YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 15, 2014

The Blog, "A tradition unlike any other."

Greetings Folks!

This past week was not very different from the rest. It was filled with practices, little dribblers games, and matches. After our devastating overtime loss to Saginaw last week we were excited to get back to practice and ready to play Malone and get a victory. And that is exactly what we did. Tuesday we loaded up the SS Buckeye at 10 a.m. and set sail for Canton, OH known famously for the NFL "Hall of Fame". But before getting to Canton we made a pit stop in the outskirts of Mansfield, Ohio to carbo-load with some tasty pasta from Pizza Hut. Except Coach (bombs away) Faro was not a lover of the pasta as he tossed a whole tray to the ground. With our stomachs full of nutrients we loaded the bus once again and arrived at Malone a few hours before the game giving us time to eye up the pitch.

We came out with guns blazing scoring two goals in the first half. Our first goal was scored by Connor (check out my new sword) Gilmour off of a penalty kick that came from Christian (twinkle toes) Alexander drawing a foul in the box after beating a guy 1 vs 1 leaving him no choice but to foul the cheeky speed demon. Our second goal came from Chris (Bella es mi amore) Anderson as he smashed the ball into the back of the net with his face off of a ball whipped in from Ethan (the prowl is tiring) Shula. Goals three and four both came in the second half. Goal three was scored by Joel (#twineming) Twinem as he wins the award for slowest rolling ball to score in the history of soccer. And goal four was scored by Connor (Aragorn) Gilmour who volleyed the ball past the keeper, and we left Malone fairly pleased with a 4-1 victory.

Our focus was now on the next Big Game which was against Lock Haven this past Saturday under the lights on our home turf. We were pumped to be playing in front of our own fans again, but this game did not go the way we intended it to go. We battled the Lock Haven Eagles for 90 minutes and at the end of the game it was still scoreless. So yet another overtime was upon us, and we were not about to lose another overtime battle. So we took the field ready to send these Eagles back to the mountains of PA with a loss. We did almost everything we could to get the ball into the back of the net. We scratched, we clawed, and at one point we ended up with a total of six Cedarville and Lock Haven players sprinting towards an open Lock Haven goal. Of those players, all six ended up sliding into the Eagles nest with three players trying to score a goal and three players trying to prevent a goal. That was the closest we came in overtime to scoring and somehow we ended up tying Lock Haven who seemed overjoyed with a tie. But as one of my previous coaches told me after a tie, "Soccer is a fickle game" and how true that is. We were disappointed with that result, as we should have been. But our goal is to glorify God in our wins losses and ties. And we now have more work to do and we are now preparing for a week of conference games that will need our full attention.

Shout out of the week goes to the CU Men's Basketball Team for being the loudest, most rowdy fans since the North Street Elite.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Trevecca University Trojans in the opening game of Great Midwest Athletic Conference action tonight for both teams at Yellow Jacket Field.

The Jackets are coming off a 13-3-4 (6-1-1) season last fall and are picked to repeat as champions of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. Cedarville enters tonight's match with a 2-1-1 record after posting a 0-0 double-overtime verdict with visiting Lock Haven last Saturday.

The Trojans are 2-3 with wins over Southern Indiana and Bethel IN. Trevecca has dropped games to #18 West Florida, Indiana Wesleyan and most recently a 1-0 loss to visiting Asbury on Tuesday.

The Yellow Jackets, under the direction of second-year Head Coach Brett Faro, lost nine graduating seniors from last year's team, but CU still returns a solid nucleus including the top four scorers. Four All-G-MAC First Team selections are back including goalkeeper Ethan Dewhurst, defender Jarrett Kersten, midfielder Zachary Harris, and forward Connor Gilmour.

Sophomore Joel Twinem and senior Connor Scott top the Yellow Jacket scoring charts with five points each. Twinem has two goals and an assist while Scott has a team-best three assists to go with one goal.

Connor Gilmour and Zachary Harris have each found the back of the net twice.

Sophomore keeper Paulo Pinto has seen most of the action in the nets with a 0.29 goals against average.

Trevecca is led by Head Coach Danny Leavy who is in his 6th year (39-50-4) at the helm of the Trojans.

Jeremiah Wright the 2013 G-MAC Freshman of the Year and a member of the All-G-MAC First Team is one of four Trojans to score a goal in the first five games of the year.

Junior keeper Braydon Brown - a 2013 G-MAC Honorable Mention - has a 1.76 gaa to go with 17 saves in 306 minutes of play.

Cedarville leads the all-time series with the Trojans by a 5-0 margin including three wins last season - 4-0, 2-0 and a 6-2 decision in the G-MAC Tournament semifinals in Elkins, WV.

Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week (Sept. 7-13, 2014)

James Pucci • Davis & Elkins
Senior • Carrara, Italy

James Pucci, the reigning G-MAC Male Athlete of the Year, has been named the G-MAC Men's Soccer Athlete of the Week for the first time in 2014. Despite a difficult start to the season against an extremely difficult schedule and a 0-1-1 record on the week, Pucci helped secure a double overtime tie against one of the nation's best.

In the team's mid-week contest against Notre Dame, the Senators dropped a difficult 1-0 decision, but rebounded over the weekend to post a 2-2 double overtime tie against Millersville. In the game, Pucci scored a goal and assisted on the team's other goal to secure the tie.

So far this season, Davis & Elkins has faced Notre Dame, Millersville, Quincy, and Tiffin - three of the four made an NCAA Tournament appearance last season and the fourth is currently ranked in the 25 this season.

So far this season, Pucci has scored two of the teams four goals and collected the teams only assist. He is in a three-way tied for the conference lead in points and a four-way tie for the top spot in goals scored despite a very difficult schedule.
