Lady Jacket Soccer Blog

October 28, 2013

It's hard to believe that we have officially finished the regular season. As a senior, I never wanted it to come to an end, especially with this team. But since it had to happen, I know that it couldn't have ended any better way.

A close loss against Trevecca last Thursday meant that Saturday's game against Kentucky Wesleyan would determine our fate in the conference. If we won, we would take first and host the next three games of the tournament. If we lost, we would have to travel to West Virginia for those games. Saturday was also Senior Night and I don't know if I have ever been so nervous and excited for a game! You could feel the intensity and excitement in the air as our team truly wanted this win and to host a tournament for the first time ever. You could also feel the crazy love that our team has for one another. As the three seniors walked into the locker room together, we were greeted by all our amazing teammates who had decorated the locker room, made us posters, and given us the sweetest gifts. There were also some delicious snacks for celebrating after the game, courtesy of my mom. Each senior was given a book with a note from every person on the team. We didn't read through them then - we were already way too emotional. But when I read mine later that night, I laughed so hard and shed a few tears as I reminisced the many memories I had with my 27 teammates and best friends.

But enough sentimentality for now; back to the game. Coach gave us a great pump up speech in the locker room about how we had the opportunity to win a game that really meant something against a quality team. We were challenged to not come out flat like the last game and you could tell that that was definitely not going to happen!

Before the game, the seniors were recognized and we walked out to hug our three coaches that meant so much to us. As we walked back to the bench, our team ran out and surrounded us in a huge group hug. It was a moment I'll never forget.

Then soon enough, the whistle blew and the game was underway. Our team came out with great energy and we fought hard for every ball. At the end of the first half however, it was still 0-0. Then, with 22 minutes left, the senior Elizabeth Cox (also known as the Brazilian Wonder) had one of the most beautiful goals we've seen all season! We went absolutely crazy (as did Liz's huge fan section). And then we never backed down for the next 22 minutes to win the game! When the final whistle blew, we went crazy again - hugging and yelling and smiling a ridiculous amount. It was an amazing feeling to work so hard to win a game that meant so much, with a team that we love so much, and for a purpose that is greater than ourselves.

After the game, Coach McGillivray led us in a beautiful prayer thanking God for our season. He also challenged us with something that Kaleigh had said earlier in the day. Kaleigh had prayed that if we were able to host the tournament, that it would be used as a way for more people to see Cedarville and to see the love of our God. This is the mindset we want to have as we take hold of this amazing opportunity we have before us beginning with our first round game against Ohio Valley on Saturday at 3:00 p.m.!

This has been a season truly from Him and for Him. Glad it isn't truly over just yet. :)

Great Midwest Athletic Conference

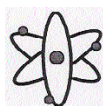

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is a diverse, yet like-minded group of institutions that are driven by an engaged Presidents Council and Membership that are focused on providing an atmosphere of college athletics that aligns with the philosophy, attributes and strategic platform of NCAA Division II. Through the active membership realignment in this region, the G-MAC has emerged with the solid foundation it has desired, and with a strong and unified alignment. The Conference benefited from the realignment in this region by expanding our Conference membership with institutions that share similar goals in growing and developing as a NCAA Division II member.
