CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

ALUMNI NEWS

November, 1968

Dear Cedarville College Alumni Association Member,

Cedarville College is fulfilling its commitment and purpose to provide young people the finest academic education possible consistent with high spiritual standards. This letter will lay the introductory ground work for what is planned to be the most successful campaign of our Cedarville College Alumni Association to date. Our plans will, through the experience of the last two years, provide motivation for the most phenomenal participation in progress that our association has known. This will only be possible by the blessings of Almighty God and by the vision, sacrifice, and persistence of a multitude of prayerful Christian alumni members.

Annual Alumni Giving III is officially launched this month and has already equaled our fine attainment of AAG II. You will recall our very first effort in AAG I was successful ($2800). AAG II was even greater ($7300). AAG III, now officially announced, will far surpass our first two programs with your concentrated effort.

You may wish to become a Loyalty Shareholder ($100-$499), a Dedication Shareholder ($500-$999), or a Leadership Shareholder ($1000-up). All gifts are appreciated by alma mater. The goal for AAG III is $12,000. We can do it since we'll try!!!

Remember all alumni classes since 1953 are competing for glory in financial assistance. So be quick to respond when your class agent contacts you in the next four months.

Gifts may be designated for any phase of need such as: Book Club, Library, Student Aid, Science Building, Athletic Fund, etc. All undesignated gifts will become assets of the General Fund.

May I thank you sincerely for doing your part in AAG III to top our goal and help Cedarville College continue its vital ministry.

Sincerely in Christ,

Ty Bryant

DR. ARTHUR F. WILLIAMS

The following letter in response to the 1968 Honorary Alumni Award is printed by Dr. Arthur F. Williams' request. It is addressed to the alumni director.

. . . "I am greatly surprised, but naturally very much pleased, that I should have been chosen as an honorary alumnus of Cedarville College.

I deeply appreciate this distinction, and shall display the plaque which you sent me in a conspicuous place in our home. The decals are already affixed to the windshield and rear window of my car. And I shall wear the ring when I receive it with a sense of pride in having been selected for such honor.

I will greatly appreciate it if you will convey this expression of my gratitude to the members of the Alumni Association.

It will constantly be my desire to faithfully support the College which it was my privilege to serve for fourteen years, and in doing so to bring honor and glory to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Please inform me of any way in which I can be of service. . ."

CCAA CONSTITUTION

In the near future, Cedarville College alumni and associate alumni will have another opportunity to vote. Several significant amendments to the Cedarville College Alumni Association constitution were recommended and adopted at the annual homecoming business meeting, Saturday, October 19, 1968.

CLASS AGENTS

Data concerning AAG III class progress to date is being processed. Tally sheets will be mailed as statistics become available. Class agents will want to refresh themselves concerning procedures after a summer of vacation from class agency. Any who no longer have a Class Agent Handbook should contact the alumni director.

ALUMNI QUESTIONNAIRES

Approximately 40% of the 1030 questionnaires mailed to alumni and associate alumni have arrived in the Alumni Office. A similar portion of the companionate form have reached the Academic Dean.

Please complete the questionnaires and follow the directions in returning them to campus. Alumni response is greatly appreciated as these questionnaires are vital to the self-study progress of Cedarville College toward regional accreditation. MANY THANKS!
