Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

January 26, 2016

Well this was a pretty uneventful week for your Lady Yellow Jackets. We had one game on Thursday so Monday through Wednesday were spent preparing for that and just trying to make ourselves better at lots of different things.

Our game against Bluefield State was not the prettiest game we've played, but we did win pretty handily. I say it wasn't pretty because sometimes you just don't play very well against the teams you think you're supposed to beat. We have been working through that concept a lot this year as a team, because the truth is that in women's basketball, any team can beat anyone on any given night (Gotta give some credit to Coach Martin on that quote). Thankfully, we still came out with a victory, probably because Mac almost out-rebounded the other team by herself! Shout out to her on an awesome game, it was especially fun to play with her and from what I've heard from our fans it was fun to watch as well!

Then we got to Friday, and practice was just 12 players and Coach Martin. Steve got a chance to go watch Coach Ryan (THE Raegan Ryan) and her team, and both Squirt and Flunk were gone too. So in Coach Martin's exact words, "Sorry, T, you're stuck with just me!" As the confident seniors that we are, Whitney and I made fun of him a little bit (as usual) but it really was a good practice and we got a lot accomplished.

You'll never guess what's coming next...WE GOT A SATURDAY OFF! Whaaaaaaat? It was incredible, I found myself wondering, "What do normal college kids do on Saturday?" Usually we have a game, so we have shoot around and then team meal, then the game and family time afterwards. But no, we had a whole Saturday to ourselves. It was beautiful!

But, we are back and focused and ready to go for this Thursday and Saturday as we take on Davis & Elkins and Alderson Broaddus. Like I said, anything can happen on any given night, especially during conference season, so we will be spending the week preparing for these two teams! Hope to see you at our games! (Seriously, we REALLY want to see you at our games, we play a lot better when we see the support we have from our fans rather than the great expanse of empty, blue bleachers.)

Well, in honor of MLK Day this past week, here's a quote from Kid President:

"Dream with me. I have a dream that I can, that WE can make the world better. But not by doing bad stuff and not by being famous. We just need to be cool. I have a dream that everybody can be nice."

Last Time Out • 1/28/16

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - The defending G-MAC champion Lady Jackets used a stifling defense to post their eighth consecutive victory, 72-41, over Davis & Elkins in the Callan Athletic Center.

Cedarville pushed its record to 15-5 overall and 6-0 in the league.

The home side came out a little sluggish and trailed 12-8 after seven minutes. They responded with 12 straight points and then outscored D&E 37-12 over the middle two quarters.

Taylor Vander Plas

The overall defensive performance, sparked by Taylor Vander Plas and Kaitlyn Holm, was especially impressive in the third frame. CU outscored the Senators 14-2 allowing a lone field goal at the 6:38 mark.

All 12 Lady Jackets in uniform played and scored. All but one was credited with at least one rebound.

Kaysie Brittenham knocked down four of the team's 11 three-point baskets. She finished with 16 points, six rebounds, and four assists.

Kayla Linkous had 11 points while Abby Wolford dished out five assists.

Cedarville controlled the boards, 44-36, and converted 13-of-14 free throws.

Numbers Game:

- Brittenham scored in double figures for the fourth straight time.
- Linkous is 23-for-27 (.852) from the line in the last five games.
- Wolford has 28 assists (4.7 apg) in her last six outings.
- Cedarville has won 16 consecutive G-MAC home games. D&E was the last conference team to win at the Callan Athletic Center - 76-75 on Jan. 16, 2014.
- Cedarville leads the all-time series, 5-1. The two teams meet again in Elkins, W.Va. on Feb. 27 in the regular season finale.

Looking Ahead

The Lady Jackets head out on an important G-MAC road trip with games on Thursday, Feb. 4 at Kentucky Wesleyan (6:30 p.m.) and at Trevecca on Saturday, Feb. 6 (2 p.m.). The Cedarville-Trevecca game will be broadcast live as part of the American Sports Network NCAA II Game of the Week. See page 14 for more information.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(January 18-24, 2016)

Rachel Ashley

Alderson Broaddus • Senior • Teays Valley, WV

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Alderson Broaddus senior guard/forward Rachel Ashley was named the 10th Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

This is the second G-MAC Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week honor of her career.

Like the Battlers' men, the AB women earned two conference wins this past week, at home against Ohio Valley and on the road with Salem International.

As a result, Alderson Broaddus forced its way into an updated three-way tie for third in the G-MAC standings with Ursuline and Davis & Elkins at 3-2.

Ashley finished a strong week by averaging 18 points per game, shooting 51.5 percent from the field and averaging four assists.

Versus OVU at home, Ashley went 8-for-13 from the field as part of her 17 points and three assists to contribute to the Battlers' win.

Ashley logged her fourth double-double of the year at Salem International with a well-rounded line of 19 points, 11 rebounds and five assists.

This year, Ashley is averaging 15.1 points per game, 6.6 rebounds, and a field goal percentage of .538. She also has three games of scoring 20 points or more.

Currently, she's ranked third in the G-MAC in scoring, fourth in rebounding, third in field goal percentage, 10th in assists, seventh in steals and 10th in blocked shots.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Columbus, Ohio.

CU/TNU to air on ASN

GREENWOOD, Ind. – The Great Midwest Athletic Conference announces that the basketball games between Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, will air on the American Sports Network as part of the NCAA Division II Game of the Week package.

The men's and women's games between the Yellow Jackets and Trojans in Nashville will represent the G-MAC's first American Sports Network broadcast in any sport.

"The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is thankful that two member institutions will be highlighted this season in the American Sports Network's Division II Basketball Showcase," said G-MAC Commissioner Tom Daeger.

"This contest will provide great attention to the talents of our student-athletes and offer exposure for conference rivals Trevecca Nazarene and Cedarville. It will be a great day of basketball in Nashville when these four teams square off on February 6."

The women's game is set for 2:00 p.m. EST and the men's game will start after around 4:15 p.m. EST inside the Trojan Fieldhouse. Nashville is located in the Central Time Zone.

This will be Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene's second meeting of the regular season. Both teams are also scheduled to play each other on Saturday, Jan. 2, in Cedarville.

"First, we are honored to be the first G-MAC institution selected to host a Division II National Showcase broadcast," said Trevecca Nazarene Director of Athletics Mark Elliott. "It is an opportunity to represent our community, Trevecca and Nashville, but we realize along with that comes responsibility.

"Similar to when we made the move to NCAA Division II, we will lean on support from the greater Trevecca and Nashville community," Elliott added. "We'll look to our administration, marketing, faculty, Moore Maniacs, alums along with our great friends who are connected to Trevecca. To make this a great showcase, it will take the full support of the Trevecca and Nashville community. We are looking forward to the challenge."

The Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene women's programs have battled it out and finished first and second in the G-MAC standings, respectively, in each of the past two years.

TNU has assembled back-to-back 14-2 league records in 2013-14 and 2014-15 while the Yellow Jackets marched to the conference's first NCAA Championship Midwest Regional at-large selection in 2014-15 with a 27-4 overall record.

After beating then-No. 19 Alabama-Huntsville, the Trojans' men made a name for themselves on a national level early this year. Cedarville's men have won three straight at the time of release and are quickly developing rising young talent.

Additional information will be made available at a later time about which markets will carry the games. For those outside the regional market, both games will also be streamed live on NCAA.com.

The American Sports Network has reached agreements to distribute its broadcasts to regional cable networks that will make it available in 94 million of the nation's 113 million TV homes.

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
