Hey there Yellow Jacket fans! Rachel Krikke here coming to you from the injured reserve list! I found out last Tuesday that I had been playing with a sizeable tear in my abdomen over the weekend in Florida. Ouch! Although, I think God is using this injury to give me a new perspective on volleyball so I'm just going with the flow! Prayers for healing would definitely be appreciated!

Watching from the sidelines has been different, but there are definitely advantages to it at times. It allows you to objectively view the dynamic on the court without all the adrenaline rushing through you. So, I began my watching on Tuesday night at the game at Southern Indiana. After a long bus ride, it was hard to really get going and get into the game. My girls played hard, but couldn't pull off the win. Definitely a tough loss for us, but what else is there to do but to keep doing our best?

Coach surprised us with a day off on Thursday, and it was so nice to be able to relax! Most of the team ended up going out to dinner together and doing a little shopping at The Greene. We always enjoy getting to spend time together outside the realm of volleyball, especially when it involves good food!

Friday we got back to it with a game against Salem International. The team did a great job of playing to our level and making a statement with a win in three sets! Saturday we did the same against a much-improved Ohio Valley team, also in three sets. Now, with those under our belt, we are just that much more prepared for the week that lies ahead! I, personally, am the most excited about Senior Night on Friday!

God bless you this week!

Rachel Krikke is a sophomore at Cedarville University from North Royalton, Ohio and is a Dean's List student majoring in business.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 137 victories during Walters' six-year tenure. The list of honors includes the 2008 NCCAA championship as well as back-to-back Great Midwest Athletic Conference crowns in 2012 and 2013.

During the school's first active season in NCAA Division II in 2012, his squad rolled to a 32-6 overall mark and was a perfect 8-0 in the G-MAC. Cedarville went on to win the inaugural G-MAC Tournament and Walters was ultimately voted the league's Coach of the Year.

The Jackets, who finished 23-14 overall in 2013, repeated the feat after sharing the league's best regular season record at 12-2. They went on the road to claim their second straight G-MAC Tournament trophy.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets in 2008 was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall that season and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

CU was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. The Jackets were 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Cedarville finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is a National Team Coach for the Elevation Volleyball Club based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Morrow, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 12.
