Jaden Cleland's Baseball Blog

April 12, 2016

Well, we aren't undefeated in April anymore, but we had a couple strong outings against our arch-nemesis Alderson Broaddus this past weekend. But that's enough about baseball.

Marc Russell, a.k.a. Marc The Shark (With a "c" apparently), got an interesting new pair of sliding shorts this week. The sliding shorts, comparable to Blake's squirrel shorts from last week, depict a shockingly realistic image of a Great White Shark across the front. I found this was notable and important to share with you.

In other news, our team did an exceptional job at "trapping the field" according to Coach G. Freshman pitcher Jordan Raiston weighed in that the field "shouldn't have escaped in the first place", but that he was glad it had been "trapped". (For those of you are a little lost, this is a joke about a typo in the team group chat.)

Now that you're all back up to speed, I'd like to make an honorary mention for award of the week. While Marc Russell earned award of the week honors, a close second place goes to David Lenhardt for weirdest hairstyle of the week. David received some criticism in the group chat for putting his hair in a single, vertical pigtail.

Drew Johnson would like me to inform everyone to get a dog in the grits this week, even though none of us have any idea what that means. Blake Robertson is still removing people from the group chat like it's his job, and Jesse Bush offered to buy the whole team ice cream in the group chat. I would also like to remind all of our readers that "Coach has the right to call a Saturday practice."

Freshman Spotlight

OF (#14) – Gunnar Stinson

Gunnar Stinson, a Business Management major, brings to the team a genuine love of the game and a hard work ethic. Gunnar has an affinity for eating salads and for apologizing for things he needn't apologize for. Gunnar estimates he's eaten over 150 heads of lettuce this year. Gunnar has never seen the Muppets, likes Max and Erma's, and likes to pronounce Manes as "mayonnaise". On a fat scale from 1-7, Gunnar thinks that Garfield is roughly a 6. He noted, "a minute on the lips, forever on the hips".

When asked how many laps around the track he thought he could carry RHP Josh Kneeland (210 lbs), he said three laps. We'll be testing that out after practice today, so ask Gunnar if his legs are sore tomorrow when you see him. Here's to Gun Piece.

Quotes of the Week

"Boys, boys, boys. 7 tarp on game time for the Alderson Broaddus Cedarville 2 game times for 4 games in the tarp pull make sure field good for tarp and play game on tarp pull time. Home. Game." – Jordan Adams (explaining Coach's email to the rest of the team.)
"Really Bush... Really??" – Coach Manes

Weekly Award

Most Chill Champion presented by Old Spice

Presented to Marc Russell for being the most relaxed person in the world according to a recent poll*

According to this bracket, done by Cole "Thad" Ferguson, Marc beat out a host of extremely chill people. The list of individuals less chill than Marc includes, but is not limited to, Crush (the sea turtle from Finding Nemo), Bob Marley, Patrick Bain (Sophomore point guard for Cedarville University), Garret Baker (senior pitcher for Cedarville University), Kurt Beachy (Athletic Trainer), Toby, and a Panda. If you see Marc on campus, say his name with a "k" instead of a "c", and check his pulse to make sure he's still with us.

Mailbag

"I am aware that Cedarville played a Sunday afternoon game against Alderson Broaddus this past weekend, almost exactly a year following (April 12, 2015) the twin-bill against Davis & Elkins. Is this Cedarville's first steps toward shedding the "Christian" aspect of the university, as many universities so recently have?" - (A Concerned Alumnus)

No, Cedarville is as committed to its' faith as the University has ever been. Both instances, the April 12th doubleheader and the games played this past weekend, were a result of poor weather conditions combined with an inability to re-work our schedule. Both Davis & Elkins and Alderson Broaddus are located in West Virginia, roughly five hours away from Cedarville, which adds to the difficulty in rescheduling the contests. The Davis & Elkins games last season were moved to Sunday because we were already in West Virginia, and unable to reschedule the games for any other date on the schedule that coordinated with both teams.

Similarly, Alderson Broaddus, along with ourselves, have packed schedules through the remainder of the season leading to the reasonable conclusion that make-up games are highly unlikely. On both occasions, Coach Manes has requested and been granted approval from both the Athletic Department and from the University itself to play these games. While playing on Sundays is not ideal for the University, some accommodations must be made in order to reconcile poor weather conditions for outdoor sporting events. Also, in both instances, our coaching staff has invited the opposing team to join us in church to worship along side us and to share the gospel. All Sunday games are played in the afternoons and evenings to avoid any church conflict for both players and coaches from both sides of the diamond.

Thank you for your inquiry. I hope I was able to sufficiently answer your question.

Email questions about the team, our schedule, expectations, and what you'd like to see in the next blog to jadenclend@cedarville.edu, and I'll answer them in the next blog.

Thanks for reading,

Big Mamu

Weekend Series

The Cedarville University baseball team hosts the Ohio Valley University Fighting Scots in a four-game Great Midwest Athletic Conference series this weekend.

Cedarville enters the weekend with a 10-21 mark (3-7 G-MAC) including a 7-3 verdict over visiting Miami-Hamilton on Tuesday. Ohio Valley brings a 9-28 record (3-9 G-MAC) into Yellow Jacket Field including a 12-4 win at Ohio-Lancaster on Tuesday.

Senior outfielder David Lenhardt leads the Jackets with a .359 batting average including team-highs of nine doubles, two HR's, 23 runs and a .521 slugging percentage. Junior third baseman Drew Johnson is second on the club with a .358 batting average. He tops CU with 44 hits, two triples and 59 total bases.

David Lenhardt

Sophomore outfielder Colton Potter is batting a third-best .340 with a team-high 25 runs batted in.

Senior right-hander Garrett Baker, the current G-MAC Pitcher of the Week, is 2-2 with a 3.82 earned run average in 33 innings of action. Senior reliever Connor Hamilton is tied for the all-time lead in appearances with 56 while posting two saves this year.

Last Time Up • 4/19/16

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Colton Potter stroked three hits and winning pitcher Brent Solinger notched his first collegiate victory in a 7-3 non-conference result over Miami-Hamilton.

Brent Solinger

Solinger allowed three earned runs on six hits in six innings. He struck out four and walked two.

David Bancroft allowed just one hit in two innings of relief and Jordan Adams tossed a scoreless 9th.

The Yellow Jackets, 10-21, took control with four runs in the 4th inning.

Potter went 3-for-4 with a double, two runs scored, and two RBI's to lead CU's 12-hit attack.

Drew Johnson had two hits with a double. Ross Melchior and Gunnar Stinson added two hits apiece.

Head Coach Mike Manes

Mike Manes (pronounced MAN-us) has been the head baseball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He has guided the Yellow Jackets to the seven winningest seasons in school history and six trips to the NCCAA National Tournament.

Manes has won more games than any previous baseball coach that CU has ever had averaging nearly 30 victories per season. The Jackets have claimed four NCCAA Midwest Region banners during his tenure.

Three of Manes' players have advanced to the professional ranks including righthanded pitcher David Ledbetter, who was a 3rd round choice by the Texas Rangers and 99th pick overall in the 2013 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

The Yellow Jackets were 31-27 in 2014 while winning 10 of their last 15 games. They were the Great Midwest Athletic Conference runner-up and advanced to the NCCAA National Semifinals.

Cedarville posted a 29-19 mark in 2013. The Jackets claimed their third straight NCCAA Midwest Region title and returned to the national tournament.

CU set the school record for the most victories in a season in 2012 with a 38-13 record. The Yellow Jackets won their third NCCAA Midwest Region banner in the past four years and advanced to the national tournament as the No. 1 seed.

Cedarville was 33-18-2 in 2011 and had a best-ever five NCCAA All-Americans on the roster. The Jackets copped the NCCAA Midwest Region banner for the second time in three years and returned to the NCCAA National Tournament. Manes was named the Region Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 28-27 record in 2010. The Jackets were also the NCCAA Midwest Region runner-up.

Manes was named the 2009 NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year after leading Cedarville to the region title. The Yellow Jackets won over 30 games for the first time in school history with their 32-28 record and split four games at the NCCAA Nationals.

Cedarville was the Midwest Region runner-up in Manes' first season in 2008. The Jackets set a then school record for the most victories in season with 23. They also won eight games in the tough American Mideast Conference which equaled their league win total from the previous three seasons combined.

Manes came to the Yellow Jackets following a four-year stay as head coach at Trinity International University near Chicago. He was able to turn the TIU program around after inheriting a team that won just four games in his first season in 2004 and the school had never qualified for the conference tournament.

Manes then guided the Trojans to 85 victories over the next three seasons by winning 25, 28, and 32 games, respectively, which set school records for the most victories in a season each time. The 2006 squad put together TIU's first-ever winning season and the 2007 team finished 32-22.

In his short tenure, Manes guided the Trojans to their first-ever conference tournament appearance, two NCCAA North Central Region championships, and TIU played in the NCCAA National Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was tabbed the 2005 NCCAA North Central Region Coach of the Year.

The Nebraska native previously founded and coached the Lincoln Crusaders which is an American Legion baseball club. In his 11 years at the helm, the team made nine trips to the state tournament winning one championship and finishing as the runner-up on two other occasions.

Manes is actively involved in baseball administration. He is currently the NCCAA baseball chair as well as the chair of the new Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Manes is a 1989 graduate of Liberty University and he earned a master's degree in 2005 from Alameda University. Mike and his wife, Connie, reside in Springfield and have four married children and 12 grandchildren.
