HOMECOMING REPORT

Consensus seems to validate this one as the greatest Homecoming ever... Alumni banquet, about 200 in attendance, an ultra, supra, hypra buffet, the Victors trio, slides, prophecies, wills, awards to the oldest, most parental, and farthest from home alumni, Class of 1964 $1000 gift to library fund, Dr. Jim Entner...stellar observations with Mr. Frye...pep rally bonfire featuring Queen Ellen Snook, soccer team, and woodpile award...alumni breakfast with testimonies, etc.,...the spectacular Homecoming parade watched by thousands...seniors grand slam float competition...Cedarville defeats Wilmington in cross-country...during noon ox roast 2 of 3 parachutists land dramatically on soccer field...alumni business meeting with about 80 present...soccer team whitewashes Kenyon 2-0...fantastic variety program, music, tumbling, wrestling, humor, etc,...NO RAIN...who could ask for anything more!

SPORTS SHORTS

Mr. Monroe's cross-country squad has 1st place finishes in a dual meet with Wilmington and a triple meet with Defiance and Ohio Northern. They finished 3rd in a quadruple meet.

Coach Olsen's soccer team has a 3-4-1 record to date. Victims include Indiana Tech, Kenyon, and Berea. Victors include the University of Dayton, Ohio Wesleyan, Earlham, and Dennison. The Cedarville-Wilmington game ended as a tie.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETING REPORT

Approximately 80 alumni were present for the alumni meeting in Room 201 of the student center. (This was the best-attended meeting in Cedarville alumni history.)

Ralph Yarnell Jr., the new college director of alumni relations explained his position with the college and his relationship to alumni activities. He concluded, "We want to perform more services for our alumni than ever before."

James R. Johnson, alumni secretary, elaborated the transitions necessary in the organization since the appointment of a full-time director and the adoption of the class-agent system.

Treasurer Stuart Chaffe reported a balance of $445.40 which will be transferred through the college business office. Mr. Bill Riter and Sue Geyser were appointed auditors. All financial records will be kept by the college business office staff.

Homecoming float judges were recognized for their work. They were Jim Neely, Virginia Cox, Norma Nulph and alternates Pat Bryant, Sue Geyser, and Stuart Chaffe. The alternates will be the 1967 judges. New alternates selected were Jody Ronk, Julie Griffin, and Jim Hamilton.

A motion was passed to make officer nominations with a majority vote to be conducted by mail.
