CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

ALUMNI NEWS

July, 1967

Carol Reiner Memorial Fund

The Class of 1959 has initiated a memorial fund for the alumni association in honor of their departed classmate and friend, Mrs. Carol Johnson Reiner. The fund will be presented to Cedarville College as a memorial for Mrs. Reiner.

Precise designation of gifts has not as yet been determined. The fund will exist until the beginning of the fall quarter in October. All donations from alumni will be credited toward respective classes in AAG#2. Gifts should be marked "CRMF" and sent to the college in care of the alumni director in order to facilitate bookkeeping.

Alumni Directory #2

Early this fall, the second edition of the Cedarville College Alumni Directory will be published and distributed to all alumni. The booklet will contain a new format including (1) an alphabetical listing of all known alumni since 1887 with available data such as address, maiden name, class status, etc., and (2) a geographical listing of all known alumni by state of residence with class status.

Each alumna and alumnus should make sure the following personally-pertinent data is sent to the alumni director and arrives at the college by August 1, 1967: (1) current address; (2) married name and/or maiden name ( if married female). Only the data in possession of the college can be published. THE COLLEGE CANNOT BE RESPONSIBLE FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING ALUMNI WHICH IS UNAVAILABLE OR NOT UP TO DATE. Make sure you are included and included accurately and completely in the 1967-8 alumni directory. Please do not assume the alumni director knows the latest concerning you. Return the enclosed form at once. Thanks!

Alumni Records

Recently, Dr. Clifford Johnson, academic dean, stated in a report concerning progress toward accreditation that there is a "Continued need for alumni follow-up study." The college needs to know what happened to you after you graduated. Will you please help Cedarville College achieve accreditation by supplying the data mentioned on the enclosed form? This information will assist the college in many ways. Please send your form in today, and many thanks?

New Alumni Office Location

Room 21 on the second floor at the southwest corner of the administration building is no longer a classroom. This room has become the joint office of alumni relations and estate planning. A secretary has been employed to assist the alumni director and the development officer.

This move has put behind schedule coordination of alumni affairs, correspondence, planning, etc. Routine is expected to be achieved once again in the near future.

All alumni are cordially invited to stop in for a visit whenever they are in the Cedarville area.

Homecoming

Homecoming 1967 will be held Friday and Saturday, October 13th and 14th. Plan now to attend. More details will be forthcoming in the next newsletter, bulletin, and a special homecoming brochure.

AAG '67 BEGINS!!

The steady growth of Cedarville has meant a steady increase in need. It was therefore necessary that we look for new ways in which to meet those needs. The Annual Alumni Giving Campaign is one way for the alumni to show their approval of the school and their devotion to its progress. AAG '67 was a great success netting over $2,500 for the school. Let's pray that we can do even more this year.

CASH

In this year's AAG Campaign, every dollar that is given after Nov. 1 will mean another 10 cents will be given in the name of the Class of '66. Let's make this certain individual work!!

STANDING

The Class of '66 now stands in fourth place with $424 and 6.7% of the class participating. The average gift size is $53. Somebody is goofing off.

HOME COMING

All who were in attendance at our 67 Homecoming were greatly surprised at the progress the school has made since our graduation. This year more than any other in the school's history, the students were faced with more new facilities than ever before.

The library shows what the Lord can do. In just five years of acquaintance with Cedarville we have seen tremendous victories over unsurmountable difficulties. It really looks like the Lord is interested in Cedarville.

ALUMNI MEETING

The fall meeting of the Alumni Association was held on Saturday of Homecoming with not as many in attendance as we really needed. A constitution was presented by our officers and discussed at some length. Some revisions were decided upon, however, it looks like the Alumni Association is going to become a more solid backer of the school. Other possible dates for the Homecoming Banquet were discussed, however, no agreement was reached.

QUESTIONNAIRE

Please fill out and return the enclosed questionnaire as soon as possible, we would like to know how things are on your side of the fence.
