Kathy Jakucki's Latest Weekly Blog

January 31, 2012

Guten tag! My oh my what a week it has been. I thought about continuing the sentence after the greeting in German, but then I remembered something - I don't know German. Anyway, I feel like it has been a long week for us. Earlier last week we faced Central State. Later in the week we played Urbana and had alumni here for the weekend.

We played at Central State on Tuesday. It was fun to play there. They had quite the band and DJ. We heard all sorts of scratching of disks from the DJ and saw all sorts of fans and band members dancing. I personally was hoping to see Coach get down and bust a move, but I think we were all better off with him not doing that. We played well against Central State. It felt like a long time since we played a game and we were ready to get on the floor. Shout out to little "Gordita" (Deb Gordon) who had a career-high 21 points! The final score was 78-66.

This past weekend was Alumni Weekend and it was great to spend time with former players. For their game they were split up by "oldies" and "youngin's." Frankly, when the game started I didn't have much hope for the oldies (a-hem Flunker) because the youngin's (Stacie!) were off to a great start. I think it just took the old folk a few more minutes to get warmed up. They caught up quick and it was a close game. The youngin's won with two points in the last minute. We had time together with the alumni afterward to socialize and eat lunch together. Thanks to all the alumni! I speak on behalf of the team - we had a great time :)

Later that day we faced Urbana at home. I'm still a bit frustrated about this game so I really don't see myself writing much about it. So, short, sweet, and to the point - we really lacked defensively most of the game. We came out strong in the first few minutes but after that it was a struggle for us. Urbana did play very hard and we lacked in the intensity we needed. We had a loss with the final score being 79-76.

We also had a birthday this week. Happy birthday to Stacie! I think she's like 32 now - errr something like that. I thought I would take some time (more specifically just this paragraph) and share with you some of the things we love about our little Squirty. I think the team LOVES when we get up early to lift. It might be the way our feet drag or how our eyes droop when we get into the weight room that we often feel the most love for Stacie. On a different, and much less sarcastic note, I know that I and others on the team really are uplifted by her encouraging and positive attitude. We love having her as a coach. Another factor that I personally enjoy about Stacie is the fact that she has given me the nickname of "grams." The reason being that I have been out most of last week due to hypertension (but I'm good now!). Squirt, in her loving and encouraging spirit, shared with me how that seems more like an old person problem.

Consequently, she dubbed me "grams."

This week we face Salem International on Wednesday and we play at Notre Dame on Saturday. I think after the loss this weekend we are working harder and are more focused.

Time for me to peace out,

Grams

Last Time Out

Cedarville raced to an early advantage over Urbana and then was simply outplayed the rest of the way as the Blue Knights pulled off a 79-76 result in front of 1,450 Alumni Weekend fans on Saturday night.

The Lady Jackets could not have asked for a better start. They reeled off 11 straight points for a 13-2 bulge just five minutes after tip-off.

Urbana regained its composure to lead 36-35 by the intermission. The visitors never trailed again.

It was a 52-42 difference with 13:45 left. Cedarville crawled back to within two points twice in the final three minutes. The Jackets had the final possession but missed a highly contested three-pointer that would have forced overtime.

Kara Cayton scored 18 of her 20 points in the second half by drilling 5-of-6 three-pointers. Raegan Ryan came off the bench with 14 points for Cedarville, 11-7 overall.

Deborah Chandler chipped in 12 points while Kayla Jenerette had 11 points with five assists.

Urbana improved to 7-11.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season and built the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country. His teams have averaged 27 wins per season during his tenure.

Martin's team made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. CU knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks before losing to unbeaten Davenport to finish the season 24-10.

The Jackets won the school's fifth American Midwest Conference championship in 2009-10 and finished 27-6 overall and 17-2 AMC. The Jackets were ranked No. 5 in the final NAIA Division II poll and ultimately advanced to the second round of the national tournament.

It was the second straight NAIA appearance for the CU women. They also earned an automatic berth in 2009 by finishing second in the demanding AMC.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Martin guided CU to five straight NAIA Division II national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets sport a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and two second round showings.

Martin's club owned the American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2003 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Cedarville was rated No. 5 in the final 2006-07 NAIA Division II national poll en route to a 27-7 record. They held down the No. 1 position in 2005-06 which was the second straight year that the Lady Jackets accomplished the feat. They rolled to a 29-4 record overall which included a 19-game winning streak.

The Lady Jackets nearly met their ultimate goal of a national title in 2004-05 while posting a 35-2 record. Other highlights that season included an NAIA No. 1 ranking for the final six weeks of the season, a 22-game winning streak, and a second straight 18-0 run through the AMC South Division.

Martin's 2003-04 ball club produced a memorable campaign while being ranked as high as No. 2 in NAIA Division II. Among the team's many achievements were setting a school record for the most wins in a season with a 35-3 record, rolling to a perfect 18-0 league mark, and assembling a school-record 23-game winning streak.

Cedarville had a 31-3 overall record in the 2002-03 season, posted a 21-game winning streak, claimed the AMC South Division with a 17-1 mark, and won the inaugural AMC championship game. The Jackets were ranked as high as No. 3 in the country and qualified for the NAIA Division II national tournament for the first time in school history where the team advanced to the second round.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish 4th in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25. Cedarville qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three married children: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Enon, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, along with their two children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, resides in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their son; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, lives in Dayton with his wife, Rachel.

Grand Valley State's Haas elected DII Presidents Council vice chair

Grand Valley State President Thomas J. Haas was elected vice chair of the Division II Presidents Council during the Council's January meeting.

He replaces West Texas A&M President Pat O'Brien, who became Council chair at the conclusion of the Convention. Among other duties, the vice chair of the Presidents Council chairs the Division II Planning and Finance Committee.

During the past 29 years, Haas has been a tenured faculty member, department chair, dean, vice president and president.

Before his Grand Valley State appointment in 2006, Haas was president of the State University of New York at Cobleskill. In addition to his presidential duties, Haas also is professor of chemistry.

Haas is an internationally recognized expert in hazardous-material transportation, strategic planning and higher education leadership. He has published numerous articles in various journals.

He is active in the community, serving on the board for Grand Rapids Medical Education and Research Center, Grand Rapids Economic Club, Grand Rapids Chamber of Commerce and Grand Rapids Opera. He is a member of the Grand Rapids Rotary Club, consultant and evaluator for North Central Association Higher Learning Commission, and a commissioner for the American Council of Education Commission on Effective Leadership. He also is current chair of the Michigan Public Universities Presidents Council.

Haas is a 1973 honors graduate of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. He has master's degrees in chemistry and environmental health sciences from the University of Michigan and another in human resources management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He also holds a Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Connecticut.

Fellowship experiences in higher education include Yale University Faculty Fellow and an American Council on Education Fellow at Western Michigan University.
