Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

February 8, 2016

Hey y'all! Wait... y'all? Sorry, I think I've been in the south too long! This week started with two focused practices on Monday and Tuesday, we knew we had a big week ahead. Then Wednesday, after a long bus ride down to our hotel in Kentucky, we got right back on the bus to go to practice to prepare for Thursday's game. Thankfully, the coaches knew it had been a long day and that we'd be hungry, so after practice they took us to the Moonlite BBQ Inn, a great restaurant with a glorious buffet.

After we had eaten our fill, and then some, we went back to the hotel for worship lead by Justice and a devotional time lead by the men's chaplain, Dr. Scott Dixon. This lesson included stories of Dr. Dixon's basketball career, his attempts to impress girls, and how both of those things went wrong. But on a more serious note, he taught us how we are born desiring attention, and that God's attention is enough for us. It was a good message for us to hear with a game coming up that would be streamed on national television. We are fortunate at Cedarville to be able to come together as two teams to worship and learn about God, but also to use the sport we love to glorify Him.

After devotionals we had a block of time to just hang out or do some homework. Homework on the road is sometimes a struggle, especially after a long, tiring day - just ask Jamie about her experience. She provided some hilarious entertainment for a few of us seniors who are a little more used to having to do homework during road trips.

Then came Thursday... After tying the record for three-pointers made in a game just a few days before, we came out shooting 2-for-30 from beyond the arc. You just can't win a basketball game shooting that poorly. Unfortunately Kentucky Wesleyan handed us our first G-MAC loss, but I think it focused us a little more for the games we have left in conference.

Despite how we felt the night before, the sun came up Friday morning, so we woke up and got back on the bus to head for Nashville, TN. We went straight to the gym for practice, where the coaches gave us a few challenges to get better and play like we know we can. After practice, we had another walk-through in a room downstairs which was adjoined to a classroom where some Trevecca students were taking a test. After Coach Martin was told to quiet down by one of the students, we headed upstairs to watch some film and wait for the men to finish practicing.

Later that night, we were able to spend a little time in downtown Nashville. We went to The Old Spaghetti Factory for dinner, which was absolutely delicious, and then walked around for a few hours. As a senior, it's pretty cool to think about all the places that a little orange ball has allowed me to travel. If it weren't for basketball, I would have never been to Nashville, or Anchorage, or Panama, or a lot of other sweet places throughout my four years of college.

Saturday was a big day for us. A game on national TV right after a big loss just two days before, everyone was wondering how we would respond. After 20 minutes of just trying to get comfortable in a hostile environment, the coaches challenged us at halftime to get focused and get the job done. Fortunately, we responded. We slowly chipped away at Trevecca's lead and then built a lead of our own, and after four huge free throws by KJ, we came out with the win. I learned a lot about my teammates that game and their desire to win. It sure is fun to go to battle with those girls. I also learned how big of an impact students can have on a game. The Trevecca student section had learned every one of our names, they cheered and heckled constantly, and made that gym a really fun place to play. And honestly, it looked like they were having quite a bit of fun themselves.

Students, I hear it all the time, "there's nothing fun to do in Cedarville." If you are looking for something really fun, come to our next three home games (February 11th, 13th, and 20th) and cheer on your Lady Jackets. If a bunch of students in a city like Nashville can take time to fill a gym at 1:00 on a Saturday afternoon, a bunch of students in Cedarville can too! Let's try to fill up Callan like the student body used to!

Before I sign out, I have to give a shout out to our cheerleaders who came all the way to Nashville to support us! That was awesome! Not only were they there, but they definitely out-did Trevecca's cheerleaders and the two guys in the student section who were trying their hand at some stunts! Thanks so much for supporting us! You guys are the best!

As always, a quote from Kid President:
"What will you create to make the world awesome? Nothing if you keep sitting there. That's why I'm talking to you today. This is your time, this is my time. It's our time, if we can make every-day better for each other, if we're all on the same team let's start acting like it."

Last Time Out • 2/6/16

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Cedarville turned to its defense to hold off Trevecca, 61-55, in a nationally televised G-MAC game on the American Sports Network.

The Lady Jackets improved to 17-6 overall and 8-1 G-MAC with their 10th win in the last 11 outings. They hold a one-game lead over Ursuline with five to play.

A high-scoring first quarter morphed into a defensive squabble the rest of the way.

Cedarville trailed 38-31 at halftime and faced a nine-point deficit early in the third quarter against a team they had beaten by 34 back on Jan. 2.

The Lady Jackets eventually owned the final 20 minutes. They outscored the Trojans 30-17 and held them to 4-for-24 shooting for 17 percent.

CU made just seven field goals in the second half - five from beyond the three-point line. Kaitlyn Holm's basket broke a 50-50 tie with 5:30 left to give the visitors the lead for good.

Kayla Linkous converted four free throws in the final 23 seconds to ice the outcome.

Abby Wolford totaled 14 points with four steals while Kaysie Brittenham chipped in 12 points. Both players drained four three-pointers apiece.

Numbers Game:

- Brittenham has scored in double figures in seven straight games and upped her career point total to 867.
- Breanne Watterworth and Emily Williams each grabbed a game-high nine rebounds.
- Watterworth equaled her season-high with three blocked shots.
- CU has outrebounded its last 11 consecutive opponents and is +10.6 per game on the boards for the season.

Looking Ahead

The Lady Jackets host the Ohio Valley University Fighting Scots in a G-MAC contest this Saturday, Feb. 13 at 2 p.m. in the annual "Pink Night" promotion.

CU completes their three-game homestand with an important G-MAC tangle with Ursuline on Saturday, Feb. 20 at 5:30 p.m. It is Senior Night, Alumni and Li'l Sibs Weekend.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(February 1-7, 2016)

Brigian Wymer

Ursuline • Freshman • Delta, OH

GREENWOOD, Ind. - Ursuline freshman guard Brigian Wymer was named the 12th Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

The Arrows came out of a busy week on the road winning both conference contests, the first against Trevecca Nazarene and the next a few days later against Kentucky Wesleyan.

Wymer led the team in scoring for both contests as Ursuline improved to 18-3 on the season and moved into second in the league standings. She averaged 24 points, six rebounds, four assists and three steals, per game.

In a 42-point margin of victory against Trevecca Nazarene, Wymer came out blazing from the field going 13-for-18 and sinking four three-pointers. She finished with 30 points in 27 minutes and had five rebounds, five assists and four steals, to fill up the box score.

The Arrows' success continued as they went on to beat the Panthers with Wymer still leading the pack. She contributed 18 points, seven rebounds and three assists.

As her impressive freshman year continues, Wymer is averaging 14.4 points per game and 3.9 rebounds per contest. She has started 12 of 20 games.

In the G-MAC, she is ranked fourth in scoring, sixth in free throw percentage (.782), 11th in steals (1.7), sixth in three-point field goal percentage (.364) and seventh in field goal percentage (.470).

The Arrows are gearing up for two important home games this week as they play Ohio Valley in their Kay Yow Breast Cancer Awareness game this Thursday and Salem International as the Arrows honor their seniors on Saturday.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Columbus, Ohio.

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
