Foreword

This is the first issue of a yearbook in the name of Cedarville Baptist College and Bible Institute, but it represents two institutions that already have outstanding records of achievement in the educational field: Cedarville College, chartered in 1887, and the Baptist Bible Institute of Cleveland, chartered in 1942.

Although Cedarville College has a Reformed Presbyterian background and the Bible Institute has always operated as an institution approved by the General Association of Regular Baptist Churches, it is astounding to note the oneness of Spirit and purpose which has characterized each school.

As an evidence of its standard, the seal of Cedarville College bears the inscription "pro corona et foedere Christi" (for the crown and covenant of Christ). This is in perfect accord with the doctrine of the Baptist Bible Institute which is definitely premillennial and therefore teaches the second coming of Christ when He shall be crowned and shall reign as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, (Revelation 19:12 "and on His head were many crowns"; Revelation 19:6 "And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS"). This doctrine, as well as the assurance of salvation by grace through faith, is established upon the work of the Lord Jesus Christ whereby He provided a perfect, eternal salvation for every born-again believer through His own precious blood of the New Covenant, (Matthew 26:28 "For this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for many for the remission of sins").

It is now the purpose of the Trustees and Faculty of the Cedarville Baptist College and Bible Institute to continue the good work of both institutions in the spirit and with the purpose set forth in the Scripture text on the Baptist Bible Institute seal, "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God." (Colossians 1:10).

We of the "Miracle" staff pray that this yearbook will show to you that the Cedarville Baptist College and Bible Institute is here for the main purpose of bringing honor and glory to the Lord Jesus Christ.

-- Dedication --

We, the Senior Class of 1954 do dedicate this yearbook to the Reverend John H. Stoll. We do this in sincere appreciation of his many years of service to our class, the school, and most of all to the Lord Jesus Christ. "Professor" Stoll, as he is affectionately known to us, came to B. B. I. of Cleveland in 1951, the same year that our class began. He became our class advisor, and soon we learned that we could depend upon him constantly. Many times when we had class difficulties and personal problems, we could always look to him as our spiritual guide. We also enjoyed the fellowship that we had with him in the classroom around the Word of God. The hours spent there will not soon be forgotten. We feel sure that in the years to come "Professor" Stoll will continue to be a blessing to Cedarville Baptist College and to the students who will attend. Words cannot really express how we feel, but we hope and pray that he will understand in some small way the part he, as a true servant of the Lord, has played in our lives during the last three years.

Dr. James T. Jeremiah
Vice-President

As the acting President of Cedarville Baptist College we want to thank God for sending to us the Rev. James T. Jeremiah. Even with a full time pastorate he took over the executive responsibilities of our school and did an excellent job. We want to express our heartfelt thanks to the Rev. Jeremiah for what he has done for our school. We know that the Lord will richly bless and reward him for his service here just as He has already blessed our school through His servant.

Dean of Students

DR. ARTHUR F. WILLIAMS

Cedarville College passed into the hands of the Trustees of the Baptist Bible Institute of Cleveland less than one year ago; hence it has had a very short history under Baptist administration. We are grateful to God for our campus and for a splendid faculty of consecrated instructors, and as Dean of Students I have had opportunity to know something of the lives of the young people who came here. They are not angels, nor do they claim to be, but I am convinced that a finer student body is not to be found anywhere. What the future holds for Cedarville Baptist College depends largely upon how much our Regular Baptist constituency realizes the need for an institution where its young people may obtain a college education in an atmosphere in which Baptist distinctives are not lost sight of, and the issues of separation from denominational apostasy are not ignored. Such an institution cannot be built upon sentiment; it takes the consecrated dollars of God's people, together with much prayer and planning to produce the kind of a school that Regular Baptist leaders have earnestly desired for many years. It is to this end that the present student-body, faculty members, and trustees unite in an earnest appeal to the churches in our Regular Baptist Fellowship to place Cedarville on their budget and in their daily prayers.

73 The hands have made me and fashioned me; give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.
 74 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.
 75 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that thou art faithful as thy word unto the servant.
 76 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live; for thy law is my delight.
 77 Let the proud be ashamed; for they shall pervert with an evil-entail cause; but I will meditate in thy precepts.
 78 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.
 79 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.
 80 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.
 81 My soul fainteth for thy salvation; but I hope in thy word.
 82 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When will thou comfort me?
 83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.
 84 How many are the days of thy mercy! what wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?
 85 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.
 86 All thy commandments are faithful; they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.
 87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.
 88 Quicken me after thy loving-kindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.
 89 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.
 90 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations; thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.
 91 They continue this day according to these ordinances; for all are thy servants.
 92 Unless thy law had been my delight, I should then have perished in mine affliction.
 93 I will never forget thy precepts; for with them, thou hast quickened me.

 94 I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy precepts.
 95 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me; but I will consider thy testimonies.
 96 I have seen an end of all perfection; but thy commandments are exceeding broad.
 97 O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.
 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies; for they see not with me.
 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers; for thy testimonies are my meditation.
 100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.
 101 I have refused me; but from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.
 102 I have not departed from thy judgments; for thou hast taught me.
 103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey, or any meat!
 104 Through thy precepts I get understanding; therefore I hate every false way.
 105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
 106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy statutes.
 107 I am afflicted very much; quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
 108 Accept, I beseech thee, the strength-offering of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.
 109 My soul is continually in my hand; yet do I not forget thy law.
 110 The wicked have laid a snare for me; yet I erred not from thy precepts.
 111 Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever; for they are the rejoicing of my heart.
 112 I have refused mine heart to perform the statutes above, went unto the end.
 113 I hate vain thoughts; but the law is my love.
 114 Thou art my hiding place, and my shield; I hope in thy word.

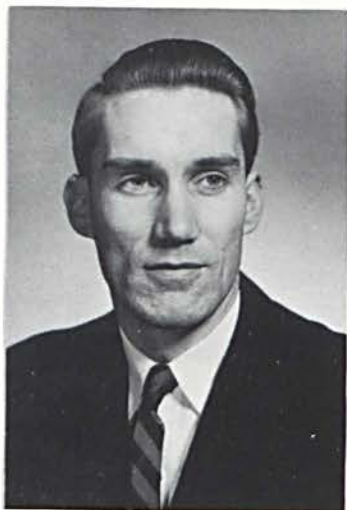

115 Desert from me, ye evil-doers; for I will keep the commandments of my God.
 116 Uphold me according unto the word, that I may live; and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
 117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe; and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.
 118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes; for their deceit is falsehood.
 119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth; like down, therefore I love thy testimonies.
 120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.
 121 I have done judgment and justice; leave me not to mine oppressors.
 122 Be surety for the servant for good; let not the proud oppress me.
 123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.
 124 Deal with the servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.
 125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may keep thy testimonies.
 126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work; for they have made void thy law.
 127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.
 128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.
 129 My soul is continually in my hand; yet do I not forget thy law.
 130 The entrance of thy words, brethren, is as smooth as oil.
 131 I opened my mouth, and opened; for I longed for thy commandments.
 132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.
 133 Order my steps in thy word; and let not my iniquity have dominion over me.
 134 Deliver me from the oppression of man; so will I keep thy precepts.
 135 Make the face to shine upon the servant, and teach me thy statutes.
 136 Rivers of waters run down from eyes, because they keep not thy law.
 137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments.
 138 The testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful.
 139 My soul hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forsaken thy words.
 140 Thy word is very pure; therefore the servant loveth it.
 141 I am small and despised; yet do not I forget thy precepts.
 142 Thy righteousness is as everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.
 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me; yet thy commandments are my delight.
 144 The righteousness of thy testimonies as overflowing, give me understanding, and I shall live.
 145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD; I will keep thy statutes.
 146 I cried unto thee, save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.
 147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.
 148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.
 149 Hear, my voice according unto thy loving-kindness; O LORD, quicken me according to the judgment.
 150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief; they are far from thy law.
 151 Thou art near, O LORD; and all thy commandments are truth.
 152 Concerning the testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.
 153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me; for I do not forget thy law.
 154 Plead my cause, and deliver me; according to thy word.
 155 Salvation is far from the wicked; for they seek not thy statutes.
 156 Great are thy tender mercies,

Music by
Vivian Amsler

Adapted by Norma McQuinn

To wisdom's quiet dwelling place
We come with eager hearts to trace
The silver which we know is there
And hidden wealth beyond compare
We ask that we who have His call
Who know that Jesus paid it all
May own a deeper love for men
For whom Christ died and rose again

Chorus:

Our paths have led to Cedarville
Where we seek to do the Saviour's will
We must impart the living Word
And rescue those who have not heard
Let us who have been amply fed
Provide a dying world with bread
O let us be God's humble tools
That He may use us and our school.

In wisdom's dwelling there is peace,
And joyful anthems find release.
Our hands are privileged to hold
God's perfect jewels, His gleaming gold.
The Saviour's gems are ours to give,
That lost impoverished souls may live.
In wisdom's dwelling jewels abound,
And Christ's unfailing grace is found.

ACTIVITIES

We got a good start for the year in the Bible Conference held on the campus by Dr. Bob Ketcham.

II Timothy 4:1-5

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

"Shh!!! Don't wake up the whole dorm!" These were words spoken in every dorm the day, or should we say, the middle of the night that the Seniors started on their "sneak"? They had many a heart attack before they finally "flew" out of Cedarville on their way to Kentucky. Although they left weary and worn and came back in the same condition, they really had a wonderful time (that is after they finally lost the Juniors) and they were very kind to bring back with them pictures of some of the sights they saw. So you, dear readers, are one of the privileged few who get to see what the Seniors saw on their SENIOR SNEAK!

Evening School Division --- In Cleveland

History

In September 1941, Bible-Believing Baptist pastors discussed and set forth a plan for a Bible Institute for the Cleveland area. By July, 1942 a course of study for the first year was adopted and officers were elected. The school was to be held in the Educational Building of the Hough Avenue Baptist Church. Four years later on June 4, 1946 the first graduation class received their diplomas, having satisfactorily completed required work in the evening school.

A day school was started in 1947 and continued as such until June, 1953 when the school moved to Cedarville, Ohio to establish the Cedarville Baptist College and Bible Institute. In July, 1953 the burning of the Hough Avenue Baptist Church caused the evening school to be moved to its present location in the Brookside Baptist Church, 3420 Henninger Road, Cleveland, Ohio.
