Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 29, 2012

This season is just flying by - and what a season it has been! We are now 25-5, and hoping to push forward with a 30+ win season, something that the volleyball team has not accomplished in the past few years. The long hours during the summer and in season are all coming into play as we come closer and closer to the ultimate goal: the NCAA II National Tournament. Each point, set, and ultimately match are crucial to our bid in the post season playoffs. While we suffered quite a few injuries this week, we all pulled together and played the roles we were called to play and came out on top.

Tuesday of this week we headed out on the big Buckeye bus for Ursuline College. This was a team with much fewer wins than losses, and we should have beaten them in four sets. Unfortunately, we sometimes have this problem where we don't start very well. Tuesday happened to be one of those days and we lost the first set: Ursuline came ready to play and work hard, and we didn't seem ready for that. However, sets two, three, and four were different stories. We sided out well, were turning digs into points, and on some points were unstoppable. In the middle of that match Tori went down with a sprained ankle, and it looked like a bad one. Sarah Simpson stepped in no problem and played a great game. I really admire her for coming in cold off the bench under a somewhat stressful situation and jumping right into the mix with no problem. We left with another win under our belt and stomachs satisfied with Chipotle for dinner!

Wednesday was an odd day for the team to say the least. It's already weird when a teammate is sitting out, but little did we know that two more would be injured by the end of that day. Kelsey got a concussion and Alyssa hurt her shin pretty badly. Thankfully, Alyssa could still play or we would have had some crazy lineup changes for the weekend! Kelsey, unfortunately, was having a lot of symptoms and went home for the weekend to get rest and avoid the noise and harsh lighting of the gym. We hope to have her back on the court as soon as possible because until then a vital piece of our team dynamic is missing - she brings humor, encouragement, and great athleticism to the team! Until then, Alyssa is doing a great job filling her shoes and working hard on the right side.

The win on Friday against Notre Dame College was quick and fun, and we were all looking forward to the next day's game against Charleston, a solid opponent. The last time we played them we won in four sets, and this time we were looking for a three-set win. We won the first set and fought back from a deficit in the second set to go into our ten-minute break before the next set. Well, as coach always tells us not to do after the infamous break, we laid the "proverbial egg" and narrowly lost that set. We ended up once again with a win in four, and were happy overall with our performance.

We are really looking forward to our next four home games, especially our White Out Night on November 1!!! If we get 1,000 fans there wearing white, everyone in attendance gets a coupon for a free Chick-fil-A sandwich!!!

Come out and back the Jackets!!!!!! In the words of Coach, "Can I get a Hollllaaaaa?!"

Hannah Wagner is a sophomore undeclared major from Claremont, Calif. She is in her second season with the Lady Jackets as an outside hitter.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 82 victories during Walters' four-year tenure. CU finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA Division II provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Cedarville was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. CU was 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is the Elevation Volleyball Club 17's National Team Coach based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Hamersville, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 10.

The Walters File:

- 2008 NCCAA National Champions
- 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year
- 1 NAIA National Player of the Week
- 6 NCCAA All-Americans
- 1 NCCAA National Tournament MVP
- 2 NCCAA National All-Tournament players
- 7 NAIA Scholar-Athletes
- 10 NCCAA Scholar-Athletes
- 1 Conference Libero of the Year
- 1 Conference Freshman of the Year
- 8 Conference players
- 10 All-NCCAA Midwest Region players

Great Midwest Athletic Conference - Volleyball

www.G-MACsports.com

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), which was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference effective September 1, 2012, will be working through an educational assessment program with the goal of beginning competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference by 2013-14.

The G-MAC features active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC include Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, Urbana University and Ursuline College. The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson-Broaddus College, Davis & Elkins College, and Ohio Valley University as active DII members in 2012.

The University of Virginia's College at Wise was approved as a Full Member, while Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012 as well.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 12 championships in 2012-13 as a NCAA Division II member conference.

Volleyball Player of the Week (Oct. 21-27)

Hannah Wagner
Cedarville • Sophomore • Claremont, CA

Wagner pushed the Yellow Jackets to another undefeated week of action, increasing the teams overall record to a conference best 25-5, including a conference win over Ursuline to improve to a perfect 4-0 in the G-MAC.

This season Wagner has tallied 18 kills in a match three-times, however this week she established a career-high - twice - with 19 kills at Ursuline (19-1-38 - .474 attack pct.) and 19 kills over visiting Charleston (19-5-35 - .400 attack pct.). She finished the week with 44 kills, 13 digs, four assists and a pair of blocks.

Wagner now leads her team with 308 kills and also leads her team and the conference with 80 total blocks.
