coach.

Robbie Bennett, a 2013 Capital One All-America First Team selection, tops the Golden Knights with three goals and an assist for seven points. The senior forward is Gannon's ninth all-time leading goal scorer with 39 to his credit.

Robbie Bennett

Gavin Linsell and Chad Petterson have scored two goals each this season while Linsell leads the team with a pair of assists.

Gannon won the only other previous meeting between the schools - a 2-1 decision last October 29th in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Brett Faro is in his second season as the head men's soccer coach at Cedarville University. He guided the Yellow Jackets to the Great Midwest Athletic Conference championship and a 13-3-4 record in his first campaign.

Faro was named the program's interim head coach in July, 2013 and later had the interim tag removed in November just before the G-MAC Tournament. He spent the previous two seasons as CU's top assistant coach.

CU has gone 44-13-8 since Faro's arrival including a school-record 17 victories in 2012. The Jackets won the 2011 NCCAA Midwest Region banner and placed third at the national tournament.

Faro came to Cedarville after serving as an assistant coach at the United States Naval Academy during the 2010 campaign. He helped guide the Midshipmen to a 7-5-4 record.

Faro has been involved in multiple levels of soccer in coaching and administration. He coached the U17 Maryland Nike Rush '93 in 2010-11 and helped lead the NCSL Division I squad to three tournament championships.

Faro was team manager of Sky Blue FC of Women's Professional Soccer in 2010. He also coached and trained players in the Hershey Youth Soccer Club in 2007 and 2008.

Faro was a four-year standout during his playing career at perennial NCAA Division III powerhouse Messiah College from 2005-09. He was a member of four national championship teams, was a two-time team captain, and tied the school record for the most games played in a career with 99.

Faro is a 2009 graduate of Messiah with a degree in sports management. He was a Dean's List student at the school and was recognized as an NSCAA Academic All-Region Scholar-Athlete.

Brett and his wife, Shelley, were married on May 31, 2014. They reside in Xenia.

Men's Soccer
Athlete of the Week
(Sept. 14-20, 2014)

Deshawn Parker • Alderson Broaddus
Freshman • East Liverpool, OH

Deshawn Parker has been named the G-MAC Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the first time in his career as the freshman opened the conference schedule with his best individual performance of his young career at AB. In a pair of G-MAC shutout wins over Salem International and Ohio Valley, Parker scored four of the teams seven goals and added an assist on the game-winner against Ohio Valley.

The Battlers opened the conference season at home against Salem International. With a 1-0 lead late in the first half, Parker added the insurance scoring from the left side of the box, assisted by Donovan Morgan.

Parker's biggest impact came in the Saturday road contest at Ohio Valley. The Freshman scored three times for his first collegiate hat trick, all three goals coming in the first half. Despite the success on the attack, the Battlers allowed two second half goals to tie the game at 3-3. In the 59th minute, Parker assisted on Maro Purfumo's game-winner. Parker leads the team with five goals on the season, plus a pair of assists for a team-high 12 points. His five goals and 12 points also ranked first among the conference leaders.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
