Men's Basketball Weekly Blog

February 21, 2017

This past week for Cedarville men's basketball was a solid week, and one where we grew closer to the team we want to be by the time the G-MAC Tournament begins. We had our Nashville trip last week, which is the best in-conference trip we take. Nashville is a fun city to visit, but our trip was still a business trip and we had one stop before Nashville. We played our first game against Kentucky Wesleyan who is the 13th-ranked team in the nation. They are a good team, and we knew it would be a battle going into the game. We played them well, but ended up coming up short in the end. It also did not help that Patrick suffered an injury early in the game. He was not able to finish the game or play in the next game, so we would appreciate it if you could keep him in your prayers.

Our next game was in Nashville against Trevecca. Nashville is also a fun city to visit, and Coach Estep took us to one of the best BBQ restaurants in the area. We went to Martin's BBQ and the food was amazing. Everybody enjoyed the restaurant, and were ready to play the next day. Our game went well the next day, and we had some great performances by two of our players. J.C. Faubion had another magnificent performance that we have grown accustomed to. He scored 26 points to go with eight rebounds, and also played some great defense. The second player who played well against Trevecca and Kentucky Wesleyan was Evan Kraatz. Evan is one of our hardest workers on the team, so it was nice to see him play the way he did. He brought it on both ends of the floor, and was a big reason we won our game. It can be difficult to be a back-up point guard at times, but Evan has adopted the role and plays that role better than anybody in the country.

The upcoming week for the team is the final regular season week of games. Which means we have Senior Night. The seniors have done a great amount for this program, so I know it would mean a lot to them if you came out and supported them. Our first game of the week is home against Kentucky State on Thursday (Start time 7:45 p.m.). Our second game, which is Senior Night, is a home game on Saturday against Ohio Valley (Start time is 6:15 p.m.).
