Lady Jacket Soccer Blog

October 24, 2011

You will be happy to know we survived last week's bus trip with the boys' soccer team to Malone. In fact, it was almost enjoyable. Both of our teams had the opportunity to see each other play, which was a rarity for us this season with our overlapping schedules. We even broke out the crossword puzzles for the last part of the trip home, and with help from puzzle gurus like Ryan, Steve, Stephen, and of course Myles, we almost completed one (still can't figure out the eight-letter word for 'shifts the party in high gear.') There was also a touching dramatic reading by Eric Hooper over the charter bus microphone, in which he expressed the painful truth: "Sometimes it lasts in love, but sometimes it hurts instead."

The Malone game itself was a rough one. Having our last two games on turf, it took us awhile to get adjusted to their uneven, muddy playing field. Both teams were physical, but the amount of fouls called seemed a bit excessive. We lit up the scoreboard first when Emily "Put me at forward, Coach!" Niedermayer volleyed in a sweet cross by Arianna "Scotcharoos" Pepper to score her first goal of the season, which was quite impressive for a central defender. It wasn't much later, however, that a questionable foul called in our box gave Malone a penalty kick to tie up the game. Since we like overtimes so much, the rest of the regulation time remained scoreless. It wasn't until the first fifteen seconds of the second overtime that Amanda "Brucie" Bunton tightened up the laces of her pink cleats and hammered a shot in Malone's net to win us the game.

Our following practices before Saturday's game were full of energy and high spirits. It is obvious that we have grown so much closer as friends and sisters in Christ just in these last couple of weeks. Enduring long bus trips, tough practices, great wins, and disappointing losses, we are more of a family now than we've ever been. It has been so encouraging to come to practice and be uplifted instead of stressed out, and I'm so thankful for that.

Speaking of emotion, Saturday's game was full of it. From a red card received by Ursuline's coach to physical tackles that should only be tolerated in a Cedarville rugby match, it was one of the most interesting games I've ever played on our home turf. Unfortunately, it ended sourly as Ursuline sneaked one in within the last six minutes of the game, winning 1-0. Our heads were hanging low when the buzzer sounded because we knew we had dominated possession against this 10-2 team the entire time. However, possession doesn't win games. Hitting the side post doesn't win games. And in this case, hard work doesn't always win games.

I think it's safe to say we are disappointed with our record. To tell an outsider we are 5-7-2 is tough, but I've realized that being embarrassed just proves that our pride is hurt. We have to suck it up and keep marching on. Our season isn't over yet, and we are not striving to impress the outsiders anyway. We still have a chance to turn the season around, and even if we don't, it will still be one of the most enjoyable seasons I've experienced at Cedarville.

Tuesday marks the last guaranteed home game for us as we take on Urbana at 7:00 pm. It is also Senior Night, so there is no better time to cheer us on!

See you on the field!

Kelsey Watkins is a senior forward from Parkersburg, WV majoring in graphic design.

Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Urbana University Blue Knights tonight at Yellow Jacket Field on Senior Night.

The Lady Jackets enter the game with a record of 5-7-2 after dropping a 1-0 decision to visiting Ursuline on Saturday afternoon.

Urbana, an NCAA II independent program, brings a 4-9-1 record into the match including a 2-1 win over visiting Ashland on Sunday afternoon.

Sophomore Deanne Bradshaw leads the Lady Jacket offense with four goals and two assists for 10 points.

Junior forward Amanda Bunton has registered four goals for eight points while senior forward Rachel Brownfield adds two tallies and two assists for a total of six points.

Freshman forward Kristie Wolff has posted a pair of goals for four points while senior Kelsey Watkins has a goal and two assists for four points. Junior defender Arianna Pepper has moved up the scoring charts also with a goal and two assists.

Freshman keeper Keri Sachtleben has returned to action after missing several matches due to injury. She has allowed nine goals in seven games while making 18 saves. Classmate Christine Faulds stepped in with capable back-up action and registered two shutouts with a 1.15 gaa.

Urbana's lineup has only posted nine goals in 14 contests this fall. Sophomore midfielder Brittany Mazzu has a team-best seven points with three goals and an assist.

Rookie Ashley Pfahl has posted a pair of goals for four points while senior forward Brooke Shultz leads the way with three assists.

Junior goalie Meghan Taucher has started 13 matches for UU with a 1.80 gaa including 123 saves.

The Blue Knight defense has allowed 26 goals in 14 contests while three of the squad's four wins in 2011 have been via shutout.

Urbana leads the all-time series between the schools by a narrow 5-4-1 margin but Cedarville holds a commanding 27-13 edge in goals scored. UU won last year's meeting by a 1-0 final - scoring on their first of just two shots on goal during the match played Oct. 12 in Urbana, Ohio.
