Christina Kirkpatrick's Softball Blog

April 21, 2014

The Lady Jacket softball players have all had a hectic past few days: after sweeping Ursuline on Thursday, many of us got to return home Friday morning to enjoy a couple days with our families (most for the first time all semester!) before reporting back to Cedarville Sunday night in preparation for our trip to West Virginia bright and early Monday.

This coming week brings even more craziness; after our six-hour trip Monday, we will play our final four regular season games at home on Friday and Saturday. This weekend will be special for another reason, though: it's a chance to honor our senior, Kelsey Chapman. From the short time I've known Kelsey, I've been overwhelmed by her leadership on and off the field. She's truly taken this young team under her wing and guided us to a year of success. Being a freshman, I haven't had the opportunity to be around Kelsey as much as some of the older girls have, so I passed the baton to junior Cecelia DeBartolo this week to talk about how much playing with Kelsey the past three years has meant to her.

"On Saturday afternoon we will be celebrating Kelsey Chapman's last home softball game here at Cedarville University. Whether she is catching, pitching, or playing first base (or any other position on the field), Kelsey is one of the BEST softball players I have ever had the privilege to play with. However, to me she is an even better friend and sister-in-Christ. Off the field, Kels is the girl on the team that brings hot soup to you when you are sick and surprises you with company when you are lonely. On the field, she is the girl who can catch wild pitches like a boss behind the plate and then go out and finish that very game ON THE MOUND.

There are so many memories that Kelsey has brought to our lives in these past years. When I first met Kelsey I was playing against her in the fall recruit game here at Cedarville. I was on third base and she picked me off the bag by a mile! That was the (humiliating) moment I realized that she DID NOT mess around back there behind that plate and Kelsey STILL remembers it and brings it up every now and again (three years later). Whether she is baking a delicious team feast or inspiring us with motivational speeches during a game, she is our "team mom" and an amazing team leader. She has challenged myself and many other girls to glorify the Lord in the way we live our lives on and off the field, whether it be through words or her own actions.

Kelsey, keep shining the light of Christ! We love you and know that the Lord has amazing plans for you, Jordan, and Champ. Thank you for the way you have believed in me all of these years and inspired me as well as this whole team!

Love,
Cece"

Until next time...Sting it!!!

Today's Games

The Cedarville University softball team hosts the Kentucky Wesleyan College Panthers in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference doubleheader today at Lady Jacket Field.

Cedarville enters action today with a record of 26-11 (11-5 G-MAC) having won 13 of their last 15 games. CU split a league doubleheader at Davis & Elkins this past Monday.

Kentucky Wesleyan is 20-16 (11-5 G-MAC) including action last Saturday - defeating visiting Trevecca Nazarene 2-1 in game one then dropping the nightcap 4-1 to the Trojans.

Cedarville's Kelsey Chapman, a senior catcher, moves to the top of the team hitting charts with a .400 mark. She has team-highs in hits (48), home runs (4), total bases (78) and slugging pct. (.650). Chapman is 5-2 in the circle with a 1.43 earned run average. She is CU's all-time leader in doubles (49), home runs (16) and RBI's (144).

Kelsey Chapman

Rookie Christina Kirkpatrick is CU's second-leading hitter with a .395 average, a second-best 15 stolen bases and 17 base on balls. Kirkpatrick has 30 hits including a double, triple and homer.

Nicole Davis, the G-MAC's Offensive Player of the Week, is third in the batting stats with a .393 average. The junior outfielder/thirdbaseman leads the Lady Jackets with 48 hits, 41 runs, 12 doubles, six triples and 78 total bases.

Carlyn Hanzel is CU's fourth-leading hitter with a .370 batting average and a third-best 28 RBI's. The sophomore outfielder also ranks third in total bases with 62 and slugging percentage with a .488 mark.

Junior Rachel Bull, is tied for second all-time in stolen bases with 90, has a team-high 28 swipes in 31 attempts this season.

Junior hurler Courtnie Spain has a 10-5 record and a staff-best 1.36 ERA and 107 K's in 92 2/3 innings of action. Classmate Cecelia DeBartolo is 11-3 on the year with a 3.43 earned run average.

Kaci Ovelgoenner, a sophomore catcher, is the leading run producer for Kentucky Wesleyan with 10 doubles, six HR's and 30 runs batted in.

Kaci Ovelgoenner

Kelsey Miller is the top hitter for the squad with a .407 batting average including team highs in hits (46), triples (4), runs (27) and stolen bases (10).

The pitching staff is led by junior Josalyn Ress with a 10-7 record, 13 complete games and 72 strikeouts in 103 2/3 innings.

The two teams split a doubleheader earlier this season on March 22 in Owensboro. The Panthers took the opener 10-3 and Cedarville captured game 2 by an 11-2 verdict in six innings.

Last Time Up

ELKINS, W.Va. - Davis & Elkins scored three runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to spoil multiple Cedarville rallies for an 8-7 win and a split of a Great Midwest Athletic Conference doubleheader on Saturday afternoon, April 19. The Jackets took the opener, 7-0.

In the second game, CU battled from behind twice and then took the lead in the eighth before the Senators ruined it all. The Lady Jackets, 26-11 overall and 11-5 G-MAC, had a six-game winning streak snapped.

Cedarville entered the sixth inning trailing 3-1 and scored twice to tie it. However, D&E added two runs to regain a 5-3 margin heading to the seventh where Nicole Davis delivered a two-out, two-run double to knot the score again.

In the eighth, Carlyn Hanzel led off with a home run and Jessica Palm singled in a run for a 7-5 lead. In the bottom half, the first three Senators reached base and there was only one out when D&E completed a comeback of its own for the win.

Davis finished with two doubles and four RBI's. Christina Kirkpatrick went 3-for-4 and scored twice while Carlyn Hanzel was 2-for-4 with two RBI's. Defensively, the Jackets matched their season high with six errors.

Courtnie Spain fired a two-hitter and struck out eight in the first game for her fifth shutout. Kelsey Chapman hammered a three-run homer which was her fourth of the year and 16th of her career. She totaled four RBI's in the contest and Hanzel added two hits.
