Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

September 29, 2015

What does it mean to be "in the green"? Coach Teresa Clark spoke to our team about this topic on Saturday morning before playing Trevecca. Being in the green means you are able to move forward towards your goal. All systems are go and you're feeling pretty unstoppable. The sad thing is that we are human, therefore being in the green all the time isn't possible. Sometimes we fall into the yellow, or even the red state. Something Krissy Pratt occasionally says as a motivator in huddles is, "We are SIX strong." I love this statement, because all six players on the court are typically divided up in the green, yellow, and red zones. Each one of us has the ability to pick others up when we are in the green and to be picked up when in the yellow/red. Although on Tuesday night against Southern Indiana, we were truly six strong. We were all in the green, playing at a high level, and we accomplished something incredible. What was incredible about Tuesday night was not necessarily the win, but the way we won. As a team we trusted each other, we acknowledged great actions, and we surely glorified the Lord. It was a huge win for us and for Christ. We performed to our full potential and He was gracious enough to let us have that match.

The next day we were hyped. Everyone was telling us that they loved watching and complimenting us on our play. I let it soak in for a while. Volleyball had become fun to me once again and reflecting on how God got me there was pretty cool. Then it was time to focus on our next game. We practiced hard and then I went to work on a project with a friend, only to get a call from my mom. She had received her biopsy results and it turns out that she has breast cancer. I was shocked, because in my mind that wasn't a possibility. God had just helped me overcome my struggle with volleyball, and now this? I thought I was going to be able to relax for just a little while before my next emotional battle. However, that's not what God has in mind. His plan is perfect and I have to trust that. Isaiah 40:29 says, "He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak."

These things are never easy to rationalize or to handle emotionally. This is where the volleyball team comes in. The girls and coaches came alongside me to help me get through the day, the practice, and ultimately the games this past weekend. I'm offered, in my opinion, the best support system in the world. We won both games this weekend against KWC and Trevecca, both big conference wins. The team is in great shape, both in a volleyball sense and a sense of togetherness. I am so proud of my teammates and proud to be a part of this tightly-knit unit. It is a privilege to know each and every one of them. We always appreciate prayer in every part of our lives, especially school as we are nearing the middle of the semester. Thanks for reading and I hope you all have a wonderful week!

Head Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history.

The Lady Jackets have posted 157 victories during Walters' seven-year tenure. The list of honors includes the 2008 NCCAA championship as well as three consecutive Great Midwest Athletic Conference crowns in 2012, 2013, and 2014.

During the school's first active season in NCAA Division II in 2012, his squad rolled to a 32-6 overall mark and was a perfect 8-0 in the G-MAC. Cedarville went on to win the inaugural G-MAC Tournament and Walters was ultimately voted the league's Coach of the Year.

The Jackets, who finished 23-14 overall in 2013, repeated the feat after sharing the league's best regular season record at 12-2. They went on the road to claim their second straight G-MAC Tournament trophy.

Then, in 2014, CU made it a three-peat after rolling through the league schedule with a 10-1 regular season mark. The Jackets hosted the G-MAC Tournament as the #1 seed and locked down their third straight title to finish 20-13.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets in 2008 was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall that season and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Despite going 15-23 overall in 2009, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. The Jackets were 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Cedarville finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters was founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003, was a Junior Olympic organization, and was recognized as one of the top regional clubs in the Cincinnati area.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is a National Team Coach for the Elevation Volleyball Club based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He is also the chair of the NCAA Division II Women's Volleyball Midwest Regional Advisory Committee and serves on the Division II Women's Volleyball National Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Morrow, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 13.
