THEY DID IT!

This is not a victory announcement by one of our athletic teams, though we fully expect that such headlines shall be made this year. When we say "They Did It," we mean the bonds which you purchased built this new dormitory.

Many friends of Cedarville have invested money in our Building Program. In this way, they have greatly aided the growth of the College.

At the present time, we have $37,450 worth of the Series A bonds which must be sold. In view of the good response to date, we have reason to believe that this series will be sold very soon.

In the near future, another series of bonds will be issued in order to care for more dormitory construction. Bond indebtedness upon the College is cared for by the room rent paid by the students. The entire college property stands as security for those who invest their money in this manner.

Your bonds are a two-fold investment. First of all, you have a five per cent return each year, and then you have a lifetime investment in the young people who come to Cedarville College for a Christian education.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

The prospects for a good basketball season are the best ever. Coach Callan is putting the team through hard practice sessions, and the fellows are enthused about the possibilities of many victories this year. It is our desire that the team shall honor the Lord as they play. It is the daily prayer of the coach and team they do just this.

We are presenting the 1960-61 Schedule so that you may support our team at home and away.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Four new members have been added to our faculty for the coming year. Also, Bruce Turnbull, head of the Science Department, has returned after a year's leave of absence at Western Reserve University, where he has completed his residence requirements for the Ph.D. in Chemistry.

Thornton, Callan, Turnbull, McIntosh, Gromacki

William Thornton, Dayton, Ohio, will teach in the Music Department. He has a B.A. degree from the University of Dayton, and his Master's degree from Ohio State University. He is the third full time teacher in music.

Rev. Robert Gromacki, Erie, Pennsylvania, will teach in the Bible Department. Mr. Gromacki has a Th. B. degree from the Baptist Bible Seminary, Johnson City, New York, and a Th. M. degree from Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, Texas.

Rev. Richard McIntosh, former pastor of the Northside Baptist Church in Lima, Ohio, is the new Dean of Students. He has a B. A. degree from Bryan University, Dayton, Tennessee, and a B. D. degree from Grace Theological Seminary, Winona Lake, Indiana.

Donald Callan, who has a B. S. degree from Taylor University, Upton, Indiana, and a M. S. degree from Ball State College, Muncie, Indiana, will be the basketball coach and teach Physical Education.

We welcome these Christian teachers to our staff. Like the rest of our faculty, they are here because they feel this is a place of service for Christ.

MATCHING GIFT PLAN

As a means of helping private schools in the United States, many companies have instituted a Matching Gift Program. This means, generally, that company will match dollar for dollar, any donation which an employee gives to an educational institution.

The trustees of the college voted to place into the Endowment Fund, any money received from the Matching Gift Plan. It is suggested that you check with the company where you are employed, to see if it has such a plan to aid private colleges. The personnel manager of the company can undoubtedly give you the needed information. It will be a great help to us if you inform us whether or not your employer follows this procedure. We will present the results of this survey in our next bulletin, if we may have your cooperation.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE . . .

Cedarville College is THE ANSWER to the question, "Where can a student live in an invigorating Christian atmosphere?" Cedarville is a liberal arts college chartered in 1887 to confer the B.A. degree. It offers majors in Bible, English, history, languages, music, science, and social studies. Its competent, Bible-loving, and Spirit-led faculty, plus a consecrated and vital student body, stimulates the faith and energizes the thinking of the young Christian.
