WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON MAY 14

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF REGULAR BAPTIST CHURCHES

SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT ACTIVITIES

Dr. J. M. Stowell

Rev. G. A. Woolsey

The commencement activities of Cedarville College will begin Wednesday evening, May 21, at 7:30 p.m., when the Chapel Choir will present a "Sermon in Song" entitled "The Service of the King" in Milner Chapel. The program will include selections by the ladies' trio, the male quartet, and the ladies' sextette.

On Thursday evening, May 22, at 7:30 p.m. the annual baccalaureate service will be held in the Alford Memorial Gymnasium. The Reverend Arthur Woolsey, pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist Church, Waterloo, Iowa, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon.

Graduation activities will continue through the week as the Alumni Association of Cedarville College holds its annual conference Friday, May 23, on the campus. Mr. Dale Thompson, president of the association, will be in charge of the three sessions which will be held during the day. Testimonies from alumni in various fields of Christian service will be given in the morning; the annual business meeting will be held in the afternoon; and in the evening the conference will conclude with the Alumni Banquet to be held in the college dining hall. The Reverend Glenn Greenwood, pastor of the Blessed Hope Baptist Church in Springfield, Ohio, will be the guest speaker. The program will include special music by the Cedarville College quartet, The Royal Messengers, the 'CC' ladies' trio, and Vernon Weber, soloist.

Climaxing the week's activities will be the sixty-second annual commencement to be held in the Alford Memorial Gymnasium at ten o'clock Saturday morning, May 24, when eighteen seniors will graduate, fourteen of whom will be granted the Bachelor of Arts degree, two will be granted the Bachelor of Science degree, and two will be granted the Bachelor of Theology degree in addition to the Bachelor of Arts degree. Dr. Joseph M. Stowell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hackensack, New Jersey, will address the graduating class, the faculty, staff, parents, and friends of the college.

Following the commencement address, Professor Robert Underwood, Registrar, will present the candidates for graduation. President Jeremiah will confer the degrees, assisted by Dr. C. R. Maddox, Dean of the college.

The President's Trophy will be awarded to the student who has shown outstanding achievement in the various phases of his college experience. Other awards will be made for outstanding records in scholarships and for proficiency in music.

President Jeremiah has announced that the commencement exercises are open to the public and, in behalf of the college, he extends a cordial invitation to all the friends of Cedarville College to attend the commencement events.

CEDARVILLE GRADUATE ENROUTE TO MISSION FIELD

"It really weighs heavy upon my heart to rub shoulders with these lost folk daily, and not be able to tell them of One so very precious," writes Miss Patsy King, Mid-Missions missionary to French Equatorial Africa. A 1957 graduate of Cedarville College, Miss King is studying the French language for one year in preparation for the field.

Influential in starting many Bible Clubs while attending college, Miss King sailed in March and already has become interested in the French people. "It's so important that we learn well the language," she says, "for we have the most important thing to tell them."

Though quite busy getting settled in her new "home," Miss King reports on her progress for the bulletin:

"Thou crownest the year with Thy goodness; and Thy paths drop fatness." Psalm 65:11.

"The Lord is greatly to be praised and thanked for His bountiful goodness and faithfulness! (II Timothy 2:13). His paths are rich with blessings, lasting joy, and perfect peace. Daily does the Lord prove John 10:4 to me as He goes before each step of the way.

"Since receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour August 14, 1949, the Lord has truly crowned my years with His goodness. Five years ago I was completing high school. One year ago I was completing four years at Cedarville College. In one more year I should be completing a year at the Alliance Francaise (one language division of The University of Paris), and soon after be in French Equatorial Africa. All has been completed because of Him, and all He continually proves Himself to be.

"The Lord prepares each step of the path—things don't 'just happen.' I sincerely thank Him many times for His leading to Cedarville College and all it means to me. Its warmth remains, as well as many of the lessons in and out of books. I'm so very thankful for dorm life, all Christian teachers, staff, and others who take special interest in each student, all classes beginning with prayer, clean social activities of many varieties, the work opportunities to pay bills, and the thorough practical work program to put into action that which is learned.

"I thank the Lord for sound Bible teaching received at Cedarville College, whether in theology or zoology. I know it prepared me to meet the Baptist Mid-Missions oral examination Council, August 14, 1957, as well as previously written questionnaires given by Baptist Mid-Missions.

"A few words cannot begin to express how thankful I am for the well-rounded curriculum of Cedarville College, the MANY lessons learned there, and the precious memories, too.

"The assurance remains also, that though an Alumna, I have not been forgotten by those at Cedarville, for they pray daily for me. That means more than words can ever express as the Lord's path for me leads on to French Equatorial Africa, His part of the great white harvestfield of souls for me." Psalm 115:1.

The President's Letter

Dear Friends:

Because of the lack of space my letter to you this month will be rather brief. I do desire, however, to give each one of you a personal and cordial invitation to visit our campus on Wednesday afternoon, May 14th. Be our guest at lunch and take part in the guided tour of our buildings and grounds in the afternoon. The welcome mat is out, so plan to be with us.

By this time you have received our special letter telling of the financial needs of the college. We are following the only method we know in raising the needed $25,000 - we are "asking the Lord and telling the people." Thank you so much for your help at this time.

Sincerely in Christ,
James T. Jeremiah
