Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

February 15, 2016

The week after a long road trip is always jam-packed with homework and exams to make up. So for the first couple days of the week, you could find a majority of your Lady Jackets in the classroom or at some sort of desk somewhere just trying to get back into the swing of things. Thankfully, we have a lot of really understanding professors who care more about whether we win or lose than the fact that we missed their class! Even though we didn't have practice on Monday, it was still a busy week for a lot of us!

Tuesday and Wednesday we were back at it, working hard for our two conference games coming up! The coaches, as usual, worked us hard and prepared us well all week, so by the time Thursday came around, we were ready to go! And by we, I mean everyone on the team other than me! For those of you who noticed that I was missing, it was because I had to travel back to Wisconsin for a Medical School Interview. For those of you who didn't notice I was missing, I totally understand, I mean my teammates really took care of business and won handily against Salem International!

Friday was the actual interview day for me, so again I missed out on practice and everything my teammates were up to that day. Sorry I don't have any fun updates on Friday, but it sounded like it was a day full of preparation for Saturday and fine-tuning a few things.

Just want to send a thank you to all of you who were praying for me and a HUGE thank you to my coaches and teammates who care enough about me and my future that they let me miss a game!

Then came Saturday, our annual Pink Game (KJ's favorite game of the year). We got to pull out our beautiful pink jerseys, but unfortunately we all don't get to wear our usual numbers. While we were shooting before the game, to make sure that he got the book right and to avoid a technical, Coach went around and was asking all of us what our numbers were in our pink jerseys. So he asked Buckley, she said 20. He asked Kaitlyn, she said 22. He asked KJ, she said 23, and so on... Then he got to Abby, our point guard, the one person on the team who Coach claims should know what he means more than anyone else. So he asked her for her number, and she rattled off her phone number, and was serious! Everyone in the gym stopped what they were doing and died laughing, it was hysterical!

On a more serious note, because it was our Pink Game, Abby chose her honorary coach to be her sister Sarah, who is a breast cancer survivor. Through Abby's stories of her sister's fight with cancer, Sarah has been a testimony to our team on how to handle adversity. She continually trusted God's goodness and sovereignty and has shown Abby, as well as our whole team, what it looks like to have unshakeable faith. Sarah is now 1-0 against cancer and 1-0 as an honorary coach! We did get the W against Ohio Valley, and now have a full week to prepare for Ursuline.

This Saturday, February 20th, is Alumni Weekend, Senior Night, and a Celebration for Coach Martin as this is his last regular season home game as well! We are looking forward to such a special night, and at the same time realize the weight of the game before us. Ursuline is a great team with a lot of offensive weapons, and it is really important for us to get a win. We need the gym to be packed.

I'm kind of biased, but I think there's a great group of seniors being recognized, and we'd really appreciate to play our last regular season home game in front of the biggest crowd we've seen in our four years. The game starts at 5:30 p.m.! I hear the first 520 students to the game get a FREE Chick-fil-A sandwich after our game, so use #520by520 to spread the word on social media, and tell all your friends!

In the words of Kid President, "together we're louder."

"I did not select Bodie because he was with me on the bench at Southeastern HS for all of my years there. Nor did I pick him because he was the brains of the operation. I chose Bodie because outside of my wife, Vicki, he is my best friend. He is loyal, caring, giving of himself, and he loved my kids like his own while they went through Southeastern. We also both helped each other as to what it meant to be a follower of Christ. For 24 years I told my 8th grade students, " You don't need a bunch of friends. Just be fortunate if you have one friend to really count on!" I consider myself very fortunate!"

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Kayla Linkous scored 17 points as G-MAC leader Cedarville downed Ohio Valley, 62-48, in the annual Play4Kay 'Pink Night' Game in the Callan Athletic Center.

The Lady Jackets improved to 19-6 overall and 10-1 G-MAC. The outcome sets up a showdown with Ursuline on Saturday with the top spot in the league on the line.

Against OVU, it took nearly four minutes for either side to score. Once Cedarville netted the first six points, the home team never trailed.

The Jackets shot 56 percent in the second half to build the lead to as much as 60-39 in the fourth quarter.

Linkous made 8-of-9 shots from the field en route to her 17 points. She added four rebounds, two assists, a steal, and a blocked shot.

Christina McQueen came off the bench with 11 points. Breanne Waterworth hauled in a game-high 10 rebounds.

Kayla Linkous

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Athlete of the Week

(February 8-14, 2016)

Laney Lewis

Ursuline • Sophomore • Lynchburg, OH

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Ursuline redshirt sophomore forward Laney Lewis was named the 13th Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

This is Lewis' first G-MAC Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week selection. As a team, Camryn Hill, Brigan Wymer and now Lewis have represented the Arrows for weekly league honors this year.

Over the course of the past week, she averaged a double-double for both games with 18 points per game and 17.5 rebounds.

Her efforts helped lead Ursuline to a 2-0 week in the conference to take down Ohio Valley and Salem International.

She is the G-MAC's current leader in rebounding (11.0 rpg) and ranks seventh in scoring (12.8 ppg).

Versus Ohio Valley, Lewis finished 7-of-13 from the field and a perfect 5-for-5 from the free throw line for 19 points. She had a career-high 19 boards -- eight offensive and 11 defensive rebounds -- resulting in the double-double.

She also stole the ball three times, dished out two assists and had two blocks.

Lewis once again dominated the floor against SIU as she achieved another double-double with 17 points and 16 rebounds in 29 minutes. She contributed five assists, a steal and a block.

Lewis has started all 22 games for the Arrows.

In the G-MAC, Lewis also leads the league in blocks (2.0 bpg), is sixth in assists (3.5 apg), and is top 12 in steals (1.4 spg).

The Arrows look forward to a big conference game this week at Cedarville where the regular-season title and hosting responsibilities for the conference tournament could be decided.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
