YELLOW JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 3, 2014

The Blog, "A tradition unlike any other."

Greetings folks!

We are finally back at Cedarville after a long summer of grueling track runs, sprints, cuts, and driven balls. Before we dive into pre-season, there are a couple things worth mentioning that happened this summer. First off, Coach (tiger woods) Faro got married to the newly Shelley (go huskers) Faro. Coach (Big Daddy G) Knight and his lovely wife, Lisa (for the love of Austria) Knight got pregnant! And our very own Ethan (where is my bike?) Lee got engaged to Bethany (great clips) Gustin.

After all the romance was over we snapped back into reality and realized it was time to undergo yet another fitness test known as "the mile" where the freshmen get to learn the meaning of "the legs feed the wolf". This feat was going to take place at midnight on the 15th of August (thanks NCAA). We headed around the track and when the run was completed we were ready to start pre-season.

Our first day of pre-season started off better than most with the unveiling of our brand new locker room thanks to the best carpenter on both sides of the Mississippi, Coach Ben Galbreath, assistant coach of the CU Men's baseball team. We then hit the field with our new practice gear and were ready to train and get back into action. After three training sessions in the span of 10 hours we dragged our new members of the CU soccer team to the freshman party. This year the freshmen had to dress up as females and waltz around all of their classmates and see if any girls had enough pity to pose with them for a picture. Ugliest girl goes to Paul (the apostle) Messerly who scared away all who dared to look at him including "peaches" the stray cat that roams around campus.

The rest of pre-season was filled with many practices where we learned the ins and outs of the 4-3-3, pressure cover defense, and many options on how to get the ball in the back of the net. We also learned the value of protecting the soccer ball at all costs. Coach (protect the baby) Knight explained this concept further as he compared his yet-to-be-born child to a soccer ball, after this analogy we finally understood what he meant.

Even though we all love the grind of pre-season practices, we get the occasional stress reliever with beloved team activities. This pre-season was filled with great fun as our first team activity involved corn-hole, bocce, ping pong, s'mores, and wise words from Jimmy Hoffman. We also had the opportunity to play soccer golf where we found Coach Faro's new calling as he shot a -14. Another highlight involved the CU women's soccer team as we all caravanned over to Washington Courthouse to teach youngsters the fundamentals of soccer.

Pre-season wrapped up with 3 scrimmages. We went 1-2 in our 3 contests as we trampled Wittenberg, but came up short against Mount Vernon and Findlay as we found out the hard way what happens when you don't "protect the baby".

- Protect the baby!

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University men's soccer team hosts the Saint Joseph's College Pumas in the 2014 season opener tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

The Jackets are coming off a 13-3-4 (6-1-1) season last fall and are picked to repeat as champions of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

The Pumas, NCAA II members of the Great Lakes Valley Conference, posted a 2-15-1 record in 2013 including a 1-14 mark in the league.

The Yellow Jackets, under the direction of second-year Head Coach Brett Faro, lost nine graduating seniors from last year's team, but CU still returns a solid nucleus including the top four scorers. Four All-G-MAC First Team selections are back including goalkeeper Ethan Dewhurst, defender Jarrett Kersten, midfielder Zachary Harris, and forward Connor Gilmour.

Connor Gilmour topped the Yellow Jackets last season with 12 goals and four assists for 28 points. The junior forward earned National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) All-America Second Team honors and was a member of the Daktronics NCAA Division II Midwest Region Second Team.

Connor Gilmour

Christian Alexander, a 5-11 junior forward, was 2013's second-leading scorer with six goals and two assists for 14 points.

Zachary Harris, a junior midfielder, added 3 goals and a team-high six assists while sophomore midfielder Joel Twinem notched five goals and an assist in his first year of collegiate action.

Saint Joseph's is led by first-year Head Coach Robbie Stewart who previously served three years as an assistant at Alderson Broaddus.

Shawn Krager, a senior defender, returns as the Pumas top point holder as he dished out three assists in 2013. Sophomore Nick Cossyleon is the only returning player on the roster that scored a goal last season.

Shawn Krager

Tonight's meeting is just the third-ever between the two schools. The Yellow Jackets have captured the two previous meetings - both played in Rensselaer, Indiana - a 2-0 verdict on October 11, 2011 and 1-0 win last October 8.

HEAD COACH BRETT FARO

Brett Faro is in his second season as the head men's soccer coach at Cedarville University. He guided the Yellow Jackets to the Great Midwest Athletic Conference championship and a 13-3-4 record in his first campaign.

Faro was named the program's interim head coach in July, 2013 and later had the interim tag removed in November just before the G-MAC Tournament. He spent the previous two seasons as CU's top assistant coach.

CU has gone 44-13-8 since Faro's arrival including a school-record 17 victories in 2012. The Jackets won the 2011 NCCAA Midwest Region banner and placed third at the national tournament.

Faro came to Cedarville after serving as an assistant coach at the United States Naval Academy during the 2010 campaign. He helped guide the Midshipmen to a 7-5-4 record.

Faro has been involved in multiple levels of soccer in coaching and administration. He coached the U17 Maryland Nike Rush '93 in 2010-11 and helped lead the NCSL Division I squad to three tournament championships.

Faro was team manager of Sky Blue FC of Women's Professional Soccer in 2010. He also coached and trained players in the Hershey Youth Soccer Club in 2007 and 2008.

Faro was a four-year standout during his playing career at perennial NCAA Division III powerhouse Messiah College from 2005-09. He was a member of four national championship teams, was a two-time team captain, and tied the school record for the most games played in a career with 99.

Faro is a 2009 graduate of Messiah with a degree in sports management. He was a Dean's List student at the school and was recognized as an NSCAA Academic All-Region Scholar-Athlete.

Brett and his wife, Shelley, were married on May 31, 2014. They reside in Xenia.

GREAT MIDWEST ATHLETIC CONFERENCE - MEN'S SOCCER

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012, while Cumberland University was added as a Provisional Member in 2013.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, sponsored 17 championships in 2013-14 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
