Christina Kirkpatrick's Softball Blog

April 21, 2014

The Lady Jacket softball players have all had a hectic past few days: after sweeping Ursuline on Thursday, many of us got to return home Friday morning to enjoy a couple days with our families (most for the first time all semester!) before reporting back to Cedarville Sunday night in preparation for our trip to West Virginia bright and early Monday.

This coming week brings even more craziness; after our six-hour trip Monday, we will play our final four regular season games at home on Friday and Saturday. This weekend will be special for another reason, though: it's a chance to honor our senior, Kelsey Chapman. From the short time I've known Kelsey, I've been overwhelmed by her leadership on and off the field. She's truly taken this young team under her wing and guided us to a year of success. Being a freshman, I haven't had the opportunity to be around Kelsey as much as some of the older girls have, so I passed the baton to junior Cecelia DeBartolo this week to talk about how much playing with Kelsey the past three years has meant to her.

"On Saturday afternoon we will be celebrating Kelsey Chapman's last home softball game here at Cedarville University. Whether she is catching, pitching, or playing first base (or any other position on the field), Kelsey is one of the BEST softball players I have ever had the privilege to play with. However, to me she is an even better friend and sister-in-Christ. Off the field, Kels is the girl on the team that brings hot soup to you when you are sick and surprises you with company when you are lonely. On the field, she is the girl who can catch wild pitches like a boss behind the plate and then go out and finish that very game ON THE MOUND.

There are so many memories that Kelsey has brought to our lives in these past years. When I first met Kelsey I was playing against her in the fall recruit game here at Cedarville. I was on third base and she picked me off the bag by a mile! That was the (humiliating) moment I realized that she DID NOT mess around back there behind that plate and Kelsey STILL remembers it and brings it up every now and again (three years later). Whether she is baking a delicious team feast or inspiring us with motivational speeches during a game, she is our "team mom" and an amazing team leader. She has challenged myself and many other girls to glorify the Lord in the way we live our lives on and off the field, whether it be through words or her own actions.

Kelsey, keep shining the light of Christ! We love you and know that the Lord has amazing plans for you, Jordan, and Champ. Thank you for the way you have believed in me all of these years and inspired me as well as this whole team!

Love,
Cece"

Until next time...Sting it!!!
