MATCH DAY

How do you cope when something you love to do becomes something you have to do? That is what I, like many other college athletes, have been struggling with lately. God has distributed talents to us for a specific purpose. Furthermore, He provided a way for us to continue our athletic careers on the collegiate level. So then, why isn't it always fun anymore? I think the main reason is that it's just plain hard. It's hard to constantly be pushing our bodies to the limit, to be sore, to be tired, and to always be on top of our game. Secondly, it's stretching emotionally. Both winning and losing can take their toll. When we win it's difficult not to become prideful and self-centered. When we lose it's hard to not feel that weight on our shoulders or not to dwell on our mistakes. Thirdly, it can become incredibly stressful. When we have exams, group projects, friends, and a desire to sleep, practices and games seem to take up more time than usual. I guess the real question is then: what can we do to fix it? For that I've come up with a few solutions:

First and foremost, take it to the Lord. When going through these struggles I see the Lord pulling me to Himself. He wants to bring me peace in times of trial and take the burden off of my shoulders. All I need to do is let Him. Through reading His word and being in constant communication with Him I can feel that peace manifesting itself. Paul makes a great statement in II Corinthians 12:9, "He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." It is true that when I am weak He is strong.

Another method that's also helped me in conquering this feeling is simply gaining perspective on our purpose for playing. We don't play for ourselves, but instead to spread the gospel and the love of Christ to our opponents. We also play for our teammate's success. To perform at a high level as a team, we have to be thinking about the person next to us on the court instead of ourselves. With a team that loves each other as much as ours does, thinking of my teammates is one of the easier things to do.

Lastly, it is important to remember why we love the game. When I first started playing volleyball it was all I wanted to do. I'd be outside for hours just hitting the ball up against my garage until it was too dark to see. Even in college when I'm not in season I take every opportunity that I can to play volleyball. Every part of it excites me, from the strategic aspects to the physical performance. I absolutely love this game, sometimes I just forget.

I know I am not the only athlete that has ever dealt with this, and I most certainly am not the last. I hope what I had to say can be helpful for those of you trying to understand or for those struggling as well. As I'm coming out on the other side of the tunnel, we can begin to focus on what has happened and what is to come. Cedarville Volleyball is now 2-0 in the G-MAC! WOO! We managed to beat a scrappy Alderson Broaddus team in four sets and a tenacious D&E team in three. Abby Shelton also had a career high of 26 kills during our AB match...way to go Abby! These results plus a W from the Urbana game Tuesday puts our squad at 6-8. This coming week we have another set of three home games including USI, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Trevecca Nazarene. These will be tough matches, but we have been working hard in the gym to prepare. With a team like mine, we have the potential to do great things on the court this week. Please be praying that we are able to do our best this week and love what we do.

Have a great week!

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the University of Southern Indiana Screaming Eagles tonight in non-conference action in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, under the direction of eighth-year Head Coach Doug Walters (164-114), enters tonight's match with a 6-8 record and a four-match home winning streak.

Southern Indiana, an NCAA II member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC), is 10-2 on the season having won eight of their last nine contests. The Screaming Eagles captured a pair of league wins this past weekend over visiting opponents Quincy and Truman State.

Four juniors continue to pace the Lady Jackets after 14 matches of the 2015 season. Outside hitter Abby Shelton leads the offensive attack with 192 kills and 3.84 kills per set. Rachel Krikke, a 6-1 middle hitter, tops the squad with a .337 attack pct.

Sophomore Krissy Pratt is second with 133 kills while posting a second-best 20 aces in the aggressive CU serving attack.

Libero Angela Becker, paces the back row with 197 digs while setter Kristin Cardwell has handed out 358 assists and tops the squad with 21 service aces.

Head Coach Leah Mercer is in her 11th season (194-128) at USI having led the Screaming Eagles to the NCAA Tournament in 2010, 2011 and 2013.

Abbey Winter, a 6-2 senior middle hitter, tops the USI attack with a .373 attack percentage and 60 total blocks. Sophomore outside hitter Shelbi Morris adds a team-high 140 kills while senior Erica Oberbroeckling is another threat on the outside.

Junior setter Quin Shultz runs the USI offense while sophomore Shannon Farrell leads the back line with 230 digs.

Southern Indiana owns a 3-0 lead in the all-time series with the Lady Jackets. The teams last met on October 14, 2014 with USI posting a 25-17, 28-30, 25-15, 25-17 verdict in Evansville, Indiana.

Last Time on the Court - 9/26/15

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Krissy Pratt pounded 15 kills and the Lady Jackets swept aside Davis & Elkins in a G-MAC contest at the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville, 6-8 overall and 2-0 G-MAC, won it's fourth straight by scores of 25-17, 25-21, 25-14.

Pratt also contributed two service aces and three blocks. Abby Shelton totaled 10 kills.

Kristin Cardwell came through with 26 assists and four aces.

Angela Becker finished with 20 digs. Rachel Krikke turned down five blocks and Alyssa Barkley had four.

Numbers Game:

- Pratt is averaging 4.15 kills/set with a .347 attack percentage in the last four matches.
- Krikke has recorded a block in all but one match.
- Shelton reached twin figures in kills for the fifth straight time.
- Cardwell's four aces are a season-best. Her career-high is five; accomplished twice in 2013.
- CU is 15-1 at home in regular season G-MAC matches.
- The Jackets are 7-0 all-time vs. D&E. It's the only regular season meeting between the two schools.

He began at CU in 2012 after years of extensive experience designing, implementing, and managing general and multicultural marketing and market research programs, as well as implementing sales management. He has conducted consumer marketing work all over the world for some of the top 100 Forbes companies.

Head Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history.

The Lady Jackets have posted 157 victories during Walters' seven-year tenure. The list of honors includes the 2008 NCCAA championship as well as three consecutive Great Midwest Athletic Conference crowns in 2012, 2013, and 2014.

During the school's first active season in NCAA Division II in 2012, his squad rolled to a 32-6 overall mark and was a perfect 8-0 in the G-MAC. Cedarville went on to win the inaugural G-MAC Tournament and Walters was ultimately voted the league's Coach of the Year.

The Jackets, who finished 23-14 overall in 2013, repeated the feat after sharing the league's best regular season record at 12-2. They went on the road to claim their second straight G-MAC Tournament trophy.

Then, in 2014, CU made it a three-peat after rolling through the league schedule with a 10-1 regular season mark. The Jackets hosted the G-MAC Tournament as the #1 seed and locked down their third straight title to finish 20-13.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets in 2008 was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall that season and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Despite going 15-23 overall in 2009, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. The Jackets were 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Cedarville finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters was founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003, was a Junior Olympic organization, and was recognized as one of the top regional clubs in the Cincinnati area.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is a National Team Coach for the Elevation Volleyball Club based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He is also the chair of the NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball Midwest Regional Advisory Committee and serves on the Division II Women's Volleyball National Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Morrow, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 13.
