ALUMNI OVERCOME JUNIOR VARSITY

The 1967 edition of the Alumni-JV basketball game turned out to be a 100-84 rout for the old-timers. Actually, the early vintage model players trailed until the latter stages when they outscored their understudies 37-19. By this time, the better JV'ers had departed for varsity duty.

Dozier "Colossus" Carter ('66) paced the alumni with a stellar 22-point second half and finished the contest with 29 tallies. Other double-figure point-producers were Gary Walthall (NG) - 14, Gerald Stadt ('65) - 10, Norris Smith ('63) - 14, and Lane Moody ('58) - 15. Rounding out repeating history were Dr. Jim Entner ('61), Bud Davis ('66), Dr. Dale Thomson ('56), Dennis McDonald (NG), and Michael Nicholls ('66).

Special features of the game included a two-handed "dunk" shot by Bud Davis and the brotherly play of Jim and Paul Entner. Young Paul displaying phenomenal motivation led the JV's with 26 statistics. Jim is the second of four Cedarville Entners while Paul is the last. Dennis was the first of three Cedarville College McDonalds. Varsity star Bruce and Dave McDonald are presently being processed. The alumni squad was coached by Dave Thorne ('65).

THE MODERN TONGUES MOVEMENT

Dr. Robert Gromacki, Chairman of the Division of Biblical Education, has received notification that his first book, The Modern Tongues Movement, will be published in late April by the Presbyterian and Reformed Publishing Company of Philadelphia.

Dr. Gromacki, a 33-year old father of two, is in his 7th year of teaching at Cedarville College. He received his Th. B. from Baptist Bible Seminary in 1956, his Th. M. from Dallas Theological Seminary in 1960, and his Th. D. from Grace Theological Seminary in 1966.

The Evangelical Book Club has selected Rev. Gromacki's book as a bonus or dividend book for its club members. This assures purchase of a minimum of 4,000 copies of the first printing.

Dr. Gromacki's book will be the first cloth-bound one to be published by a Cedarville College faculty member and will be a great asset to the libraries of ministers and laymen. The book will contain about 170 pages and will retail for $4.50. It will have a subject index, an extensive bibliography, and chapters on the following subject areas:

- (1) A historical survey of speaking in tongues
- (2) the nature of the modern tongues movement
- (3) the language of speaking in tongues
- (4) tongues in the gospel of Mark
- (5) tongues in the book of Acts
- (6) tongues in the epistle of I. Corinthians

Cedarville College ALUMNI may obtain The Modern Tongues Movement in two ways. 1 - A contribution of $10 may be made to the Cedarville College Book Club. Specify your request for Dr. Gromacki's book lest another be sent to you. 2 - Alumni may join in the pre-publication offer which will be presented to the student body. This special rate has a 40% discount. ($2.70 + $ .30 for postage and handling = $3.00) Orders and checks should be sent to the Cedarville College Bookstore by April 10th. The books will be mailed out when available.
