Dedicated to you . . .

To you, the students of Cedarville College, is dedicated the 1964 MIRACLE. Your lives are reflected on these pages. With diversified backgrounds, you come from twenty-four states, and three countries. Yet, you find warmth and friendship everywhere as you are caught up by the contagion of the unity in Christ Jesus.

Day-by-day experiences disperse the crowd found at basketball games and chapel. Each becomes an individual with his own friends, his own classes, his own life to live. Nevertheless, where these many individual paths merge, there can only result a 'miracle.'

President's Message

Cedarville College is a family of Christian young people directed by Christian teachers. As we study together it is with the goal of Christian service in view. Leaving the halls of learning, our graduates will enter many areas of opportunities in education, business, science, the ministry, and the mission field. It is our prayer that wherever God calls them into whatever sphere of service, they will remember "that in all things He (must) have the preeminence." (Col. 1:15)

Administrative bridge

To be elected to the Student Council, the bridge between the student body and the administration, is a great honor. As a representative assembly it assists in providing a well-rounded extra-curricular activities program, in inspiring loyalty to the school and its principles and in recommending action to be taken in various school matters.

Among other activities, the Council sponsors the student body project, the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits, and Prospective Student Days.

We salute the group for its interest in MIRACLE demonstrated by granting a scholarship to the editor.

I have type AB positive.

BIBLICAL EDUCATION

A firm foundation is the basis of practical Christianity upon which every believer must build each facet of his life and his knowledge. No avenue of human knowledge exists but that it has light shed upon it by God's Word. This practical application by the believer is the goal of the Bible department as its instructors set forth the best record, commentary, and explanation of history—God's dealings with mankind, and what he demands of man today.

Dr. William's chart illustrates God's plan for the ages.

"It's egraphe, Mr. Lawlor."

Mr. Gromaki: "And Judah fell in 606."

"The fourth question, Mr. McIntosh."

Preparing for the ministry

Since a course in pastoral theology is not included in the school curriculum, Future Pastors Fellowship seeks to cover some basic questions and problems ordinarily discussed in this course. During the year the organization has had a number of guest speakers lecturing on practical matters such as filing sermon material and conducting baptisms, funerals, weddings and other special services.

FWM starts the day with prayer

The universal request of missionaries is, "Please pray for us." Each morning a dedicated group of Cedarville students unites in earnest prayer for our missionaries and their needs. Besides this continual ministry of prayer, Fellowship for World Missions cooperates with Grace Baptist Church in sponsoring the annual missionary conference.

Miss Mackay: "Files are a necessity."

The principles of Christ, the Master Teacher, become the foundation of the teacher-learning process. Christian Education in Action offers the student in this department practical experience for his life work. For the club, the highlight of the year was the Christian Education Roundup in March. All the workshops were taught by the students themselves and attended by pastors and church workers from the area. The long range project of CEIA is the organization and filing of materials in the lab room remodeled by the members.

Mr. Bartholomew: "Milton must've been a Republican, too. Right?"

Mr. Spencer: "I can't believe it! Did you get that from the book."

LANGUAGES AND LITERATURE

Thoughts into words for communication is the essence of this department. Here the student grows through exposure to the light of great ideas from peoples of all time. These ideas, taken from ancient and modern records, assist him as he grows more adept in communicating with the world around him. His world may someday include those of another language and culture. Therefore, the study of a foreign tongue adds to the growth of the educated individual.

Mr. Bergen: "Language and culture are inseparable."

A political column is the latest feature added to the Whispering Cedars, the periodical student publication of Cedarville College. A project of the Advanced Writing class, this paper projects thought-provoking editorials, announcements of coming events, student opinion polls, sports write-ups, and articles on faculty and student activities.

Every meeting means work to those on the annual staff. There are always pictures to be taken, layouts drawn up, headlines written and copy typed before the next deadline. What a sense of relief when the last page is sent in. Though the work is hard and hours are long, it is all worthwhile when this year's reflection of Cedarville College, the 1964 Miracle is in your hands.

The voice of Cedarville

WCDR-FM—the voice of Cedarville College—exists as another avenue of training for young people in communicating truth more effectively. The station was established in December of 1962 with the hard work of Paul Gathany and David Jeremiah under the direction of Mr. John Reed. WCDR is seeing much improvement—the result of better programming and the use of professional broadcasting equipment. The programs transmitted from the Cedarville tower range from "Moonlight Meditations" and Music of the Masters" to "Following the Yellow Jackets."

Mr. Reed: "Isn't it great to be alive?"

Sock 'n' Buskin calling all actors

"In Case of Murder," the fall mystery-comedy production, delighted students, faculty, and visitors alike. This light and refreshing play was sponsored by Sock 'n' Buskin in cooperation with the speech department. The club is organized to teach the basic skills of acting and the subjects relative to state production.

Mrs. Maddox: "The affirmative has the burden of proof."

Going places in debate

Under the direction of Mrs. Maddox, the Cedarville College debate team participated in its third year of intercollegiate competition. The team has exposed itself to competition from such schools as Wittenberg College, Capitol University, and Ohio State University, and has successfully met the demand for quick thinking and good sportsmanship.

SCIENCE

Dr. Brumbaugh: "My personal black stripped chick."

Mr. Elmore has an enthusiastic audience.

Dissect a frog. Combine  $\rm H_2SO_4$  and NaOH. Explain the refraction of light rays through water. Find the sine and cosine of angle A. These are typical instructions heard by students in the science department. Through the study of biology, chemistry, physical science, and mathematics the student is able to receive a glimpse of the Creator through the splendor and perfection of His created world.

"Was it a heart attack, Mr. Thomson?"

Mr. Wetzel: "Newton never had it so good."

Mr. Frye: "And in the East, the evening star."

The yearbook staff is indebted to members of the Photo Club for taking most of the activity shots for the annual. This project, among others, gives the Photo Club an opportunity to practice the mechanics and esthetics of photography demonstrated in their bi-monthly meetings.

Pi Delta correlate science and Scripture

Controversial issues, such as the Day-Age and Solar Day theories of creation, are the subjects for investigation by members of this organization. Their aim is to seek, through discussion, special speakers, and group investigation, the reconciliation of scientific and Scriptural truth.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

Mr. McDonald: "We must understand the folkways and norms of all people."

Mr. Gale explains the handwriting of God in history.

Man through the ages is the field of study for those in the department of Social Science. The study runs the gamut of history, geography, sociology, and political science. These, integrated, aid the student in seeing God's plan ruling the centuries and the harmony which exists between secular knowledge and Bible truth.

Newly organized as an independent outlet of this department is the Cedarville Conservatives. Its purpose is to keep students informed in affairs of government—world, national, and local—and to persuade them to a conservative point of view. Outside speakers, a fifteenminute radio broadcast weekly, and bulletin board displays on current events are some of its means to this end.

History and politics in action

Standing: S. Brown, M. Ziegler, R. McDugle, Secretary; D. Entner, Treasurer; P. Reno, President; J. Stowell, Vice-President; J. Roden. Sitting: R. Clader, I. Milliken, Mr. St. Clair, Advisor; J. Petrie.

Mr. St. Clair emphasizes economy and thrift.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The fastest growing department at Cedarville, that of business, offers a Christian emphasis to those entering this secular field. A prospective business student may major in accounting, general business, secretarial science, and business administration. Practical courses such as principles of accounting and typewriting are also beneficial to those not majoring in business.

Mrs. Webber: "Let's not sacrifice accuracy for speed."

Mr. Wyse launches out into a new chapter.

Interested business students have united to form Future Business Associates, the newest club on campus. The organization, meeting monthly, is designed to give the student a broader view of the business world in action and his possible place in it.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Callan looks on with satisfaction

The ancient philosophers have said: "A sound mind in a sound body."

Physical fitness is vital to the total well-being of the individual. The Physical Education Department seeks to achieve this goal as well as that of teaching the fundamentals of organized play, the basics of camping and recreation, and the principles of personal and community health. This field of study is of special value in reaching youth in and outside of our churches.

Mr. Moody: Every muscle is important.

A nucleus of Yellow Jackets' fans

Behind every successful athletic team is a group of enthusiastic fans to encourage them when the going is tough. Working with the cheerleaders, the Pep Club has been a factor in cheering the team on to victory.

VC backs athletics

The Varsity C Club is an organization composed of our college athletes who have won varsity letters. Among other things, V.C. is responsible for setting up the church tournaments, producing the programs for home basketball games, and selling refreshments during half-time.

The first practical outlet for women in the Physical Education Department is the new Women's Recreation Association. This club, one of the largest on campus, meets bi-monthly for such activities as bowling and swimming. Besides providing recreation for its member, W.R.A. sets up the intramural program for all sportsminded women.

W.R.A. members enjoy a pajama party.

PSYCHOLOGY AND EDUCATION

Cedarville College has taken another step toward the fulfillment of a vision as evidenced by adding Education to the Department of Psychology. Beginning in the fall of 1964, courses leading to a teaching certificate from the State of Ohio will be offered. The ground has been broken with teacher certification and we are ready to begin building.

Mr. Dowell seeks to motivate his psychology students.

Dr. Maddox and Dr. Johnson work together on the education program.

Freshmen learn test results from Dr. Maddox.

FINE ARTS

Mr. Russell: "Now as I see this, you need to make it darker here to give that 1% extra."

The Fine Arts Department seeks to give the individual a deeper appreciation for the beautiful in music and art. New this year is the combination of these two areas into one course — Appreciation of Art and Music.

Church, campus and community receive benefit from this department through its various outlets — art exhibits, choral groups and the band.

Professor Russell and Professor Thornton correlate the fine arts.

First Row: V. Merryman, E. Dudley, C. Wenner, I. Millikan, E. Dudley, F. Haas, P. Adams. Second Row: W. Banks, M. DeLaReintrie, S. Goodman, R. Johnson, M. Averitt, G. Griffin, R. Clater, R. ## New instruments give a fuller tone

The 42 - member Cedarville College Band has had an increase in activity this past year. The band marched for the first time in the Homecoming parade. Badly needed instruments were purchased last fall and a candy sale began the drive to raise money for uniforms.

The band was probably best known for its lively playing at home games during basketball season. In March the instrumentalists gave an outstanding Annual Spring Concert which included numbers from the flute and trumpet trios as well as group pieces.

Mr. Thornton: "One, Two, Three."

First Row: G. Griffin, F. Haas, Mr. Webber, Advisor; P. Irish, S. Bird, Vice-President; P. Adams, President; N. Smith, Treasurer; H. Wing, Secretary. Second Row: V. Curcio, B. Griffith, R. Werner, Miss Smith, Advisor; D. Jensen, G. Taylor, Mr. Thornton, V. Roloff.

Mr. Webber schedules music groups.

Tri-M recognizes excelling music students

The Modern Music Masters is an honor music organization for the purpose of nationally recognizing college students with outstanding musical ability. The Tri-M members are selected for leadership, scholarship, cooperation, service, and character—a well-rounded criterion.

Miss Smith instructs an outstanding pupil.

Choralaires add color to any program

Our secular singing group, the Choralaires is now in its third year at Cedarville College. Miss Smith's direction keeps the ever-popular organization in demand by both the student body and outside groups with such songs as "Tumbling Tumbleweed" and "Fifty Nifty United States."

Westward

The College Choir, an integral part of Cedarville College, is under the capable direction of Mr. Knudsen. This year it traveled as far West as Omaha, Nebraska, through Iowa, Indiana, and Illinois on its annual spring tour.

Mr. Knudsen: "Let's put some real life into it."

Literary societies supplement academics The three literary societies on campus have as their purpose the development of the individual along the lines of literary, musical, artistic and social tastes.

Alpha Chi, the only men's literary organization, had a busy year under its new advisor, Mr. Spencer. Among other activities, the group sponsored the Thanksgiving Banquet, the first formal banquet of the year, and a program by guest singer Frank Boggs, a bass from Word Records.

"A gracious woman retaineth honor" is the society verse chosen by Kappa Delta Chi. Selling beautiful yellow mums at homecoming has become one of the group's traditions along with the coat check at basketball games as a moneymaking project. The organization's many activities included a picnic, a slumber party, an interior decorating demonstration, and attendance at a play and musical production.

Gamma Chi-Women for Christ-traditionally sponsors the Valentine Banquet which was held this year on February 29th, leap year day, with the theme, "A Nite in the Hills." The annual buffet dinner at the home of Mrs. Maddox, a shopping trip in Columbus, useful demonstrations on cake decorating and ceramics, and a breakfast at the Springfield Pancake House were a few of its activities.

Daily Inspiration

Every morning students can be seen going into Alford Auditorium for the 10 o'clock chapel hour. After an organ prelude there falls a hush with the playing of "Sweet Hour of Prayer." Every Monday the American and Christian flags are saluted and the school song is sung. Following a hymn and special music, the speaker presents a challenge from God's Word. The speakers have been missionaries, pastors, or laymen serving the Lord in a unique way. The students are more aware of the work of Christian service groups through their chapel presentations. Outstanding of these were the Springfield jail work, the detention home work and the Fellowship for World Missions organization. After the singing of a hymn the students go out while the organ plays softly.

Sounding forth His praises

Musical students have the opportunity to serve the school and the Lord through small music groups. These groups not only find an avenue of service by singing and playing at our chapel services, but also in near and more remote churches.

The Word is made practicable in the fall . . .

God's messenger for our Fall Evangelistic meetings during the week of September 23-27 was Rev. Donald Winters from Columbus, Ohio. Through this former pastor and evangelist, the Spirit of God challenged our hearts anew to a greater love and service for our Savior.

... and spring Bible lectures

"God cannot work through us or for us until He works in us," was Rev. Warren Wiresbe's key statement in his chapel hour series. Rev. Wiersbe, pastor of a large church in Covington, Kentucky, and nationally known as a youth Bible Conference speaker was used of God here also as he offered us practical methods for applying Bible truths to our daily lives.

. . . informal discussion

This year Fellowship for World Missions in cooperation with Grace Baptist Church sponsored the Fifth Annual Missionary Conference. The chorus "Go and tell the Message" was a good reflection of the urgency with which the call was sent out to all who were willing and led to go. Three of the missionaries, Rev. Dan Bishop, serving in Japan; Dr. Charles Rhodes, M.D., under appointment to the Central African Republic; and Rev. Vernon Webber working in the Dominican Republic, serve under Mid-Missions. Rev. Arthur Christmann, under the Association for World Evangelism ministers as an evangelist to the people of Brazil. The work of establishing new churches in the United States was presented by Rev. Kenneth Muck, General Director of the Fellowship of Baptists for Home Missions.

Encouragement from Coach Moody

Soccer became a reality at Cedarville this year. Because many members had high school experience in the game, the team played well the entire year. The highlights of the season were the homecoming game and the Bowling Green victory. Since this year's team was comprised mostly of freshmen and sophomores, Coach Moody is expecting great things in the future.

District championship becomes a reality

The Cedarville College Yellow Jackets, under the direction of Coach Callan, had their best season in the history of the school, finishing 19-6. Because of the fine record, the Jackets were invited to be finalists in the N.A.I.A. District No. 22 playoffs, vying with three other teams for National tournament representation. The victories over Findlay and the strong Steubenville team brought the players the trophy and the opportunity for National competition at Kansas City.

Outstanding player of the year was "big" Dozier Carter who averaged 23 points and 16.5 rebounds per game.

1962-1963 Baseball Champs

The 1963 ballteam became the first team in the history of the school to win a title in the M.O.L., taking the championship with a 7-1 record. For the season the team was 16-2, finishing 3d in the nation in fielding, 8th in hitting, and 10th in pitching for small colleges. Pitchers Charlie Wilkins and Norris Smith led the team with the hitting support of such starters as Tom Delanzo, Al Merwald, and Denny McDonald.

Six returning starters lead the team

In comparison with last year's team it would appear that the squad failed to continue in the winning ways of last year. The team, however, learned to suffer defeat and yet win through a strong Christian testimony on and off the field. With a record of 4-9, the ball team claimed victories over Wilmington (2), Malone, and Central State. Also Cedarville placed two of its members on the All Mid-Ohio League first team. They were Charlie Wilkins and Tom Delanzo.

This year's track squad was the best team yet assembled in the school's history. But once again depth proved to be the deciding factor in more than one meet.

Outstanding accomplishments of the year included Bill Francis' setting the school record in the pole vault at 12' 6" and Bud Davis' breaking his own record in the high jump several times. He broke it the final time in the N.A.I.A. sectionals jumping 6' 6" to qualify for the National Track Meet.

Although showing much individual improvement, the golf team had a winless season in regular competition. However, the team was able to place seventh out of eighteen in the NAIA District #22 match. This was the fourth year for the college golf team and the fellows played very well in this, their longest season.

Ending the season with a 1:3 record, the netters tied for third place in the conference. Except for Don Entner, number one man, and Bob Auffort, four-year letterman, the team this year was composed of new men on the intercollegiate court.

The girls intercollegiate basketball team had a successful season with a 6-2 record. Co-captains Bette Adamson and Maryalyce Jeremiah were the two high scorers and Bette was voted most valuable player.

New this year was an intercollegiate girls volleyball team. Owing to lack of experience, the players finished the season with a 1-5 record, but hopes are high for the coming year.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood, And sorry I could not travel both And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair, And having perhaps the better claim, Because it was grassy and wanted wear; Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same, And both that morning equally lay In leaves no step had trodden black. Oh, I kept the first for another day! Yet knowing how way leads on to way, I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh Somewhere ages and ages hence: Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference.
