Chronicles from the Cage: "Home Stretch"

Well, we made it through a very full week of softball! Although, it left some of us hanging by pins and needles (Logan) and others barely making it through the week with full health (half the team). This week was packed with a lot of softball and a little bit of everything. We played in weather that ranged from sunny and 70's to hurricane-like winds and 30's. We experienced some great wins and at the same time some good losses during our 10-game home stretch.

Speaking of home stretch, we are almost in the last month of school and of our regular season. As home becomes close enough to taste, it is still necessary to keep the present in our focus. There are a lot of opportunities in this last month or so to bring glory to God with everything that he has given us - our school work, our talents on the field, our attitude. Every aspect of our lives, the good and the bad, is an opportunity for us to be conformed into the image of Jesus Christ. So during our home stretch here at our second home, we pray that we would be "strengthened with all power according to his glorious might so that [we] may have great endurance and patience, and giving joyful thanks to the Father" because we have been qualified to share of Christ's inheritance and because of all of the blessings the King has bestowed upon us (Colossians 1:11-12).

One of these blessings is the family that we have in our team. For those like me whose family is far away, it is a blessing to have a team as a family. Family is what makes Cedarville a second home, and there is no place like this home. I am glad to be able to call each of these ladies my sisters, and some of the best teammates I've ever had. It is this family that gets each other through long weeks like these and is there to go through it all together. It is this family that goes crazy in celebration when another succeeds, like when freshman Angela Stephano breaks up a no-hitter. It is this family that holds each other up throughout the season and throughout life. As we make our way towards the home stretch, I am thankful for this family that I am blessed with.

Until Next Time,

STING IT!

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Trevecca completed a four-game Great Midwest Athletic Conference sweep with two more shutouts against the host Lady Jackets.

The three-time defending G-MAC champs won by scores of 3-0 and 4-0 in chilly playing conditions featuring wind gusts over 40 mph.

Cedarville scraped together four singles in the first game off the bats of Nicole Davis, Carlyn Hanzel, Avery Humes, and Brianne O'Dell.

Starting pitcher Morgan Arbogast allowed three earned runs on eight hits. She struck out three.

Davis recorded the only Lady Jacket hit in the second game. The Trojans broke open a tight game with three runs in the 7th inning.

Cedarville drops to 14-22 overall and 5-7 G-MAC.
