March 31, 2014

From chasing around Campus Safety, to arm wrestling Dr. White, to holding an impromptu memorial service for road kill in Xenia, our Saturday afternoon was unlike many others. While the crazy Ohio weather didn't allow us to step foot on the field at all this past week, it did give us the opportunity to relax, catch up on school work, lay down a brand new tarp to protect our field from the barrage of rain and snow, and hold the first ever CUSB Photo Scavenger Hunt!

If you were in town Saturday afternoon, you most likely were confused to see swarms of softball players sprinting around Cedarville while stopping intermittently to pose for peculiar pictures. The idea for the game originated from the brilliant mind of Coach Kim, but the creative aspect of it was left to us softball players. We were given a list of activities to try to do in a 60-minute time limit - and the proof would be found in photo evidence we created as the game went along.

For example, photos can now be found of some of us riding on top of a fire truck, crying over a dead deer on the side of the road, chasing down a Campus Safety car, and getting auto-graphs from local firemen on the side of our feet (all in pouring down rain). While my team didn't finish first, we were the only ones to obtain the 500 point checkmark of arm wrestling our University President by pinpointing his location through tweets on Twitter. Thanks to Dr. White for generously allowing us to hurriedly run into his house (while dripping rain and leaving muddy footprints, I'm sure) and pose for a few pictures. The memories we made Saturday will certainly be talked about for many weeks to come, and for the sake of my losing team I hope a rematch occurs soon!

Luckily, our new tarp arrived just in time to help keep our field dry for the plethora of games coming up this week. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate slightly better with our packed game schedule and allow us to finally lace up our cleats and win some softball games this week!

Until next time...Sting it!!!

Last Time Up

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Courtnie Spain and Cecelia DeBartolo fired back-to-back complete games against Ursuline allowing just seven hits total to lead Cedarville to 5-0 and 6-1 Great Midwest Athletic Conference wins this past Monday.

The Lady Jackets hadn't played in nine days because of the weather and Spain stepped right in and tossed a nifty four-hitter in the first game to improve to 6-4. She struck out six and walked three.

CU scored all five of its runs in the fifth inning. Carlyn Hanzel doubled in the first two while Shannon Muldowney and Nikki Eigsti followed with RBI singles. Muldowney scored the fifth run on a throwing error.

Hanzel, Muldowney, Rachel Bull, and Nicole Davis registered two hits apiece. The Lady Jackets totaled 11 as a team.

In the nightcap, DeBartolo checked the Arrows on three hits to up her mark to 6-3. She worked around eight walks by striking out 11 batters and stranding 11 Ursuline runners on base.

Christina Kirkpatrick went 3-for-4 with a run scored for Cedarville, 16-9 overall and 3-3 G-MAC. Muldowney's RBI triple in the fourth broke a 1-1 tie and Carol Anne Rice brought her home with a single.

Kelsey Chapman ripped a two-run double and Jessica Palm chipped in two hits. Hanzel finished 2-for-3 with an RBI triple and two runs scored.
